Friesen, 1997 Overview of the history lifestyles and spirituality of native races of major regions of Canada Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03 Confederation may have established Canada's nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada's modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation's economic political and socio cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo liberal globalization Canada's petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history Canada , Nation Maker Richard J. Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Canadian Journal of Native Education, 1998 First Nations, First Thoughts Annis May Timpson, 2010-01-01 Countless books and articles have traced the impact of colonialism and public policy on Canada's First Nations but few have explored the impact of Aboriginal thought on public discourse and policy development in Canada First Nations First Thoughts brings together Aboriginal and non Aboriginal scholars who cut through the prevailing orthodoxy to reveal Indigenous thinkers and activists as a pervasive presence in diverse political constitutional and cultural debates and arenas including urban spaces historical texts public policy and cultural heritage preservation This innovative thought provoking collection contributes to the decolonization process by encouraging us to imagine a stronger fairer Canada in which Aboriginal self government and expression can be fully realized

Supporting Indigenous Children's Development Alan R. Pence, Jessica Ball, 2011-11-01 Supporting Indigenous Children's Development challenges and offers an alternative to the imposition of best practices on communities by outside specialists It tells the story of an unexpected partnership initiated by an Aboriginal tribal council with the University of Victoria's School of Child and Youth Care The partnership has produced a new approach to professional education in which community leaders are co constructors of the curriculum and implementation proceeded only if both parties are present and engaged Word of this generative curriculum has spread to numerous Aboriginal communities and now over sixty communities have participated in the First Nations Partnerships Program Jessica Ball and Alan Pence show how this innovative program has strengthened community capacity to design deliver and evaluate culturally appropriate programs to support young children s development
