Western Civilization Kenneth L. Campbell, 2012-07-02 Western Civilization A Comparative and Global Approach is a one author one voice narrative history of western civilization from ancient times to the present Within an overarching chronological approach individual chapters focus on social cultural political economic and intellectual life during particular sometimes overlapping periods Religion everyday life and transforming moments are the three main themes of the book that make the past interesting intelligible and relevant to today's students Another important feature is the incorporation of a comparative approach using illustrations documents quotes and visual or written material to provide students with a keener understanding of the West through comparison with other civilizations and cultures Every chapter includes original source boxes timelines and web links to additional and complementary information An online Instructor's Manual written by the author provides instructors with access to a wide variety of resources including image galleries web links maps test materials and suggested readings In the Balance Candice Lee Goucher, 1998 Reflections of the Japanese Education System in Britain Mari Hiraoka, 2024-10-28 This book explores British reflections of Japanese education between 1858 and 1914 by referring to accounts by British observers derived from documentary sources such as newspapers journal articles published books and official reports Hiraoka argues that British attitudes and comments on Japanese education reflect concerns about their own education system International economics and politics of the time as well as the voices of the Japanese are also taken into account British interpretations of the advantages of Japanese education are explained with two seemingly contradictory views traditions inherited in Japan and modern institutions newly introduced using the Western model The book illustrates how this dual view of Japan affected the rise and fall of British interest in Japanese education over half a century It also explores a broad range of phenomena educational reforms legislation and practice science networks exhibitions international trade and military affairs to observe how Japanese education was viewed by the British It consults a wide range of primary sources most of which are published or digitally archived Shedding new light on the transnational history of the educational relationship between Japan and Britain this book will be an attractive base for future researchers in the fields of history of education cultural history and comparative education Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Miracles and Material Life Teren Sevea,2020-07-30 In this ground breaking new study Teren Sevea reveals the economic environmental and religious significance of Islamic miracle workers pawangs in the nineteenth and twentieth century Malay world Through close textual analysis of hitherto overlooked manuscripts and personal interaction with modern pawangs readers are introduced to a universe of miracle workers that existed both in the past and in the present uncovering connections between miracles and material life Sevea demonstrates how societies in which the production and extraction of natural resources as well as the uses of technology were intertwined with the knowledge of charismatic religious figures and locates the role of the pawangs in the spiritual economy of the Indian Ocean world across maritime connections and Sufi networks and on the frontier of the British Empire Black Athena Martin Bernal,2020-02-14 Black Athena an audacious three volume series strikes at the heart of today s most heated culture wars Martin Bernal challenges Eurocentric attitudes by calling into question conventional explanations for the origins of classical civilization Provocative passionate and colossal in scope this thoughtful rewriting of history continues to stir academic and political controversy History of Technology Volume 29 Ian Inkster,2016-09-30 The common question from the western point of view is of the sort why did China lose its early leadership of productive technologies to Europe during the early modern period Answers to this seemingly clear enquiry vary from general cultural inwardness to the interferences of imperial governance This collection surveys such theories but alters the issue by raising the notion that Chinese technologies did not so much fail as move along a path different from that of Europe Our second collection on the Mindful Hand also shifts common ground by querying and modifying common views of the links between knowledge and technique in early modern European development Scientific or related knowledge was not brought to technique as a socio cultural gift from an educated elite to the working man Rather educated gents practitioners instrument makers craftsfolk and technicians of all kinds intermingled both socially and in terms of the recognition of technical problems as well as in the assemblage of the mental commercial and cognitive resources required to pursue innovative production projects Japan, Turkey and the World of Islam Selçuk Esenbel,2011-02-04 Widely known for her writings on Islam with a particular focus on the transnational history of politics in Islam and Japan this volume brings together twenty of the author s key essays thematically structured as Japan and Islam Japanese Ottoman Relations and Japanese Turkish Interaction and Reflections on Tokugawa Japan from Turkey Awarded the Japan Foundation Special Prize for Japanese Studies in 2007 Sel uk Esenbel s volume will provide an invaluable reference resource for current and future research in an increasingly important context A History of World Societies, Volume 2: Since 1450 John P. McKay,Bennett D. Hill,John Buckler,Roger B. Beck,Clare Haru Crowston,Patricia Buckley Ebrey,Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks,2011-10-05 A History of World Societies introduces students to the global past through social history and the stories and voices of the people who lived it Now published by Bedford St Martin s and informed by the latest scholarship the book has been thoroughly revised with students in mind to meet the needs of the evolving course Proven to work in the classroom the book s regional and comparative approach helps students understand the connections of global history while providing a manageable organization With more global connections and comparisons more documents special features and activities that teach historical analysis and an entirely new look the ninth edition is the most teachable and accessible edition yet Test drive a chapter today Find out how Ancient Southeast Asia John Norman Miksic,Goh Geok Yian,2016-10-14 Ancient Southeast Asia provides readers with a much needed synthesis of the latest discoveries and research in the archaeology of the region presenting the evolution of complex societies in Southeast Asia from the protohistoric period beginning around 500BC to the arrival of British and Dutch colonists in 1600 Well illustrated throughout this comprehensive account explores the factors which established Southeast Asia as an area of unique cultural fusion Miksic and Goh explore how the local population exploited the abundant resources available developing maritime transport routes which resulted in economic and cultural wealth including some of the most elaborate art styles and monumental complexes ever constructed The book s broad geographical and temporal coverage including a chapter on the natural environment provides readers with the context needed to understand this staggeringly diverse region It utilizes French Dutch Chinese Malay Indonesian and Burmese sources and synthesizes interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives and data from archaeology history and art history Offering key opportunities for comparative research with other centres of early socio economic complexity Ancient Southeast Asia establishes the area s importance in world history Sino-Japanese Reflections Joshua A. Fogel,Matthew Fraleigh,2022-05-09 Sino Japanese Reflections offers ten richly detailed case studies that examine various forms of cultural and literary interaction between Japanese and Chinese intellectuals from the late Ming to the early twentieth century The authors consider efforts by early modern scholars on each side of the Yellow Sea to understand the language and culture of the other to draw upon received texts and forms and to contribute to shared literary practices Whereas literary and cultural flow within the Sinosphere is sometimes imagined to be an entirely unidirectional process of textual dissemination from China to the periphery the contributions to this volume reveal a more complex picture highlighting how literary and cultural engagement was always an opportunity for creative adaptation and negotiation Examining materials such as Chinese translations of Japanese vernacular poetry Japanese engagements with Chinese supernatural stories adaptations of Japanese historical tales into vernacular Chinese Sinitic poetry composed in Japan and Japanese Sinology the volume brings together recent work by literary scholars and intellectual historians of multiple generations all of whom have a strong comparative interest in Sino Japanese studies Alternative Discourses on Modernization and Development Kim Kyong-Dong,2017-05-08 This cutting edge work offers an alternative perspective on existing paradigms of modernization and development that originated in the West from the vantage point of non western late modernizing societies It considers how East Asian philosophical ideas enrich the reformulation of the concept of development or societal development and how influential principles of traditional culture such as yin yang dialectic interact with modern ideas and technology It addresses the significance of alternative discourses as culturally independent scholarship and the problems of pervasive mechanisms of social political economic and cultural dependence in the global academic world The Other Ancient Civilizations Raven Todd DaSilva,2024-10-29 A captivating journey through 15 000 years of fascinating yet often forgotten ancient civilizations and cultures includes maps and illustrations Natasha Billson host The Great British Dig From the world s first peace treaty to daring expeditions across the Pacific this book explores twenty ancient and historic cultures that have had monumental impacts on our modern world but that few people know about Archaeologist Raven Todd DaSilva creator of the popular platform Dig It With Raven looks beyond the familiar names and places and delves into astounding finds unearthed at archaeological sites around the globe Discover the archaeology that sheds light on the secret stories of the Nubians Olmec Xiongnu Minoans Akkadians and many more Rather than focusing only on great rulers and monumental buildings the book highlights the everyday lives of peoples of the past who they interacted with and what we can learn from them Packed with summaries of current archaeological evidence detailed maps and striking images of artefacts and sites The Other Ancient Civilizations reveals how archaeologists decode ancient cultures from what they left behind and is an indispensable collection of fascinating stories and facts that illustrate both the differences and similarities between us and our long distant ancestors A succinct journey through some of the world s less well known complex societies excellent thoroughly researched and admirably illustrated Brian Fagan author of People of the Earth Social Construction and the Logic of Money J.

