to the American and English philosophical community first in her early essay in the Journal of Philosophy 1938 and then in her book Heidegger 1957 She has written as well on Jaspers and Marcel as in the Kenyon Review 1957 Grene's book Dreadful Freedom 1948 was one of the most important and influential introductions to Existentialism and her works on Sartre have been among the most profound and insightful studies of his philosophy from the earliest to the later writings her book Sartre 1973 and her papers L'Homme est une passion inutile Sartre and Heidegger in the Kenyon Review 1947 Sartre's Theory of the Emotions in Yale French Studies 1948 Sartre A Philosophical Study in Mind 1969 The Aesthetic Dialogue of Sartre and Merleau-Ponty in the initial volume of the Journal of the British Society for Phenomenology 1970 On First Reading L'Idiot de New England Magazine, 1906 The Flaneur in Nineteenth-Century British Literary Culture Isabel Vila-Cabanes, 2018-10-15 The flaneur is a cultural and literary phenomenon usually associated with nineteenth century Paris but the type also exists in the artistic and literary panorama of other major European capitals such as London Berlin and Moscow Despite massive recent interest in the figure of the flaneur in scholarly studies analyses about the nineteenth century British analogue are often fragmentary appearing in the form of isolated articles However there is an abundant amount of nineteenth century novels sketches and journalistic essays which offer remarkable and hitherto overlooked accounts of the British metropolis and which frequently include the figure of the flaneur as a central character or the topic of flânerie as a theme This book explores a great array of texts making an essential contribution to our knowledge and understanding of the prehistory or rather history of the British flaneur from the early eighteenth century to the early twentieth century with a special focus on the nineteenth century The flaneur is looked at as a figure in which the development and dynamics of the modern metropolis and its impact on the literary discourse are manifested from a formal as well as thematic perspective Monthly Bulletin Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1905 The Bay State Monthly, 1906

Kapoor, 2004-10 Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1906 Finding Rest in Illusion Longchenpa, 2019-01-08 A new translation of the Tibetan master Longchenpa's famous work that systematically presents the path of yogic conduct according to the Dzogchen tradition Finding Rest in Illusion is the third volume of the Trilogy of Rest Longchenpa's classic exposition of the Buddhist path The purpose of these teachings is to introduce us to our most basic nature the clear and pristine awareness that is the nature of the mind According to the traditional Tibetan Buddhist formula of view meditation and action this volume follows Finding Rest in the Nature of the Mind which establishes the view of the Buddhist path generally and specifically that of the teachings of the Great Perfection and Finding Rest in Meditation which outlines the main points of meditation namely where one should meditate what qualities a practitioner should possess and develop and what should be practiced The Padmakara Translation Group has provided us with a clear and fluid new translation of the final volume of the trilogy Finding Rest in Illusion along with its autocommentary The Chariot of Excellence both intended to elucidate the appropriate action of a Buddhist practitioner Finding Rest in Illusion describes in detail the conduct of those who have stabilized their recognition of the nature of the mind and how to apply the Buddhist view when relating to ordinary appearances Drawing extensively from classic Buddhist works the author uses well known examples of illusion found throughout Mah y na literature to illustrate the illusory nature of both sa s ra and nirv a thus revealing their ultimate nondual nature This is an invaluable manual for any genuine student of Buddhism who wishes to truly find rest through the path of the Great Perfection Rambling Reminiscences of a Residence Abroad John Lewis Peyton,1888
