fundamentally about the way we live in the world through our bodies our reason our imagination and our virtue It is about what we love and how we are loved Beauty suffering and being in the world are placeholders for everything that makes up our lived experience As we live our lives between beauty and suffering we learn most about being in the world The argument of the book moves from a discussion of philosophical style through the three placeholders for human experience as they are affected by philosophy beauty suffering and being in the world arriving at a reworking of Pascal s wager about living in relationship to the presence or absence of God as a way of understanding the commitments that are our only way into the truth of our life

The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine s claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine s De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God s initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God s self revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love s formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion s rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine s theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one s life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God s antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one s own love articulated as a critique of its aestheticization Rebentisch defends various phenomena of aestheticization from the irony typical of democratic citizens to the theatricality of the political as constitutive elements of democratic culture and the notion of freedom at the heart of its ethical and political self conception This work will be of particular interest to students of Political Theory Philosophy and Aesthetics
