

"... honest, down-to-earth advice communicated with good sense and backed by experience ... priority reading for foster parents and caseworkers."

— WAYNE A. HAPNER, Director
Foster Care Services, Inc. of Northeast Indiana

"... a splendid guide for adults struggling in the role of parents to a child not born to them. ... Mrs. Felker's easy-to-read, skilled, and disciplined style of writing may be for the non-birth parent of today's child what Spock was to the overwhelmed parent of the post World War II era."

— MARY REISTROFFER
Professor of Social Work, University of Wisconsin

Over 2,000,000 children in the United States are growing up in homes other than the ones into which they were born. Is raising these children different from raising biological children?

☐ YES, and NO, according to Evelyn Felker, the mother of several foster and adoptive children who holds a master's in Child Development and Family Life. Yes, the restructured family confronts special challenges, but, says Felker, these challenges can be overcome. In fact, insists the author, growing up in a restructured family can be just as rewarding as growing up in a biological family. ☐

☐ Unlike most step-parenting guides, this book offers a refreshingly frank and positive perspective on raising step-children, advocating, for example, that these children be viewed not as intruders but as individuals with unique characteristics, needs, and gifts. Such views, coupled with Felker's skillful re-working of classic child-rearing theory into easy-to-understand and practical advice, will be welcomed not only by foster and adoptive families, but re-married parents, school personnel, social workers, and church counselors. ☐

EVELYN FELKER, the author of Foster Parenting Young Children, conducts weekly workshops specializing in the problems and needs of restructured families. ☐
