Readings From The Mystics Of Islam:

Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1950 Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1994
Readings from the Mystics of Islam is an anthology of writings from Islamic mysticism's greatest masters of wisdom translated and edited by renowned scholar of Sufism Margaret Smith. The collection ranges from the beginnings of Sufism in the 8th century to the modern era and includes jewels of mystical thought and experience from Rabi'a al-Hallaj, Rumi, Ibn Arabi and Hafiz.

Readings from the mystics of Islām Margaret Smith, 1972 The Mystics of Islam Reynold Alleyne Nicholson, 2022-04-06
The Mystics of Islam by Reynold Alleyne Nicholson is an anthology that delves into the spiritual richness of Sufism, offering readers a captivating glimpse into the profound traditions of Islamic mysticism. In the centerpiece, The Mystics of Islam, Nicholson introduces the spiritual philosophies and historical development of Sufism, a mystical path that seeks divine realities and transcends the material world. This work explores the influence of Christian Neoplatonic and Gnostic traditions on Sufi practices, highlighting themes such as divine love, gnosis, and the soul's journey towards spiritual enlightenment. Readers will find themselves immersed in the universal motifs of unity with the divine, as Nicholson's translations of original Arabic and Persian texts bring the voices of historical mystics to life. The anthology not only serves as a key resource for those interested in comparative religion but also invites readers to reflect on their own spiritual journeys. By exploring the depths of Sufism, this collection encourages modern readers to connect with timeless themes of spiritual devotion and divine connection. Whether you are drawn to the subjects of Mysticism in Islam, Sufism, or philosophical explorations of the Arab world, The Mystics of Islam provides a thought-provoking and enriching experience that resonates across religious and cultural boundaries. This anthology is a must-read for anyone seeking to understand the spiritual dimensions of Islam and the universal quest for spiritual fulfillment.

Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1950 Rabi'a: The Mystic and her Fellow-Saints in Islam Margaret Smith, 1984-10-04
For centuries there has been fascination within and beyond the Islamic world with the mystical teachings of Sufism and with the role of the Islamic saints whose life and work were important to Islamic theology. Margaret Smith's classic work, Rabi'a the Mystic, describes the teaching, life, and times of one of the great women of the Islamic tradition, Rabi'a of Basra. This study has never been bettered. It is now reissued unchanged but with a new introduction by Professor Annemarie Schimmel. This emphasises the importance of the book and of Rabi'a herself and questions of major importance today: the nature of mystical belief and experience, the Sufi tradition, and the role of women in the Islamic world.

Religious Revelation James Kellenberger, 2020-10-19
This book addresses several dimensions of religious revelation. These include its occurrence in various religious traditions, its different forms, its elaborations, how it has been understood by Western theologians, and differing views of revelation's ontological status. It has been remarked that revelation is most at home in theistic traditions, and this book gives each of the three Abrahamic traditions—Judaism, Christianity, and Islam—its own chapter on Revelation.

however is not limited to theistic traditions forms found in Buddhism and nondevotional nontheistic Hinduism are also explored In the book s final chapter a particularly significant form of religious revelation is identified and examined pervasive revelation The theistic manifestation of this form of revelation pervasive in the sense that it may occurs in all the domains or dimensions of human existence is shown to be richly represented in the Psalms where God s presence may be found in the heavens in the growing of grass and in one s daily going out and coming in Pervasive revelation of religious reality is also shown to be present in the Buddhist tradition

The Word of Islam John Alden Williams,2010-07-22 Since the 1970s Islam has been undergoing a tremendous resurgence throughout the world This resurgence has often been labeled Islamic fundamentalism by the media but it includes believers of every persuasion from the most conservative to the most liberal Given this fact it is vital for the West to understand the terms in which Islam thinks and to communicate effectively with Muslims This anthology includes writings central to Islamic thought some translated earlier but here redone and others which have never before appeared in any Western language The selections include an interpretation of the Qur an as well as portions of the Hadith or sayings and actions of the Prophet Islamic law mysticism Sufism theology and sectarian writings A final essay on Islam today places these writings in their contemporary context and shows the breadth and variety of Islamic belief and practice Compiled with the intention of letting Islam describe itself in its own words the book is an important source for all students of Muslim culture and world religions This book is similar in scope to Williams well known 1961 George Braziller publication but freshly written and much improved

Religious Belief James Kellenberger,2021-09-23 This book addresses the different forms that religious belief can take Two primary forms are discussed propositional or doctrinal belief and belief in God Religious belief in God whose affective content is trust in God it is seen opens for believers a relationship to God defined by trust in God The book addresses the issue of the relation between belief and faith the issue of what S ren Kierkegaard called the subjectivity of faith and the issue of the relation between religious belief and religious experience After the introductory chapter the book continues with a chapter in which features and forms of belief allowed by the general concept of belief are presented Several of these forms and features are related to the features of religious belief examined in succeeding chapters The book s final chapter examines God relationships in the Christian tradition that de emphasize belief and are not defined by belief

The Literature of Islam Paula Youngman Skreslet,Rebecca Skreslet,2006-09-20 This book introduces the literature of Islam as it is presented in English translation For scholars in other fields who need to understand the vast and complex literary heritage of this erudite and vigorous faith community but are unable to devote years of their lives to achieving a reading proficiency in classical Arabic for faculty members called upon to teach introductory or survey courses outside their own disciplines and for graduate students in theology medieval studies world religions or related fields who need access to these primary sources in English translation The Literature of Islam is a welcome resource Even lay readers who are interested in understanding the modern Arab or Islamic world may grasp something of the currents of thought and belief through the centuries that produced these important works which continue to exert a powerful influence upon Muslims today The primary literatures of Islam are normally classified into several areas of study the canonical literature the interpretation of scripture and tradition law theology philosophy history and mysticism Entries here are organized into these areas of study and represent the most significant texts from important trends in the discipline The volume also includes an extensive bibliography that lists the editions of primary sources analyzed in each chapter There are also some suggestions for secondary reading which might be helpful to a student seeking additional information about each genre of literature
