Vols Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1953      Sir Walter Raleigh's Discoverie of Guiana Sir Walter Raleigh, 2006 Sir Walter Raleigh's account of his 1595 expedition in search of the fabled empire of El Dorado was an immediate publishing success and is one of the most important pieces of Elizabethan travel literature This edition presents the annotated texts of an unpublished copy of Raleigh's draft of The Discoverie of the Large Rich and Bewtiful Empyre of Gviana and the subsequent printed versions It demonstrates how the manuscript was altered for publication to focus its appeal to investors in gold mines for which Raleigh had very little evidence      The Cartographic Imagination in Early Modern England D K Smith, 2013-04-28 Working from a cultural studies perspective author D K Smith here examines a broad range of medieval and Renaissance maps and literary texts to explore the effects of geography on Tudor Stuart cultural perceptions He argues that the literary representation of cartographically related material from the late fifteenth to the early seventeenth century demonstrates a new strain not just of geographical understanding but of cartographic manipulation which he terms the cartographic imagination Rather than considering the effects of maps themselves on early modern epistemologies Smith considers the effects of the activity of mapping the new techniques the new expectations of accuracy and precision which developed in the sixteenth century on the ways people thought and wrote Looking at works by Spenser Marlowe Raleigh and Marvell among other authors he analyzes how the growing ability to represent physical space accurately brought with it not just a wealth of new maps but a new array of rhetorical techniques metaphors and associations which allowed the manipulation of texts and ideas in ways never before possible      The Life of Sir Walter Raleigh Edward Edwards, 1868      The Life of Sir Walter Raleigh: Life Edward Edwards, 1868      Report of the Special Commission Appointed by the President, January 4, 1896, to Examine and Report Upon the True Divisional Line Between the Republic of Venezuela and British Guiana United States.