Samuel Barkin,2012-02-01 While other studies of international leadership have looked at a variety of measures to predict behavior this book demonstrates that the key factor is international finance J Samuel Barkin uses an innovative blend of rationalist and constructivist methodologies approaches to international political economy that normally exist in isolation from one another Barkin argues that the level of a country s involvement in international finance specifically motivates it to lead This is particularly relevant today given the on going discussions on how to respond to local and global financial crises Barkin illustrates his theory with an episodic history of international monetary leadership over the last four centuries Dutch leadership in the seventeenth century British leadership in the nineteenth the failure of leadership in the interwar era and Great Depression and the role of the U S in the construction of an international economic infrastructure since World War II

Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities Bernd Reiter,2021-12-30 In Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities Bernd Reiter contributes to the ongoing efforts to decolonize the social sciences and humanities by arguing that true decolonization implies a liberation from the elite culture that Western civilization has perpetually promoted Reiter brings together lessons learned from field research on a Colombian indigenous society a maroon society also in Colombia from Afro Brazilian religion from Spanish Anarchism and from German Council democracy and from analyzing non Western ontologies and epistemologies in general He claims that once these lessons are absorbed it becomes clear that Western civilization has advanced individualization and elitism The chapters present the case that human beings are able to rule themselves and have done so for some 300 000 years before the Neolithic Revolution Self rule and rule by councils is our default option once we rid ourselves of leaders and rulers Reiter concludes by considering the massive manipulations and the heinous divisions that political elitism dressed in the form of representative democracy has brought us and implores us to seek true freedom and democracy by liberating ourselves from political elites and taking on political responsibilities

Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities is written for students scholars and social justice activists across cultural anthropology sociology geography Latin American Studies Africana Studies and political science History of Political Ideas Eric Voegelin, 1997 The series will publish all of philosopher Voegelin's 1901-1985 works including the previously unpublished multi volume History of Political Ideas of which this is the second volume Completed in 1944 it is not a conventional chronological account but an original comprehensive account of the political thought and experiential underpinnings that typified the medieval period A survey of the structure of the period is followed by analysis of the Germanic invasions the fall of Rome and the rise of empire and monastic Christianity climaxing in a study of Saint Thomas Aquinas Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Reflections on War and Peace and the Constitution George Anastaplo, 2014-10-21 The attitudes and assumptions of different cultures and historical periods toward war and the maintenance of peace are reviewed by recalling authors who include Euripides Sophocles Plato Cervantes Shakespeare Hobbes and Zola The challenges of war peace and national security for and by Americans are examined and documents such as the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of 1787 The lives and thought of eminent Americans are also recalled including George Washington Thomas Jefferson Abraham Lincoln and Franklin Roosevelt as well as the challenges posed by incidents such as the Dreyfus Affair and monstrosities such as the Second World War Holocaust The Appendixes reinforce these inquiries by providing critical documents in American history and interviews with a Holocaust survivor
