Reel Food Michael Ludera,2021-08-29 Approached by a waitress after Ryan finishes Reiner deadpans I ll have what she s having The line was ranked 33rd on the American Film Institute s list of the Top 100 movie quotations just behind Casablanca s Round up the usual suspects The fake orgasm scene that follows the heated debate between Meg Ryan s and Billy Crystal s movie characters ends with the historical and funny line I ll have what she s having from another diner customer evoking the interest and curiosity in the audience to also have a taste from that Pastrami Sandwich which Meg Ryan was eating before giving her friend a lecture

Food on Film Tom Hertweck,2014-10-30 From early cinematic depictions of food as a symbol of ethnic and cultural identity to more complex contemporary portrayals movies have demonstrated how our ideas about food are always changing On the big and small screens representations of addiction starvation and even food as fetish reinforce how important food is in our lives and in our culture In Food on Film Bringing Something New to the Table Tom Hertweck brings together innovative viewpoints about a popular yet understudied subject in cinema This collection explores the pervasiveness of food in film from movies in which meals play a starring role to those that feature food and eating in supporting or cameo appearances The volume asks provocative questions about food and its relationship with work urban life sexual orientation the family race morality and a wide range of appetites The fourteen essays by international interdisciplinary scholars offer a wide range of perspectives on such films and television shows as The Color Purple Do the Right Thing Ratatouille The Road Sex and the City Twin Peaks and even Jaws From first course to last Food on Film will be of interest to scholars of film and television sociology anthropology and cultural history

Food, Film and Culture James R. Keller,2006-10-03 Culinary imagery much like sexual and violent imagery is a key cinematic device used to elicit a sensory response from an audience In many films culinary imagery is central enough to constitute a new subgenre defined by films in which food production preparation service and consumption play a major part in the development of character structure or theme This book defines the food film genre and analyzes the relationship between cinematic food imagery and various cultural constructs including politics family identity race ethnicity nationality gender and religion Chapters examine these themes in several well known food films such as The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover Chocolat Babette s Feast and Eat Drink Man Woman and lesser known productions including Felicia s Journey Kitchen Stories Magic Kitchen and Chinese Feast The work includes a filmography of movies within the food genre Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Culinary Cinema Deborah R. Geis,2024-12-15 In this book Deborah Geis offers a new approach to the evolving genre of culinary films that center on the acts of eating and cooking through close analyses of ten different films These films range from the classics like Big Night 1996 and Babette s Feast 1987 to later box office hits like Chef 2014 and to films that deserve a second look like East Side

Sushi 2014 Burnt 2015 and Mid August Lunch 2008 Throughout these analyses the book focuses on tropes including the big dinner as it connects to intercultural and transcultural communities the self destructive perfectionism of the obsessive chef and the craft of cooking in relation to aging and mortality Geis invites readers and viewers to experience food driven narrative films with an appetite for appreciating the visual ingredients and the ways in which they construct pleasure through the act of looking as a vicarious approach to consuming the actual food Drawing on the work of film theorist Christian Metz Geis ultimately poses a new paradigm for watching and understanding culinary cinema as a significant and constantly evolving genre that comes with its own conventions and contemporary filmmakers who seek to expand and transform those conventions in surprising ways Communicating in Canada's Past Gene Allen, Daniel J. Robinson, 2009-01-01 The first collection of its kind this volume assembles both well established and up and coming scholars to address sizable gaps in the literature on media history in Canada Comfort Food Michael Owen Jones, Lucy M. Long, 2017-04-14 With contributions by Barbara Banks Sheila Bock Susan Eleuterio Jillian Gould Phillis Humphries Michael Owen Jones Alicia Kristen William G Lockwood Yvonne R Lockwood Lucy M Long LuAnne Roth Rachelle H Saltzman Charlene Smith Annie Tucker and Diane Tye Comfort Food explores this concept with examples taken from Atlantic Canadians Indonesians the English in Britain and various ethnic regional and religious populations as well as rural and urban residents in the United States This volume includes studies of particular edibles and the ways in which they comfort or in some instances cause discomfort The contributors focus on items ranging from bologna to chocolate including sweet and savory puddings fried bread with an egg in the center dairy products fried rice cafeteria fare sugary fried dough soul food and others Several essays consider comfort food in the context of cookbooks films blogs literature marketing and tourism Of course what heartens one person might put off another so the collection also includes takes on victuals that prove problematic All this fare is then related to identity family community nationality ethnicity class sense of place tradition stress health discomfort guilt betrayal and loss contributing to and deepening our understanding of comfort food This book offers a foundation for further appreciation of comfort food As a subject of study the comfort food is relevant to a number of disciplines most obviously food studies folkloristics and anthropology but also American studies cultural studies global and international studies tourism marketing and public health Women, Leisure and Tourism Linda J. Ingram, Klára Tarkó, Susan L. Slocum, 2021-12-03 Women Leisure and Tourism provides a comprehensive discussion of women leisure and tourism through the lens of leisure production and consumption both by women and for women Specifically this text includes a multi cultural perspective to highlight the unique attributes leisure brings to women the role of women in leisure entrepreneurship and the creation of supportive inclusive environments to enhance female well being through the examination of these activities in often overlooked populations The diversity of women s leisure and tourism practices is best perceived through the links between various leisure practices e g sport outdoor recreation travel and tourism learning crafts events family leisure as well as an understanding of leisure production across cultures and life stages These chapters bring to the forefront many of the challenges inherent in providing leisure and tourism that support the diverse needs of women as well as a look at female innovation that is also often overlooked in leisure research The book includes examples of both applied and conceptual chapters from global perspectives in academic studies

