Ursula E. Howard,2024-05-08 Evie the protagonist wanted to recuperate from her studies at Usher University in Indiana during the semester break and intended to visit her American Mother Mary her former mother in law at their family's home in Kentucky Mary still considered Evie as one of her children even though she divorced Mary's son Bruno Evie was glad to have found a mother figure as her biological mother treated her like a rival of her father and hadn't given her the attention and care that she needed Her natural Mom only showed interest in Evie when it benefited her and only when she needed something As her estranged former sister in law Abigail was supposed to pick her up at the Greyhound Bus Station to take her to the Harrods house Abigail shared horrible news Mom is dead Evie's whole body shook and her blood ran cold adding to the fear of what was to come among the violent Harrods in the house without Mom's protection due to the fear of having to stay there Evie's stay without Mom in the house was a nightmare All the memories of her marriage to Bruno seemed to come back especially since she was staying in her Ex's childhood refuge The room where Bruno had suffered from the brutality of childhood adolescence and even adulthood when he visited his parents house Without Mom's presence in the house Evie could feel the traumas and pain from Bruno and her own fearing for her life But this time it wasn't just the shock and pain of Mom's death but also the loss of security with the Harrods who seemed to be a strange brutal but still loving family The younger brother Wayne who was incarcerated at a Corrections Center in Crown Point would be of no help if violence occurred Evie had often hung out at the entrance of the barn when she visited the Harrods A few months back when Evie was relaxing in her hide out she overheard a heated discussion between the Preacher Charlie and her Mom who accused him of teaching her the wrong thing of raising her boys with the rod and believing as a true Baptist fanatical fundamentalist in the seeming goodness of the wrath of the God of the Old Testament The preacher was shocked when he found out that Mary had regretted her strict upbringing of the boys She had an epiphany after receiving help from the Cherokees and it sparked a new way of thinking through a Vision Quest At dinner before the funeral Evie was accompanied by Abigail her new boyfriend Tom who never said a word and Bruno She thought that Dad pretended to not be able to speak because he seemed to avoid any hard topics of discussion And Evie was obsessed from the beginning by the question who had killed her Mom The funeral service took place the next day in the chapel Chaos ensued as Wayne lost his composure and screamed about his hatred for Mom her way of punishing him when he was young and his desire for her to die after Evie had lost control of herself The Baptist congregation was dumbfounded by the trauma Wayne was expressing Then there was an infernal climax the faithful with their heads bowed motionless like the preacher at the altar so immobile and speechless that he could not address his congregation while the evildoer was led out of the chapel

My Soul Is a Witness Mari N. Crabtree,2023-01-10 An intimate look at the afterlife of lynching through the personal stories of Black victims and survivors who lived through and beyond its trauma Mari N Crabtree traces the long afterlife of lynching in the South through the traumatic memories it left in its wake She unearths how African American victims and survivors found ways to live through and beyond the horrors of lynching offering a theory of African American collective trauma and memory rooted in the ironic spirit of the blues sensibility a spirit of misdirection and cunning that blends joy and pain Black southerners often shielded their loved ones from the most painful memories of local lynchings with strategic silences but also told lynching stories about vengeful ghosts or a wrathful God or the deathbed confessions of a lyncher tormented by his past They protested lynching and its legacies through art and activism and they mourned those lost to a mob s fury They infused a blues element into their lynching narratives to confront traumatic memories and keep the blues at bay even if just for a spell Telling their stories troubles the simplistic binary of resistance or submission that has tended to dominate narratives of Black life and reminds us that amid the utter devastation of lynching were glimmers of hope and an affirmation of life

Blood and Soap Linh Dinh, 2004-05-04 Blood and Soap is a breakthrough collection of modern day fables from a wildly inventive American writer whose fiction has been called terse and edgy Booklist and vividly imagined Kirkus Reviews Dinh's gift is for constructing in the manner of Italo Calvino simple narratives that quickly frame larger questions with a poet's timing the author builds his stories to the one or few climactic sentences that brand them with unforgettable meaning In one tale a Vietnamese boy's self-guided haphazard study of English gives way to a meditation on the universality of language Everything seems chaotic at first but nothing is chaotic One can read anything ants crawling on the ground pimples on a face trees in a forest In another story a man opens a newspaper and sees the photograph of a man he may have murdered which he impulsively clips only to feel that in doing so he unwittingly has sealed his crime As soon as I finished I realized what I had done by cutting my father's likeness out of the newspaper I had removed him from the world The collection crescendoes in displays of raw creative power as in Eight Plots a rapid fire of three and four sentence summaries and the brilliant impressionistic Blood and Soap is an arresting collection from one of a small number of writers on the vanguard of American fiction
