Pan Nuestro Francisco Cândido Xavier, , Obras del Ilustrissimo ... Don Juan De Palafox Y Mendoza, De Los Supremos Consejos De Indias ... Juan de Palafox y Mendoza, 1762 Jamón and Halal Christina Civantos, 2022-07-05 Contemporary Spain reflects broader patterns of globalization and has been the site of tensions between nationalists and immigrants This case study examines a rural town in Spain's Andalusia in order to shed light on the workings of coexistence. The town of Ronda's diverse population includes hippies from across Europe, European converts to Sufi Islam, and immigrants from North Africa. Christina Civantos combines the analysis of written and visual cultural texts with oral narratives from residents. In this book we see that although written and especially televisual narratives about the town highlight tolerance and multiculturalism, they mask tensions and power differentials. Tolerance is an ongoing negotiation, and this book shows us how we can identify the points of contact that create robust, respect-based tolerance. This is a book that is both a personal account and a rigorous academic study. It is a model for the kind of engaged humanistic work we are now beginning to see as a hallmark of the post-theory moment and one that remembers the hard lessons of ethnographic fieldwork as well as the challenging foundational work from philosophically tinged theory. Debra A. Castillo, Cornell University. Filled with rich descriptions and interwoven personal anecdotes of both Civantos and her interlocutors that complement scholarly analysis. Jessica R. Boll, Carroll University.
