Mother's Daughter Nadia Wheatley, 2018-07-02 Why didn't you and Daddy want people to give you any wedding presents I used to ask But my mother could never be drawn into talking about the wedding Later I assumed it was because she did not wish to be reminded of the ghastly mistake she had made in marrying my father Born in Australia in 1949 author Nadia Wheatley grew up with a sense of the mystery of her parents marriage Caught in the crossfire between an independent woman and a controlling man the child became a player in the deadly game Was she her mother's daughter or her father's creature After her mother's death the ten year old began writing down the stories her mother had told her of a Cinderella like childhood followed by an escape into a career as an army nurse in Palestine and Greece and as an aid worker in the refugee camps of post war Germany Some fifty years later the finished memoir is not only a loving tribute but an investigation of the bewildering processes of memory itself Nadia Wheatley is an Australian writer whose publications range from biography and history to fiction and picture books Her biography The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift was the Age Book of the Year Non fiction and is the only biography to have won the Australian History Prize NSW Premier's History Awards One of the greatest Australian biographies a work which never confuses itself with fiction but which has the same readability and flair and command of tempo It's a hell of a story Peter Craven Sydney Morning Herald on The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift Outstanding a rare feat in Australian literary biography Weekend Australian on The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift An important addition to the history of Australian social life and a vivid insight into how individual people can be controlled by repressive social attitudes Wheatley reminds us of the difference between how family life is supposed to be and how it is actually experienced Inside Story In a moving and beautifully written memoir Wheatley brings to life her mother's adventures My bet is that this fascinating book will prove to be an award winner Highly recommended Courier Mail Her Mother's Daughter is one of the most devastating examples of gaslighting that I have ever read It is not only a beautiful rendering of an ordinary life it is also a significant social history of wartime Europe and post war Australia Australian Her Mother's Daughter is a great read for two reasons Firstly it provides a thoughtful authentic sometimes exciting sometimes disturbing social history of the times And secondly with Wheatley's ability to write engaging narratives it makes for engrossing moving provocative reading I do recommend it Whispering Gums Global Exchanges Ludovic Tournès, Giles Scott-Smith, 2017-10-01 Exchanges between different cultures and institutions of learning have taken place for centuries but it was only in the twentieth century that such efforts evolved into formal programs that received focused attention from nation states empires and international organizations Global Exchanges provides a wide ranging overview of this underresearched topic examining the scope scale and evolution of organized exchanges around the globe through the twentieth century In doing so it dramatically reveals the true extent of organized exchange and its essential contribution for knowledge transfer cultural interchange and the formation of global networks so often taken for granted today

Quakers in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict Nancy Gallagher,2007-09-01 The Israeli Palestinian conflict has resulted in the longest standing refugee crisis in the world today Based on new archival research and interviews with surviving participants this book considers one early effort to resolve that crisis while offering helpful lessons for current efforts at conflict resolution in the Middle East and elsewhere When war broke out in Palestine in 1948 the American Friends Service Committee AFSC a Quaker service organization had just won the Nobel Peace Prize for its peacemaking endeavors and its service to war refugees during the Second World War On the basis of that experience the United Nations invited the highly visible AFSC to provide humanitarian relief to Arab refugees in Gaza The AFSC also sent volunteers to work in Israel where they hoped to serve both Arabs and Jews Its long term goal was repatriation of the refugees and conciliation and coexistence between Israelis and Palestinians As eyewitnesses to some of the major events of the conflict the AFSC volunteers came to understand it better than most outsiders at the time By examining these early efforts at peacemaking and assistance historian Nancy Gallagher has uncovered essential insights for today s peacemakers human rights activists and humanitarian NGOs

Environment, Race, and Nationhood in Australia Russell McGregor,2016-06-15 This new study offers a timely and compelling account of why past generations of Australians have seen the north of the country as an empty land and how those perceptions of Australia's tropical regions impact current policy and shape the self image of the nation. It considers the origins of these concerns from fears of invasion and moral qualms about leaving resources lying idle from apprehensions about white nationhood coming under international censure and misgivings about the natural attributes of the north and elucidates Australians changing appreciations of the natural environments of the north, their shifting attitudes toward race and their unsettled conceptions of Asia.
