Li Zhensheng, Red-color News Soldier Zhensheng Li, Robert Pledge, Christy Johnson, Ciara Ennis, California Museum of Photography, University of California, Riverside, 2007 The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield, 2011-05-27 In The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield challenges the idea that photographs of political violence exploit their subjects and pander to the voyeuristic tendencies of their viewers Instead she argues passionately that looking at such images and learning to see the people in them is an ethically and politically necessary act that connects us to our modern history of violence and probes the human capacity for cruelty Grappling with critics from Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht to Susan Sontag and the postmoderns and analyzing photographs from such events as the Holocaust China's Cultural Revolution and recent terrorist acts Linfield explores the complex connection between photojournalism and the rise of human rights ideals In the book's concluding section she examines the indispensable work of Robert Capa James Nachtwey and Gilles Peress and asks how photography should respond to the increasingly nihilistic trajectory of modern warfare A bracing and unsettling book The Cruel Radiance convincingly demonstrates that if we hope to alleviate political violence we must first truly understand it and to do that we must begin to look Curating Revolution Denise Y. Ho, 2018 Curating Revolution examines how Mao era exhibitions shaped popular understandings of and participation in the political campaigns of China's Communist revolution

Out of China Robert Bickers, 2017-03-30 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2018 WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE The extraordinary and essential story of how China became the powerful country it is today Even at the high noon of Europe's empires China managed to be one of the handful of countries not to succumb Invaded humiliated and looted China nonetheless kept its sovereignty Robert Bickers major new book is the first to describe fully what has proved to be one of the modern era's most important stories the long often agonising process by which the Chinese had by the end of the 20th century regained control of their own country Out of China uses a brilliant array of unusual strange and vivid sources to recreate a now fantastically remote world the corrupt lurid modernity of pre War Shanghai the often tiny patches of extra territorial land controlled by European powers one of which unnoticed had mostly toppled into a river the entrepôts of Hong Kong and Macao and the myriad means through armed threats technology and legal chicanery by which China was kept subservient Today Chinese nationalism stays firmly rooted in memories of its degraded past the quest for self sufficiency a determination both to assert China s standing in the world and its outstanding territorial claims and never to be vulnerable to renewed attack History matters deeply to Beijing s current rulers and Out of China explains why Visualizing Modern China James A.

Mao's Last Revolution Roderick MACFARQUHAR, Michael Schoenhals, 2009-06-30 The Cultural Revolution was a watershed event in the history of the People's Republic of China the defining decade of half a century of communist rule Before 1966 China was a typical communist state with a command economy and a powerful party able to keep the population under control But during the Cultural Revolution in a move unprecedented in any communist country Mao unleashed the Red Guards against the party Tens of thousands of officials were humiliated tortured and even killed Order had to be restored by the military whose methods were often equally brutal In a masterly book Roderick MacFarquhar and Michael Schoenhals explain why Mao launched the Cultural Revolution and show his Machiavellian role in masterminding it which Chinese publications conceal In often horrifying detail they document the Hobbesian state that ensued The movement veered out of control and terror paralyzed the country Power struggles raged among Lin Biao Zhou Enlai Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Qing Mao's wife and leader of the Gang of Four while Mao often played one against the other After Mao's death in reaction to the killing and the chaos Deng Xiaoping led China into a reform era in which capitalism flourishes and the party has lost its former authority In its invaluable critical analysis of Chairman Mao and its brilliant portrait of a culture in turmoil Mao's Last Revolution offers the most authoritative and compelling account to date of this seminal event in the history of China

An Empty Room Michael Sakamoto, 2022-05-03 Short Listed for The de la Torre Bueno First Book Award 2023 An Empty Room is a transformative journey through butoh an avant garde form of performance art that originated in Japan in the late 1950s and is now a global phenomenon. This is the first book about butoh authored by a scholar-practitioner who combines personal experience with ethnographic and historical accounts alongside over twenty photos. Author Michael Sakamoto traverses butoh dance history from its roots in post-World War II Japan to its diaspora in the West in the 1970s and 1980s. An Empty Room delves into the archive of butoh dance, gathering testimony from multiple generations of artists active in Japan, the US, and Europe. The book also creatively highlights seminal visual and written texts, especially Hosoe Eikoh's photo-essay Kamaitachi and Hijikata Tatsumi's early essays. Sakamoto ultimately fashions an original view of what butoh has been, is, and more importantly, can be, through the lens of literary criticism, photo studies, folklore, political theory, and his experience performing, photographing, teaching, and lecturing in 15 countries worldwide.

The Cultural Revolution and Overacting Tuo Wang, 2014-09-24. The Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution, which took place in China between 1966 and 1976, was a major political and social tragedy in Chinese history. As part of an effort to understand how the state enforced control amid seeming chaos, this book looks at the ubiquitous revolutionary presentations and performances of power, such as political rituals, revolutionary rhetoric, and public gatherings in people's everyday lives during the Cultural Revolution, as performances that contributed to the control of the Chinese people. In particular, this book discusses how the promotion of revolutionary models in real life contributed to people's eagerness to perform the role of the ideal revolutionary and how the possibility of complete revolutionary transformation, promoted by the state media and the hard fact that no one was able to completely become a Maoist subject who would be completely selfless and think and speak only Maoist teaching, subjected people to a state of becoming but never fully having become. The fear of failing in the Maoist transformation constituted the inner mechanism that propelled ordinary people's radical revolutionary behavior. In addition, this book examines the audience's reaction to Jiang Qing's court performance in the trial of the Gang of Four as an anarchic liberation from the revolutionary performance of the Cultural Revolution. Utilizing methodologies of cultural anthropology, linguistics, acting theory, and literary criticism, this book reveals how people's performances of their everyday life functioned as mechanisms of social control.
