Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man A Casebook Casebooks In Criticism:

Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man John F. Callahan, 2004 Ralph Ellison's *Invisible Man John F. Callahan, 2004 The books that comprise the Casebooks in Criticism series offer edited in depth readings and critical notes and studies on the most important classic novels This volume explores Ellison's Invisible Man Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ralph Ellison Tracy Floreani, 2024-07-19 One of the most important American authors and public intellectuals of the twentieth century Ralph Ellison had a keen and unsentimental understanding of the relationship between race art and activism in American life He contended with other writers of his day in his examination of the entrenched racism in society and his writing continues to inform national conversations in letters and culture The essays in Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ralph Ellison will help instructors in colleges high schools and prisons teach not only the indispensable Invisible Man but also Ellison's short stories his essays and the two editions of his second unfinished novel Juneteenth and Three Days before the Shooting In considering Ellison's works in relation to jazz technology humor politics queerness and disability this volume mirrors the breadth of Ellison's own life which extended from the Jim Crow era through the Black Power movement

Orson Welles's Citizen Kane James Naremore, 2010-04-10 Citizen Kane is arguably the most admired and significant film since the advent of talking pictures No other film is quite so interesting from both artistic and political points of view To study it even briefly is to learn a great deal about American history motion picture style and the literary aspects of motion picture scripts Rather than presenting a sterile display of critical methodologies James Naremore has gathered a set of essays that represent the essential writings on the film It gives the reader a lively set of critical interpretations together with the necessary production information historical background and technical understanding to comprehend the film's larger cultural significance Selections range from the anecdotal Peter Bogdanovich's interview with Orson Welles to the critical with discussions on the scripts and sound track and a discussion of what accounts for the film's enduring popularity Contributors include James Naremore Peter Bogdanovich Jonathan Rosenbaum Robert L Carringer Francois Thomas Michael Denning Laura Mulvey Peter Wollen and Paul Arthur Slavery in Art and Literature Birgit Haehnel, Melanie Ulz, 2010-01-01 Slavery both in its historical and modern forms continues to be a matter of undiminished political and social relevance This is mirrored by an increasing interest in scholarly research as well as by critical statements from within the field of contemporary art The present volume is designed to bring together artists and scholars from various fields of study discussing trauma and visibility or more precisely memory and denial of traumatic history within visual discourses The purpose of this project is to put the phenomenon of contemporary art production dealing with the issue of slavery into a wider interdisciplinary and transcultural context The book covers current case studies focusing on different media and including visual literary and performative approaches of dealing with the history of slavery in West African American and European cultures Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin Elizabeth Ammons, 2007 General for the Series The Casebooks in Criticism introduce readers to the essential criticism on landmark works of literature and film. For each volume a distinguished scholar who is an authority on the text has collected the most elucidating and distinctive scholarly essays on that work and added key supporting materials. Each volume includes a substantial introduction which considers the key features of the work, describes its publication history and contextualizes its cultural import and contemporary reputation while also surveying the major approaches which have informed the work's critical history. A condensed bibliography offers suggestions for further reading. The compact volumes provide a critical survey and suggest provocative ways to engage with their texts. They are ideally suited to those interested in developing a deeper understanding of a work's history and significance.

Specific for this book: Most of the best criticism on Stowe's landmark novel is fairly recent. Until the combined impact of the civil rights and women's movements changed the focus of the academic curriculum, Uncle Tom's Cabin seldom appeared in classrooms or as the subject of published scholarship. However, from the mid 1970 forward, the book has been widely written about and taught. Today Uncle Tom's Cabin is a stable, important part of the nineteenth-century American literature canon and has generated a rich body of new critical work. This casebook collects the best of the new scholarship as well as the most influential older essays. Included in this volume are letters by Harriet Beecher Stowe and articles by James Baldwin, Leslie Fiedler, Jane Tompkins, Gillian Brown, Robert Stepto, and Elizabeth Ammons.

Ezra Pound's Cantos Peter Makin, 2006. Publisher description: Fyodor Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment Richard Arthur Peace, 2006. This collection of interpretations of Crime and Punishment reflects both classical and more recent critical opinion. The novel is examined from various perspectives and includes two essays by Russian scholars that discuss post-Soviet attitudes towards Dostoevsky.

Jane Austen's Emma Fiona J. Stafford, 2007. Publisher description: Laurence Sterne's Tristram Shandy Thomas Keymer, 2006-04-13. Thomas Keymer's introduction to this casebook examines the historical context and controversial reception of Tristram Shandy and connects the essays selected for inclusion to the diverse traditions of Sterne Criticism.

Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho Robert Phillip Kolker, 2004. Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho: A Casebook brings together critical essays on this influential and teachable film. The essays not only elaborate on the complexities of the film but represent the spectrum of film criticism including an analysis of its music and close readings illustrated by many stills from the film.

Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre Elsie Browning Michie, 2006. Divided into three sections, this work explores a range of interpretive strategies applied to readings of Jane Eyre. The last section includes essays that frame the historical and social contexts out of which Jane Eyre arose and investigate the critical reception and afterlife of the text. Publisher: William Wordsworth's The Prelude Stephen Gill, 2006-08-31. William Wordsworth's poem The Prelude is a fascinating work both as an autobiography and as a fragment of historical evidence from the revolutionary and post-revolutionary years. This volume gathers together 13 essays on The Prelude and is useful as a companion for students and general readers of Wordsworth's greatest poem.

Geoffrey Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales Lee Patterson, 2007. Publisher description: Cervantes' Don

Quixote Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 2010-04-10 This casebook gathers a collection of ambitious essays about both parts of the novel 1605 and 1615 and also provides a general introduction and a bibliography The essays range from Ram n Men ndez Pidal s seminal study of how Cervantes dealt with chivalric literature to Erich Auerbachs polemical study of Don Quixote as essentially a comic book by studying its mixture of styles and include Leo Spitzer s masterful probe into the essential ambiguity of the novel through minute linguistic analysis of Cervantes prose The book includes pieces by other major Cervantes scholars such as Manuel Dur n and Edward C Riley as well as younger scholars like Georgina Dopico Black All these essays ultimately seek to discover that which is peculiarly Cervantean in Don Quixote and why it is considered to be the first modern novel D.H. Lawrence's Women in Love David Ellis, 2006 An international group of scholars demonstrate the power Women in Love still has to challenge and stimulate its readers in this collection of recent essays They illustrate the way recent theoretical developments in literary studies can be made relevant to readings of Lawrence Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association, 2004 Includes both books and articles Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 African American Review , 2005 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-12
