Manuscripts and Archives Alessandro Bausi,Christian Brockmann,Michael Friedrich,Sabine Kienitz,2018-02-19 Archives are considered to be collections of administrative legal commercial and other records or the actual place where they are located They have become ubiquitous in the modern world but emerged not much later than the invention of writing Following Foucault who first used the word archive in a metaphorical sense as the general system of the formation and transformation of statements in his Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 postmodern theorists have tried to exploit the potential of this concept and initiated the archival turn In recent years however archives have attracted the attention of anthropologists and historians of different denominations regarding them as historical objects and grounding them again in real institutions The papers in this volume explore the complex topic of the archive in a historical systematic and comparative context and view it in the broader context of manuscript cultures by addressing questions like how by whom and for which purpose were archival records produced and if they differ from literary manuscripts regarding materials formats and producers scribes Ancient Egyptian Administration Juan Carlos Moreno García,2013-06-03 Ancient Egyptian Administration provides the first comprehensive overview of the structure organization and evolution of the pharaonic administration from its origins to the end of the Late Period The book not only focuses on bureaucracy departments and official practices but also on more informal issues like patronage the limits in the actual exercise of authority and the competing interests between institutions and factions within the ruling elite Furthermore general chapters devoted to the best documented periods in Egyptian history are supplemented by more detailed ones dealing with specific archives regions and administrative problems The volume thus produced by an international team of leading scholars will be an indispensable up to date tool of research covering a much neglected aspect of pharaonic civilization On the Reliability of the Old Testament K. A. Kitchen,2006-06-09 Draws upon a wide range of historical sources to examine the factuality of the Old Testament arguing that the Bible s stories are firmly based on fact and refuting evidence from modern scholars who claim otherwise Compulsion and Control in Ancient Egypt Alexandre Loktionov,2023-12-07 How did the Ancient Egyptians maintain control of their state Topics include the controlling function of temples and theology state borders scribal administration visual representation patronage and the Egyptian language itself with reference to all periods of Egyptian history from the Old Kingdom to Coptic times The Elephantine Papyri in English

Porten, Farber, Martin, Vittman, 2023-10-09 175 documents spanning more than 3 000 years from the ancient mounds on the island of Elephantine are translated into English here for the first time A massive collection of papyri and ostraca written in many scripts and tongues including hieratic demotic Aramaic Greek Latin Coptic and Arabic Scanning the Pharaohs

Zahi A. Hawass, Sahar Saleem, 2016 The royal mummies in the Cairo Museum are an important source of information about the lives of the ancient Egyptians The remains of these pharaohs and queens can inform us about their age at death and medical conditions from which they may have suffered as well as the mummification process and objects placed within the wrappings Using the latest technology including Multi Detector Computed Tomography and DNA analysis the authors present the results of the examination of the royal mummies New imaging techniques not only reveal a wealth of information about each mummy but render amazingly lifelike and detailed images of the remains Current Research in Egyptology

2019 Marta Arranz Cárcamo, Raúl Sánchez Casado, Albert Planelles Orozco, Sergio Alarcón Robledo, Jónatan Ortiz García, Patricia Mora Riudavets, 2021-02-25 Presents proceedings from the 20th meeting of the prestigious international student Egyptology conference held at the University of Alcalá 2019 15 papers address a wide range of topics including all periods of ancient Egyptian History and different aspects of its material culture archaeology history society religion and language Warfare and Poetry in the Middle East Hugh Kennedy, 2013-10-03 Part of the rich legacy of the Middle East is a poetic record stretching back five millennia This unparalleled repository of knowledge across different languages cultures and religions allows us to examine continuity and change in human expression from the beginnings of writing to the present day In Warfare and Poetry in the Middle East leading scholars draw upon this legacy to explore the ways in which poets from the third millennium bc to the present day have responded to effects of war The contributors deal with material in a wide variety of languages including Sumerian Hittite Akkadian biblical and modern Hebrew and classical and contemporary Arabic and range from the Sumerian lament on the destruction of Ur and the Assyrian conquest of Jerusalem to the al Ramiyyat of the poet and warrior prince Abi Firsiyal and the popular Arabic epics and romances that form the siyar to the contemporary poetry of Hamas and Hezbollah Some of the poems are heroic in tone celebrating victory and the prowess of warriors and soldiers others reflect keenly on the pity and destruction of warfare on the grief and suffering that war causes The result is a work that provides a unique reflection upon the ways in which this most violent and pervasive of human activities has been reflected in different cultures The history of war begins in the Middle East the earliest reported conflict in human history was fought between the neighbouring city states of Lagash and Umma in ancient Iraq At a time when the Middle East seems to be permanently at war and wracked by violence it is salutary to look back at the ancient roots of modern attitudes and to see that in the past as in the present these attitudes are much more varied and the emotions more subtle than often realised

Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period Jennifer Cromwell, Eitan Grossman, 2018

Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period deals with the possibility of glimpsing pre modern and early modern Egyptian scribes the actual people who produced ancient documents through the ways in which they organized and wrote those documents While traditional research has focused on identifying a pure or original text behind the actual manuscripts that have come down to us from pre modern Egypt the volume looks instead at variation different ways of saying the same thing as a rich source for understanding the complex social and cultural environments in which scribes lived and worked breaking with the traditional conception of variation in scribal texts as free or indicative of corruption As such it presents a novel reconceptualization of scribal variation in pre modern Egypt from the point of view of contemporary historical sociolinguistics seeing scribes as agents embedded in particular geographical temporal and socio cultural environments Introducing to Egyptology concepts such as scribal communities networks and repertoires among others the authors then apply them to a variety of phenomena including features of lexicon grammar orthography palaeography layout and format After first presenting this conceptual framework they demonstrate how it has been applied to better studied pre modern societies by drawing upon the well established domain of scribal variation in pre modern English before proceeding to a series of case studies applying these concepts to scribal variation spanning thousands of years from the languages and writing systems of Pharaonic times to those of Late Antique and Islamic Egypt

The Gurob Ship-Card Model and Its Mediterranean Context Shelley Wachsmann, 2013-01-09

When Shelley Wachsmann began his analysis of the small ship model excavated by assistants of famed Egyptologist W M F Petrie in Gurob Egypt in 1920 he expected to produce a brief monograph that would shed light on the model and the ship type that it represented Instead Wachsmann discovered that the model held clues to the identities and cultures of the enigmatic Sea Peoples to the religious practices of ancient Egypt and Greece and to the oared ships used by the Bronze Age Mycenaean Greeks Although found in Egypt the prototype of the Gurob model was clearly an Aegean style galley of a type used by both the Mycenaeans and the Sea Peoples The model is the most detailed representation presently known of this vessel type which played a major role in changing the course of world history Contemporaneous textual evidence for Sherden one of the Sea Peoples settled in the region suggests that the model may be patterned after a galley of that culture Bearing a typical Helladic bird head decoration topping the stempost with holes along the sheer strakes confirming the use of stanchions the model was found with four wheels and other evidence for a wagon like support structure connecting it with European cultic prototypes The online resources that accompany the book illustrate Wachsmann's research and analysis They include 3D interactive models that allow readers to examine the Gurob model on their computers as if held in the hand both in its present state and in two hypothetical reconstructions The online component also contains high resolution color photos of the model maps and satellite photos of the site and other related materials Offering a wide range of insights and evidence for linkages among ancient Mediterranean peoples and traditions The Gurob Ship Cart Model and Its Mediterranean Context presents an invaluable asset for anyone interested in the complexities of cultural change in the eastern Mediterranean at the end of the Bronze Age and the beginning of the Iron Age The Gurob ship cart model is was part of an exhibition entitled Beyond the Nile Egypt and the Classical World at the J Paul Getty Center March 27 September 9 2018 Read about it here <http://blogs.getty.edu/iris/egyptian-ship-model-sheds-light-on-bronze-age-warfare-and-religion/> Digital supplement to the book featuring 3D models <http://www.vizin.org/Gurob/Gurob.html>
