Black Earth Christopher Marcus,2001 Mystery drama is a contemporary manifestation of a movement first expressed in early Greek drama Rudolf Steiner renewed this form and viewed his mystery plays as an extension of the European theater tradition of realism encompassing also the realism of experiences beyond the sensory world After working with Rudolf Steiner's mystery dramas for some years Christopher Marcus and his performance group felt the need to stage a contemporary work The result is Black Earth a bold and powerful drama of soul and spirit based around themes of technology art destiny and metamorphosis First presented in 1999 by Circle X Arts an international group of artists directors writers and producers and performed around Europe to much acclaim Black Earth is published here for the first time

Goethe's Visual World Pamela Currie, 2017-07-05 Goethe's ideas on colour and imagery crossed many borderlines those of artistic processes and philosophical aesthetics art history and colour theory together with the science of perception This investigation into his writings ranges across art from Antiquity the Renaissance and the eighteenth century as well as exploring the centrality of these issues to Goethe's literary work Questions find answers but also raise new questions This systematic sequence of essays originally written between 1999 and 2011 appeals to readers in all these separate areas while drawing together their essential coherence

Raphael's Ostrich Una Roman D'Elia, 2016-04-27 Raphael's Ostrich begins with a little studied aspect of Raphael's painting the ostrich which appears as an attribute of Justice painted in the Sala di Costantino in the Vatican Una Roman D'Elia traces the cultural and artistic history of the ostrich from its appearances in ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs to the menageries and grotesque ornaments of sixteenth century Italy Following the complex history of shifting interpretations given to the ostrich in scientific literary religious poetic and satirical texts and images D'Elia demonstrates the rich variety of ways in which people made sense of this living monster which was depicted as the embodiment of heresy stupidity perseverance justice fortune gluttony and other virtues and vices Because Raphael was revered as a god of art artists imitated and competed with his ostrich while religious and cultural critics complained about the potential for misinterpreting such obscure imagery This book not only considers the history of the ostrich but also explores how Raphael's painting forced viewers to question how meaning is attributed to the natural world a debate of central importance in early modern Europe at a time when the disciplines of modern art history and natural history were developing The strangeness of Raphael's ostrich situated at the crossroads of art religion myth and natural history both reveals lesser known sides of Raphael's painting and illuminates major cultural shifts in attitudes toward nature and images in the Renaissance More than simply an examination of a single artist or a single subject Raphael's Ostrich offers an accessible erudite and charming alternative to Vasari's pervasive model of the history of sixteenth century Italian art
