Growth of English Industry and Commerce: Modern times: pt. I. Mercantile system. pt. II. Laissez-faire William Cunningham, 1912 The Missiological Spirit Amos Yong, 2015-04-30 The field of the theology of mission has developed variously across Christian traditions in the last century. Pentecostal scholars and missiologists also have made their share of contributions to this area This book brings the insights of pentecostal theologian Amos Yong to the discussion It delineates the major features of what will be argued as central to a viable vision and praxis for Christian mission in a postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western and postcolonial world What emerges will be a distinctively pentecostally and evangelically informed missiological theology one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of Incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses and realities The argument unfolds through dialogical engagements with the work of others concrete case studies and systematic theological reflection Yong s pneumatological and missiological imagination proffers a model for Christian theology of mission suitable for the twenty first century global and pluralistic context even as it exemplifies how a missiological understanding of theology itself unfolds amidst engagements with contemporary ecclesial practices and academic theological impulses

Christians who are engaged in missions regularly face ethical challenges But the approaches and standards of modern missions often further complicate rather than alleviate matters Modern missiology debates what actions constitute mission work how to measure growth and the difference between persuasion and coercion In Virtuous Persuasion Michael Niebauer casts a holistic vision for Christian mission that is rooted in theological ethics and moral philosophy Niebauer proposes a theology of mission grounded in virtue Becoming a skilled missionary is more about following Christ than mastering techniques Christian mission is best understood as specific activities that develop virtue in its practitioners and move them toward their ultimate goal of partaking in the glory of God With Virtuous Persuasion you can rethink the essence of Jesus s Great Commission and how we seek to fulfill it

State without Religion? Jeroen Jans, 2022-12-07 In recent decades the Netherlands and Flanders have faced challenges in how to deal with a multicultural society As far as worldviews are concerned the question arises whether the state should guarantee a maximum level of choice concerning religion and humanism to individuals or leave a free space to the religious and humanist communities This study explores in how far committed Catholic Protestant Muslim and humanist youth agree with different models of the relationship between worldviews and the state against the backdrop of their religious and humanist beliefs as well as social determinants It does so by drawing on quantitative and qualitative empirical research The analyses show that overall most religious and humanist youth prefer the state to guarantee a maximum level of choice to individuals but also want the state to respect a substantial free space for communities Above all they want the state to treat worldviews equally before the law Their religious and humanist beliefs are the most significant determinants Jeroen Jans 1990 works at the Diocese of Hasselt and is a visiting researcher at Radboud University He performed his doctoral research at the Faculty of Philosophy Theology and Religious Studies Small Business Administration's Small Business Development Center Program United States.
