Raising Readers Appealing Approaches And Successful Strategies:

Raising Readers Ruth Toor, Hilda K. Weisburg, 1997 From the School Librarians Workshop this book presents many reading activities to help one develop a well rounded program offering different avenues for reaching all students Journal of Youth Services in Libraries, 1998 School Library Journal, 2009 Canadian Periodical Index, 1997 Access, 1998 Library Developments, 1995 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children's development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children's development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods Improving Schools and Educational Systems Alma Harris, Janet Hageman Chrispeels, 2023-05-09 School improvement has become a dominant feature of educational reform in many countries The pressure upon schools to improve performance has resulted in a wide range of improvement programmes and initiatives which can provide both inspiration and advice to everyone involved in school improvement This book draws together the most effective school improvement projects from around the world in one comprehensive text including detailed comparative analysis of a wide variety of initiatives Drawing on examples from the UK the USA Canada South Africa and Australia this book gives both an international snapshot and a coherent synthesis of initiatives that have given achievable results Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997

Every Child Reading Darrell Morris, Robert E. Slavin, 2003 After defining the problem of early reading failure in our schools renowned authors Robert Slavin and Darrell Morris include chapters on effective classroom reading instruction for kindergarten and first grade one on one tutorial instruction and reading instruction strategically organized on a school wide basis Taking a developmental position the authors describe specific assessment instructional and management procedures that will be useful to both in service and pre service teachers The information is practical and detailed blending classroom tested pedagogical knowledge with the latest research findings This text appeals to both teachers working directly with children and administrators who are looking for strategic answers to complex questions about beginning reading instruction

The Steps to the Supreme Court Peter Irons, 2012-03-16 A guide to the American legal system told through the story of two actual court cases The Steps to the Supreme Court takes a lively narrative approach to the subject by following two real cases one civil one criminal as they work their way through the system all the way up to the Supreme Court Written by a member of the Supreme Court bar this book brings the legal system to life in a practical accessible and compelling way Covers the key legal terms principles and processes you need to have a basic grasp of the American legal system Tracks the criminal case involving the murder trial of Paul House and follows the defendant from the night of the murder through his conviction appeals and final chance for exoneration at the hands of the Supreme Court Follows a civil case concerning the Ten Commandments being displayed on public property following the parties from the time the plaintiffs filed their complaints through the Supreme Court decisions and back to the aftermath in the lower courts as they wrestle with a divided complex ruling Written by the author of A People's History of the Supreme Court and other classic works on the American justice system

Literacy Crises and Reading Policies Janet Soler, Roger Openshaw, 2006-07-13 This widely researched comparative study addresses the critical issue of literacy crises around the world and questions their wider sociological and educational impact The recurring literacy crises in England and English speaking countries such as the US and New Zealand are linked to wider issues of educational standards concepts of teacher professionalism debates over curriculum content and the whole purpose of schooling in order for us to obtain a deeper understanding of specific national contexts and the political pressures involved The authors comparative approach enables them to uniquely demonstrate how literacy crises in one country can actually stimulate and shape literacy crises in another as well as illustrating that these crises frequently share common features across time and geographical boundaries Rather than championing any one best method of teaching reading central questions are addressed and discussed which will make this ground breaking book essential reading for policy makers teachers and students in literacy and education studies