Hunger and Postcolonial Writing

Muzna Rahman,2022-08-17 Hunger and Postcolonial Writing explores contemporary postcolonial fiction and life writing from various geo political contexts The focus of this work is hunger individuated in the self imposed starvation of the hunger protester and on a mass scale in the form of famine and food insecurity It considers the hungry colonial and postcolonial body examines its textual forms and historical trajectories and situates it within the food security context of imperialism and its legacies This book is the first monograph length study of hunger within a postcolonial world literary context Its transcolonial focus produces comparative readings across postcolonial writings facilitating productive analyses of the operations of imperialism and its aftereffects across heterogenous zones of colonialism This project reads hunger as defined by the social cultural historical and economic engagements produced by colonial and postcolonial encounters Examining the starving colonized body through Cartesian models of somatic subjectivity and considering how this body is mediated by post Enlightenment discourses of Modernity and progress this work interrogates the contradictions produced by the starving colonial body as it is positioned between the possibility of radical protest and prescriptive colonial discourse This book will be of interest to Gastrocritical and Postcolonial scholars and students and to Food scholars more broadly

The Jewish Dietary

Laws in the Ancient World Jordan D. Rosenblum,2016-12-15 In The Jewish Dietary Laws in the Ancient World Jordan D Rosenblum explores how cultures critique and defend their religious food practices In particular he focuses on how ancient Jews defended the kosher laws or kashrut and how ancient Greeks Romans and early Christians critiqued these practices As the kosher laws are first encountered in the Hebrew Bible this study is rooted in ancient biblical interpretation It explores how commentators in antiquity understood applied altered innovated upon and contemporized biblical dietary regulations He shows that these differing interpretations do not exist within a vacuum rather they are informed by a variety of motives including theological moral political social and financial considerations In analyzing these ancient conversations about culture and cuisine he dissects three rhetorical strategies deployed when justifying various interpretations of ancient Jewish dietary regulations reason revelation and allegory Finally Rosenblum reflects upon wider contemporary debates about food ethics

The Perfect Omelet John E. Finn,2017-05-02

Omelet Tortilla with Caramelized Onions and Serrano Ham Chocolate Souffl Omelet Omelettier John Finn leaves no eggshell unturned and provides readers with everything they need to find their way to their own perfect omelet Romanian New Wave Cinema Doru Pop,2014-03-17 Modern Romanian filmmaking has received wide international recognition From 2001 to 2011 promising young filmmakers have been embraced as important members of European cinema The country developed a new fervor for filmmaking and a dozen new movies have received international awards and recognition from some of the most important critics worldwide This development sometimes called New Wave cinema is fully explored in this book By using a comparative approach and searching for similarities among cinematic styles and trends the study reveals that the young Romanian directors are part of a larger European way of filmmaking The discussion moves from specific themes motifs and narratives to the philosophy of a whole generation such as Cristi Puiu Cristian Mungiu Radu Muntean Corneliu

Porumboiu Tudor Giurgiu and others (In)digestion in Literature and Film Serena J. Rivera,Niki Kiviat,2020-04-21 In digestion in Literature and Film A Transcultural Approach is a collection of essays spanning diverse geographic areas such as Brazil Eastern Europe France Ireland Italy Japan Mexico South Korea Taiwan and the United States Despite this geographic variance they all question disordered eating practices represented in literary and filmic works The collection ultimately redefines disorder removing the pathology and stigma assigned to acts of non normative eating In so doing the essays deem taboo practices of food consumption rejection and avoidance as expressions of resistance and defiance in the face of restrictive sociocultural political and economic normativities As a result disorder no longer equates to out of order implying a sense of brokenness but is instead envisioned as an act against the dominant of order of operations The collection therefore shifts critical focus from the eater as the embodiment of disorder to the problematic norms that defines behaviors as such

Marrying Out Keren R. McGinity,2014-09-01 Captures the telling details and the idiosyncratic trajectory of interfaith relationships and marriages in America The Forward When American Jewish men intermarry goes the common assumption they and their families are lost to the Jewish religion In this provocative book Keren R McGinity shows that it is not necessarily so She looks at intermarriage and parenthood through the eyes of a post World War II cohort of Jewish men and discovers what intermarriage has meant to them and their families She finds that these husbands strive to bring up their children as Jewish without losing their heritage Marrying Out argues that the gendered ethnicity of intermarried Jewish men growing out of their religious and cultural background enables them to raise Jewish children McGinity s book is a major breakthrough in understanding Jewish men s experiences as husbands and fathers how Christian women navigate their roles and identities while married to them and what needs to change for American Jewry to flourish Marrying Out is a must read for Jewish men and all the women who love them An important analysis of this thorny issue filled with vivid vignettes about intermarried couples Jewish Book World Gastronomy, Tourism and the Media Warwick Frost,Jennifer Laing,Gary Best,Kim Williams,Paul C. Strickland,Clare Lade,2016-07-27 This book examines and analyses the connections between gastronomy tourism and the media It argues that in the modern world gastronomy is increasingly a major component and driver of tourism and that destinations are using their cuisines and food cultures in marketing to increase their competitive advantage It proposes that these processes are interconnected with film television print and social media The book emphasises the notion of gastronomy as a dynamic concept in particular how it has recently become more widely used and understood throughout the world The volume introduces core concepts and delves more deeply into current trends in gastronomy the forces which shape them and their implications for tourism The book is multidisciplinary and will appeal to researchers in the fields of gastronomy hospitality tourism and media studies
