Rambo David Morrell, 1985 Vietnam veteran John Rambo is asked by his former commanding officer Colonel Trautman to undertake a perilous mission into the jungles of Vietnam to find imprisoned American MIAs The New American Militarism Andrew J. Bacevich, 2005-04-01 In this provocative book Andrew Bacevich warns of a dangerous dual obsession that has taken hold of Americans conservatives and liberals alike It is a marriage of militarism and utopian ideology of unprecedented military might wed to a blind faith in the universality of American values This mindset the author warns invites endless war and the ever deepening militarization of U S policy It promises not to perfect but to pervert American ideals and to accelerate the hollowing out of American democracy As it alienates others it will leave the United States increasingly isolated It will end in bankruptcy moral as well as economic and in abject failure With The New American Militarism which has been updated with a new Afterword Bacevich examines the origins and implications of this misguided enterprise He shows how American militarism emerged as a reaction to the Vietnam War Various groups in American society soldiers politicians on the make intellectuals strategists Christian evangelicals even purveyors of pop culture came to see the revival of military power and the celebration of military values as the antidote to all the ills besetting the country as a consequence of Vietnam and the 1960s The upshot acutely evident in the aftermath of 9 11 has been a revival of vast ambitions and certainty this time married to a pronounced affinity for the sword Bacevich urges us to restore a sense of realism and a sense of proportion to U S policy He proposes in short to bring American purposes and American methods especially with regard to the role of the military back into harmony with the nation's founding ideals New York Magazine, 1985-06-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1985-06-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1985-06-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1985-06-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an

Monchinski,2011-07-23 Students teachers and schools are under attack The assault comes in the guise of accountability and choice cloaking itself in the scientifically proven with an over emphasis of data It combines a vilification of organized labor along with a promotion of the irrational while readily blurring the line between utopia and dystopia The attack abuses education as it disseminates self serving propaganda simultaneously covering up inconvenient truths like the United States government s long and storied relationships with Saddam Hussein and Osama bin Laden in the Wars on Terror It suppresses solidarity and compassion while it champions a divisive form of selfish individualism Engaged Pedagogy Enraged Pedagogy seeks to counter these attacks and expose the ideological impulses behind them Marshalling critical pedagogy and an ethic of care with the notions of justified anger and the intellectual warrior the book explores the non antagonistic dualisms between faith and science reason and emotion it deconstructs social texts ranging from 80s action films to dystopian literature as it uncovers the ideologies that structure and order our lives it explores and champions the democratic potential of dialogue mutuality and authority while challenging left essentialism and identity politics The book also features an interview with Joe Kincheloe a seminal figure in the field of critical pedagogy

The Afterlife of America's War in Vietnam Gordon Arnold, 2014-12-09 The fall of Saigon in 1975 signaled the end of America's longest war Yet in many ways the conflict was far from over Although the actual fighting ended the struggle to find political justification and historical vindication for the Vietnam War still lingered in American consciousness A plethora of images from America's first televised war has kept the conflict all too fresh in the memories of those who lived through it while creating a confusing picture for a younger generation The political process of attaching meaning to historical events has ultimately failed due to the lack of consensus then and now regarding events surrounding the Vietnam War Reviewing the record of American politics film and television this volume provides a brief overview of the war's appearance in American popular culture It examines the ways in which this conflict has consistently resurfaced in social and political life especially in the arena of contemporary world events such as the Soviet incursion into Afghanistan the Gulf War and the 2004 presidential campaign To this end the work explores the contexts and uses of the Vietnam War as a recurring subject The circumstances and symbolism used in the rhetoric of the political elite and the news media including the New York Times the Washington Post Time and Newsweek are discussed Emphasis is also placed on the role of film and television as the book examines movies such as The Deer Hunter and Apocalypse Now and TV series such as M A S H In weaving together the political and screen appearances of the Vietnam War the book reexamines the influence of a major episode in American history

In Black and White Anant Singh, 2021-11-01 It all began with Charlie Chaplin flickering in black and white on a makeshift screen in their modest home in Springfield which later led to the neighbourhood children happily handing over their coins to 10 year old Anant Singh and his younger brother Sanjeev At age 13 deeply affected by the passing of his father Anant found solace and escape in the moving image to which his father had introduced him The combination of a deep and abiding passion for film and an entrepreneurial spirit were the sparks that lit the flame for Anant as he rewound 16mm reels in a film rental store in Durban first for R1 a day and then for R25 a week In South Africa in the 1970s there were not many career options for a Black person who dreamed big in any business let alone the film industry But before his twentieth birthday Anant was the owner of that store and in a business in which no person of colour had ventured Restrictive legislation was not the only problem all public facilities including cinemas were segregated and any voice raised in opposition to the state was swiftly silenced while censorship across all forms of media including films was strictly enforced By hiring out films classified for whites only to all races and uncensored movies to anyone who wanted to watch them Anant was arrested for breaking the laws he refused to recognise as legitimate He moved on to wider distribution first to cinemas across Africa and then to the international market to setting up Videovision Enterprises and capturing the home video market and finally to putting his heart and soul into producing award winning and important films This extraordinary memoir is a story of professional relationships and of friendships with mentors including Ahmed Kathrada Fatima and Ismail Meer and Nelson Mandela as well as with superstars such as Quincy Jones Sidney Poitier Whoopi Goldberg Amitabh Bachchan Denzel Washington and Idris Elba And it is a testament to determination courage and perseverance to speak up and speak out through the powerful medium of film
