amateur historian of serious purpose Like Byron whose writing and personality were an inspiration to him Pushkin had a sensational life the stuff of Romantic legend His writing treats all the most important themes that great literature can address the nature of identity love and betrayal independence and creativity nature the meaning of life death and the afterlife in an elegant style and highly personal voice Lyric intelligence refers to Pushkin's capacity to transform philosophical and aesthetic ideas into poetry Arguing that Pushkin's poetry has often been misunderstood as transparently simple this first major study of this substantial body of work traces the interrelation between his writing and the influences of English and European literature and cultural movements on his understanding of the creative process and the aims of art Andrew Kahn approaches Pushkin's poetic texts through the history of ideas and argues that in his poetry the clashes that matter are not about stylistic innovation and genre as has often been suggested Instead the poems are shown to articulate a range of positions on key topics of the period including the meaning of originality the imagination the status of the poet the role of commercial success the definition of genius representation of nature the definition of the hero and the immortality of the soul Drawing on an extensive knowledge of Pushkin's library and his intellectual context Pushkin's Lyric Intelligence addresses how theories of inspiration informed Pushkin's thinking about classicism and Romanticism in the 1820s and 1830s The story of the unfolding of the imagination as a vital poetic power and concept for Pushkin is a consistent theme of the entire book It is this movement towards a fuller apprehension and application of the imagination as the key poetic power that guided Pushkin's transitions through different phases of his creative development The book looks at the intersection of Pushkin's knowledge of important ideas and artistic trends with poems about the creative imagination psychology sex and the body heroism and the ethical life and death

The Poetics of Early Russian Literature D.S. Likhachev, 2014-03-13 This translation of Likhachev's Poetika Drevnerusskoy Literatury The Poetics of Early Russian Literature provides a description of the basic themes of early tenth to seventeenth century Russian literature Likhachev compares literary narrative with narrative used in the representational arts Furthermore Likhachev stresses the genre based character of medieval Russian literature and shows how choice of style in medieval times depended on a genre with its own specific etiquette and how innovation was discouraged The text contrasts medieval abstraction and modern realism as Likhachev shows how realisticness gradually breaks through in specific situations such as those of princely crimes Likhachev draws contrasts in three different areas the basic stock of symbols and comparisons used in early Russian literature with those used in modern literature artistic time in folklore and early Russian literature and artistic space in folklore and early Russian literature Likhachev traces the gradual development into modern artistic time through a comparison of the chronicle the first Russian play the seventeenth century writer Avvakum and three modern authors Goncharov Dostoevsky and Saltykov Shchedrin Finally the text gives a justification for studying early literatures This book will be invaluable for students of Russian medieval and comparative literature
