The Encyclopedia of Popular Music Colin Larkin, 2011-05-27 This text presents a comprehensive and up to date reference work on popular music from the early 20th century to the present day You're History! Michelle P. Brown, Richard J. Kelly, 2005-11-20 This book arose out of a challenge The challenge was made by Bob Geldof to the British academic and historian Michelle Brown Pop singers raise huge sums of money for Band Aid and touch the hearts of people from all walks of life But to give money can be an easy way out How does the so called intelligentsia respond with their minds not just their hearts and pockets to the appalling disparities in the conditions of members of the human race This a challenge that a number of notable and gifted people have responded to enthusiastically They range from John Simpson and Martin Bell to Former President Mary Robinson and the noted US feminist intellectual Charlotte Bunch Other noted authors include Sir David Ramsbothom Ricardo Navarro Founder of the Friends of the Earth and Simon Counsell Director of The Rainforest Foundation Ultimately the purpose of this book is to make people think and connect wires to encourage them to question their own place within the world to acknowledge personal and collective responsibility and to discuss a range of situations and issues that have been changed by individuals The book is also published to coincide with Britian s Presidenct of the G8 and EU and ther associated drive to focus on issues of global social justice through the newly conception of Britishness despite Black people having lived in Britain for over a thousand years Vernon set up a public poll in which anyone could vote for the Black Briton they most admired The response to this campaign was incredible As a result a number of Black historical figures were included on the national school curriculum and had statues and memorials erected and blue plaques put up in their honour Mary Seacole was adopted by the Royal College of Nursing and was given the same status as Florence Nightingale Children and young people were finally being encouraged to feel pride in their history and a sense of belonging in Britain Now with this book Vernon and Osborne have relaunched the campaign with an updated list of names and accompanying portraits including new role models and previously little known historical figures Each entry explores in depth the individual's contribution to British history a contribution that too often has been either overlooked or dismissed In the wake of the 2018 Windrush scandal and against the backdrop of Brexit the rise of right wing populism and the continuing inequality faced by Black communities across the UK the need for this campaign is greater than ever
