Reflecting God Journal Kay Smith, 2009 Fulfilled Through Fear Dean C. Halverson, 2025-06-20 When do we feel most alive It's when something or someone grabs our attention and causes us to live with a passion for those things that are outside us Think of falling in love or living for a cause That's what fearing God does It causes us to come alive by grabbing our attention and focusing us on the God who loves us Fearing God is not the same as being afraid of God Instead fearing God is being overwhelmed by the infinite loving dangerous God and being fulfilled by that fear Finding fulfillment by fearing God challenges the popular belief that we will be most fulfilled when we follow our hearts Read this book with a heart that is open to being transformed Genetic Turning Points James C. Reading the Bible with Its Writers Stephen Burnhope, 2025-02-28 The Bible is a collection of sixty six books written by many different people over many hundreds of years All of its writers lived in an ancient world context and thought in ancient world ways But as Bible readers today we live and think in the modern world which is increasingly a postmodern world Things that were obvious to them are not obvious to us and vice versa For Christians who want to be faithful to the Bible as the Word of God the time and distance between then and now is a real challenge to navigate Stephen Burnhope suggests that we won t get it right by collapsing that gap by just picking the text up and reading it The Bible says insert a verse is not enough We will mishear both what the human authors were saying and what the divine author was saying Reading the Bible well starts from reading it with its writers understanding it as they understood it what they were saying why they said it and how they said it All of which is shaped and framed by the Bible s big themes that once we re aware of them we see running throughout from cover to cover

God of Love and God of Judgement Stephen K. Moroney, 2009-07-06 How can a God of love also be a God of judgment If God loves everyone what is the point of judgment Does God change from being wrathful in the Old Testament to loving in the New Testament Can we discern God s judgments in current events such as hurricanes and personal tragedies Is it ever right for humans to judge These are not just daunting issues for theologians to ponder They are urgent questions for everyone Our answers profoundly affect how we relate to God and how we live with one another Coming to grips with these issues is vital for our spiritual journeys Many people today emphasize God s love and downplay his judgment The problem with this approach is that God s judgment is taught in Scripture from the beginning of Genesis to the end of Revelation and it is a core part of the gospel preached by Jesus and his apostles There are problems at the other end of the spectrum too when we believe in a God of judgment who is not also a God of love It is impossible for us to find spiritual peace when we live in constant dread of God pictured as a harsh judge whom we can never please This book calls us to embrace a more full biblical image of God one that joins his love and judgment together Additionally the book shows that as those who are made in God s image we can fuse love and judgment together constructively in our own daily lives Theophany Vern S.
