Raising Hell The Rebel In The Movies:

Raising Hell Terence Pettigrew, 1986-01-01 Looks at the character of the rebel as portrayed by Hollywood from the thirties to the eighties describes the careers of actors associated with that type of role and discusses important films of each period
Rebel Without a Cause J. David Slocum, 2005-09-27 Five decades after the production and initial release of Rebel Without a Cause this book examines both the complicated historical moment in which the film was made as well as its continuing and pervasive influence on film today The contributors track how the film continues to speak to diverse audiences as a touchstone for imagined anxieties over adolescence and coming of age traditional values of family and community threats from abroad and the provocations of mass or consumer society Although the specific sources and motivations for rebellion have shifted what has persisted is the film's singular power to represent rebellion in what could otherwise be seen as the everyday and to move viewers to ponder its causes

When Frankie Went to Hollywood Karen McNally, 2015-04-20 This first in depth study of Frank Sinatra's film career explores his iconic status in relation to his many performances in postwar Hollywood cinema When Frankie Went to Hollywood considers how Sinatra's musical acts television appearances and public commentary impacted his screen performances in Pal Joey The Tender Trap Some Came Running The Man with the Golden Arm and other hits A lively discussion of sexuality class race ethnicity and male vulnerability in postwar American culture illuminates Karen McNally's investigation into Sinatra's cinematic roles and public persona This entertainment luminary she finds was central in shaping debates surrounding definitions of American male identity in the 1940s and 50s

Captured on Film Bruce

Crowther,1989 Prison has long fascinated film makers and audiences alike The author explores the dark enclosed world of prisons on film from light hearted comedies to the deeper implications of people imprisoned for their political and religious beliefs

Masked Men Steve Cohan,1997-12-22 The fifties marks the moment when a heterosexual homosexual dualism came to dominate U S culture s thinking about masculinity The films of this era record how gender and sexuality did not easily come together in a normative manhood common to American men Instead these films demonstrate the widely held perception of a crises of masculinity Masked Men documents how movies of the fifties represented masculinity as a multiple masquerade Hollywood s star system positioned the male actor as a professional performer and as a body intended to solicit the erotic interest of male and female viewers alike Drawing on publicity poster art fan magazines and the popular press as a means of following the links between fifties stars their films and the social tensions of the period Cohan juxtaposes Hollywood s narratives of masculinity against the personae of leading men like Cary Grant Humphrey Bogart John Wayne Charlton Heston Yul Brynner William Holden Montgomery Clift Marlon Brando and Rock Hudson Masked Men focuses on the gender and sexual masquerades that organized their performances of masculinity on and off screen

Films and Filming,1986

Performing Illusions Dan R. North,2008 The camera supposedly never lies yet film s ability to frame cut and reconstruct all that passed before its lens made cinema the pre eminent medium of visual illusion and revelation from the early twentieth century onwards This volume examines film s creative history of special effects and trickery encompassing everything from George M li s first trick films to the modern CGI era Evaluating movements towards the use of computer generated synthespians in films such as Final Fantasy the Spirits Within 2001 this title suggests that cinematic effects should be understood not as attempts to perfectly mimic real life but as constructions of substitute realities situating them in the cultural lineage of the stage performers and illusionists and of the nineteenth century With analyses of films such as Destination Moon 1950 Spider Man 2002 and the King Kong films 1933 and 2006 this new volume provides an insight into cinema s capacity to perform illusions

The 101 Most Influential Coming-of-age Movies Ryan Uytendewilligen,2016 A lifelong movie buff puts his knowledge and passion on paper to show you the best films of his favorite movie genre Coming of Age The author highlights some of the finest acting the most poignant moments and the funniest gags in movies about growing up reflecting each decade of American culture since the beginning of film making while illustrating the ageless turbulence and confusion of adolescence

Let Them Call Me Rebel Sandord D. Horwitt,1992-03-31 In the course of his flamboyant career as an all purpose activist Saul Alinsky went from organizing working class ethnics in one of Chicago s most blighted neighborhoods to mapping out strategies for the civil rights and antiwar movements of the 1960s He enlisted allies from Catholic clergymen to labor unionists and black activists in battles waged against opponents from slumlords to the Eastman Kodak corporation The range of Alinsky s activities the intensity of his beliefs and his exhilarating mixture of crudeness and calculation almost vibrate off the pages of this passionate and inspiring biography This is an important account of a complex and idiosyncratic urban populist who insisted that power was the keystone of social change Horwitt produces a comprehensive appraisal of Alinsky's colorful confrontational tactics as a community organizer and his influence on a succeeding generation of social activists An insightful and well written study Library Journal

Dalton Trumbo, Hollywood Rebel Peter Hanson, 2015-08-13 As a screenwriter novelist and political activist Dalton Trumbo stands among the key American literary figures of the 20th century he wrote the classic antiwar novel Johnny Got His Gun and his credits for Spartacus and Exodus broke the anticommunist blacklist that infected the movie industry for more than a decade By defining connections between Trumbo's most highly acclaimed films including Kitty Foyle Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo and Roman Holiday and his important but lesser known movies The Remarkable Andrew He Ran All the Way and The Boss the author identifies how for nearly four decades Trumbo used the archetype of the rebel hero to inject social consciousness into mainstream films This new critical survey the first book length work on Trumbo's screenwriting career examines the scores of films on which Trumbo worked and explores the techniques that made him at the time he was blacklisted in 1947 Hollywood's highest paid writer Hanson reveals how Trumbo dealt with major themes including rebellion radical politics and individualism while also detailing lesser known areas of Trumbo's screenwriting such as his troubling portrayal of women the dichotomy between his proletarian attitude and bourgeois lifestyle and the almost surreptitious manner in which he included antiestablishment rhetoric in seemingly innocuous scripts An extensive filmography is included

Vishnu in Hollywood David I. Grossvogel, 2000 By examining the icons that drew millions to the box office this study offers an historical overview a psychological and sociological analysis of the American man reflected on the silver screen

An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy, 2018-06-05 In An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy offers an engaging overview of an important trend the filmmaking of postcolonial Third World and other displaced individuals living in the West How their personal experiences of exile or diaspora translate into cinema is a key focus of Naficy's work Although the experience of expatriation varies greatly from one person to the next the films themselves exhibit stylistic similarities from their open and closed form aesthetics to their nostalgic and memory driven multilingual narratives and from their emphasis on political agency to their concern with identity and transgression of identity The author explores such features while considering the specific histories of individuals and groups that engender divergent experiences institutions and modes of cultural production and consumption Treating creativity as a social practice he demonstrates that the films are in dialogue not only with the home and host societies but also with audiences many of whom are also situated astride cultures and whose desires and fears the filmmakers wish to express Comparing these films to Hollywood films Naficy calls them accented Their accent results from the displacement of the filmmakers their alternative production modes and their style Accented cinema is an emerging genre one that requires new sets of viewing skills on the part of audiences Its significance continues to grow in terms of output stylistic variety cultural diversity and social impact This book offers the first comprehensive and global coverage of this genre while presenting a framework in which to understand its intricacies The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988
