Feminism And Philosophy Nancy Tuana, Rosemarie Putnam Tong, 2018-02-06 The past twenty years have seen an explosion of work by feminist philosophers and several surveys of this work have documented the richness of the many different ways of doing feminist philosophy But this major new anthology is the first broad and inclusive selection of the most important work in this field There are many unanswered questions about the future of feminist philosophy Which of the many varieties of feminist philosophy will last and which will fade away What kinds of accommodations will be possible with mainstream non feminist philosophy Which will separate themselves and flourish on their own To what extent will feminists change the topics philosophers address To what extent will they change the very way in which philosophy is done However these questions are answered it is clear that feminist philosophy is having and will continue to have a major impact on the discipline of philosophy This volume is the first to allow the scholar the student and other interested readers to sample this diverse literature and to ponder these questions for themselves Organized around nine traditional types of feminist philosophy Feminism and Philosophy is an imaginatively edited volume that will stimulate readers to explore many new pathways of understanding It marks a defining moment in feminist philosophy and it will be an essential text for philosophers and for feminist theorists in many other fields

Ghosts in the Dating App Machine Gregory Narr, 2025-10-28 Ghosts in the Dating App Machine offers a critical examination of the shift to dating apps to illustrate key features of a broader shift to a mode of data colonialism based on datafication and AI orchestration This book analyses 48 in depth and mediated interviews forums blogs and official statements made by dating apps It situates this transition within the broader culture of data colonialism through close readings of science fiction suggesting the world has become like Us where doppelgangers constituted from reprehensible proclivities have emerged as digital profiles reflected back to users through the horrific play of social media mirrors to govern their encounters against their wishes These mirrors allow media companies to conduct surreptitious experiments on users dispossessed desires devise digital doppelgangers from those they disavow and compel behaviors that are lucrative precisely because they are misaligned with humane values Yet this horrific play of mirrors is not inevitable By attending to the ghosts of colonialism unleashed by media companies through the approach developed in this book it is still possible to galvanize the collective will to combat data colonialism and strive to create a world where love disentangled from colonial modes of desire is possible This study will interest scholars attempting to understand the rapidly evolving ecology of dating apps within the areas of digital media media sociology cultural studies anthropology and media

Predication and Ontology Alexander Kalbarczyk,2018-08-06 In Predication and Ontology A Kalbarczyk provides the first monograph length study of the Arabic reception of Aristotle s Categories At the center of attention is the critical reappraisal of that treatise by Ibn S n d 428 AH 1037 AD better known in the Latin West as Avicenna Ibn S n s reading of the Categories is examined in the context of his wider project of rearranging the transmitted body of philosophical knowledge Against the background of the late ancient commentary tradition and subsequent exegetical efforts Ibn S n s Kit b al Maq l t of the if is interpreted as a milestone in the gradual reshuffle of the relationship between logic proper and ontology In order to assess the philosophical impact of this realignment some of the subsequent developments in Ibn S n s writings and in the emerging post Avicennian tradition are also taken into account The thematic focus lies on the two fundamental classification schemes which Aristotle introduces in the treatise the fourfold division of Cat 2 of a subject in a subject and the tenfold scheme of Cat 4 i e substance and the nine genera of accidents They both pose the question of whether and how the manner in which an expression is predicated relates to extra linguistic reality As the study intends to show this question is one of the driving forces of Ibn S n s momentous reform of the Aristotelian curriculum This monograph has been awarded the Iran World Award for Book of the Year 2020

The Wounded Angel Paul Lakeland,2017-02-10 In this unique book readers are taken on a journey to explore the role of the imagination in the face of mystery whether it be the mystery of God whose full reality lies beyond our earthly horizons or the deepest mysteries of life hinted at in the work of fiction By attending to a series of novels Paul Lakeland proposes serious fiction as an antidote to the failure of the religious imagination today and shows how literature might lead the secular mind at least to the threshold of mystery Catalog Florida International University,1992
