Readings In Philosophy Of Art And Aesthetics:

Readings in Philosophy of Art and Aesthetics Milton Charles Nahm, 1974 Aesthetics David E. Cooper, 2019-04-08 The newly expanded and revised edition of Cooper's popular anthology featuring classic writings on aesthetics both historical and contemporary. The second edition of this bestselling anthology collects essays of canonical significance in aesthetics and the philosophy of art featuring a wide range of topics from the nature of beauty and the criteria for aesthetic judgement to the value of art and the appreciation of nature. Includes texts by classical philosophers like Plato and Kant alongside essays from art critics like Clive Bell with new readings from Leonardo da Vinci, Oscar Wilde, Walter Pater, Ronald W. Hepburn, and Arthur C. Danto among others. Intersperses philosophical scholarship with diverse contributions from artists, poets, novelists, and critics. Broadens the scope of aesthetics beyond the Western tradition including important texts by Asian philosophers from Mo Tzu to Tanizaki. Includes a fully updated introduction to the discipline written by the editor as well as prefaces to each text and chapter-specific lists of further reading. Philosophies of Art & Beauty Albert Hofstadter, Richard Kuhns, 2009-02-04 This anthology is remarkable not only for the selections themselves among which the Schelling and the Heidegger essays were translated especially for this volume but also for the editors' general introduction and the introductory essays for each selection which make this volume an invaluable aid to the study of the powerful recurrent ideas concerning art, beauty, critical method, and the nature of representation. Because this collection makes clear the ways in which the philosophy of art relates to and is part of general philosophical positions, it will be an essential sourcebook to students of philosophy, art history, and literary criticism. Aesthetics David Goldblatt, Lee B. Brown, Stephanie Patridge, 2017-09-01 Aesthetics: A Reader in Philosophy of the Arts fourth edition contains a selection of ninety-six readings organized by individual art forms as well as a final section of readings in philosophical aesthetics that cover multiple art forms. Sections include topics that are familiar to students such as painting, photography, and movies; architecture, music, literature, and performance; as well as contemporary subjects such as mass art, popular arts, the aesthetics of the everyday, and the natural environment. Essays are drawn from both the analytic and continental traditions and multiple others that bridge this divide between these traditions. Throughout, readings are brief, accessible for undergraduates, and conceptually focused, allowing instructors many different syllabi possibilities using only this single volume. Key Additions to the Fourth Edition The fourth edition is expanded to include a total of ninety-six essays with nineteen new essays, nine of them written exclusively for this volume. Updated organization into new sections, revised introductions to each section, an increased emphasis on contemporary topics such as stand-up comedy, the architecture of museums, interactivity, and video games; the ethics of sexiness, trans, gendered beauty; the aesthetics of junkyards and street art, pornography, and the inclusion of more diverse philosophical voices. Nevertheless, this edition does not neglect classic writers in the traditional aesthetics: Plato, Aristotle, Hume, Kant, Hegel, Heidegger, Collingwood, Bell, and writers of similar status in aesthetics. The philosophers writing new chapters exclusively for this fourth edition are Sondra Bacharach on street art Aili Bresnahan on appreciating dance Hina Jamelle on digital architecture Jason Leddington on magic Sheila Lintott on stand up comedy Yuriko Saito on everyday aesthetics Larry Shiner on art spectacle museums in the twenty first century Peg Brand Weiser on how beauty matters Edward Winters on the feeling of being at home in vernacular architecture as in such urban places as bars Philosophy Looks at the Arts Joseph Margolis,1962 Art and Philosophy W.
