Reflections for Women Ruth Johnson Jay,1981 Critical Reflections on Women, Family, Crime and Justice Isla Masson,Lucy Baldwin,Natalie Booth,2021-05-18 Drawing on original research from the Women Family Crime and Justice research network this edited collection sheds new light on the challenges and experiences of women and families who encounter the criminal justice system in the UK Each contribution demonstrates how these groups are often ignored oppressed and repeatedly victimised The book addresses crucial issues including short term imprisonment trauma specific interventions schools supporting children affected by parental imprisonment and visibility and voice in research Bringing together contemporary knowledge from both research and practice this ambitious volume offers valuable insights and practical recommendations for positive action and change

Methodological Reflections on Women's Contribution and Influence in the History of Philosophy Sigridur Thorgeirsdottir,Ruth Edith Hagengruber,2020-07-11 This book introduces methodological concepts aimed at including women in the canon of the history of philosophy The history of women philosophers is as long and strong as the history of philosophy and this holds true not only for the European tradition as the research of women philosophers of the past shows The phenomenon of ignoring and excluding women in 19th and 20th century views on the history of philosophy was a result of the patriarchal tradition that ostracized women in general In this book leading feminist philosophers discuss methodologies for including women thinkers in the canon and curricula of philosophy How does the recovery of women thinkers and their philosophies change our view of the past and how does a different view of the past affect us in the present Studying a richer and more pluralistic history of philosophy presents us with worlds we have never entered and have never been able to approach This book will appeal to philosophers and intellectual historians wanting to view the history of philosophy in a new light and who are in favor of an inclusive perspective on that history

Women and International Human Rights in Modern Times Celorio, Rosa,2022-01-21 This casebook provides an overview of the main international and regional legal standards related to the human rights of women and explores their development and practical application in light of contemporary times challenges and advances It navigates the nuances of the ongoing problems of discrimination and gender based violence and analyzes them in the context of modern challenges such as the COVID 19 pandemic the MeToo movement and its aftermath the growth of non state actors environment and climate change sexual orientation and gender identity and the digital world among others

Allusions and Reflections Elisabeth Wåghäll Nivre,2015-06-18 In June 2012 scholars from a number of disciplines and countries gathered in Stockholm to discuss the representation of ancient mythology in Renaissance Europe This symposium was an opportunity for the participants to cross disciplinary borders and to problematize a well researched field The aim was to move beyond a view of mythology as mere propaganda in order to promote an understanding of ancient tales and fables as contemporary means to explain and comprehend the Early Modern world and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09-01 Using conversations observations and reflections psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love violence and masculinity This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele's meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender intimacy and power in the context of the human need for love and care While unsparing in his analysis of men's inner lives Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender sexuality and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised so our ideas about masculinity and men's and boys' capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve In My Reflection Ameerah A.

W Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence

Rahman, 2011-04-19 This book is written to inspire people from all walks of life To bring love loss pain happiness empowerment and inspiration into light To share the power of words some words are a comfort to some and some words are revealing for others Words are extremely powerful and can cause so many emotions and actions This book is best described in this poem I keep trying to lay out all of my expressions and feelings with out trying to be too revealing and with trying to be too concealing and as I pull back each layer of skin peelings another layer appears concealing my anger love and fears blood rolling over each pain even as the needle penetrates the vein the lines are not clear but the skin is left stained And a message is sent to the brain As its trying to push back the memories The lies I created In attempt to deceive Living in the world of make believe Even though Im speaking its not truly describing the pain So I scream louder thing that you can now hear me but instead of it the words coming out clear In the air they are crisp sounds of despair heart needed to repair holding back words trying not to swear Not to ignite a fire Im not sure thats there Unsure if I should share If I could repair The damage that is done here concealed not revealed and not truly healed but Healing I pull back this layer of Skin and let You in Thick Skin Copyright 2010 Maya and Catholic Cultures in Crisis John D. Early, 2016-11-23 A landmark achievement that will no doubt be cited again and again for years to come It is a thoroughly researched and authoritative work Allen J Christenson author of Art and Society in a Highland Maya Community While this book explains what brought about the Maya uprisings in Chiapas and Guatemala and answers questions about the role of the Catholic Church in the development of the uprisings the heart of the book is about the Mayan quest to live with dignity as Maya in the modern world Christine Gudorf author of Catholic Social Teaching on Liberation Themes In his most recent book The Maya and Catholicism An Encounter of Worldviews John Early examined the relationship between the Maya and the Catholic Church from the sixteenth century through the colonial and early national periods In Maya and Catholic Cultures in Crisis he returns to delve into the changing worldviews of these two groups in the second half of the twentieth century a period of great turmoil for both Drawing on his personal experiences as a graduate student a Roman Catholic priest in the region and his extensive archival research Early constructs detailed case histories of the Maya uprisings against the governments of Guatemala and Mexico exploring Liberation Catholicism s integral role in these rebellions as well as in the evolutions of Maya and Catholic theologies His meticulous and insightful study is indispensable to understanding Maya politics society and religion in the late twentieth century John D Early professor emeritus of anthropology at Florida Atlantic University is the author of The Maya and Catholicism and coauthor of several books including The Xilixana Yanomami of the Amazon      Reflection of Memories

Tesa Jones,2017-07-21 Richard Malone and Caroline Sue Miller are born on the same day to parents who live on opposite sides of the societal fences in a small coal mining town of western Pennsylvania Despite the economic differences between their families the two children become best friends and their unexpected friendship eventually blossoms into forbidden love In order to be together and escape their bleak small town opportunities they leave the security of their homes and settle in New Jersey where their future is a blank slate As Richard and Caroline make their way through life their choices often veer their love off course but the bond they share has deep roots that continually pull them together again This tale of family friendship and love incorporates the historical events and cultural changes of the tumultuous 1900s while following the course of one couple whose connection is stronger than class or circumstance Whether youre sailing through youthful days or enjoying your golden years Reflection of Memories will capture your heart and remind you of what is truly important in life

Reflection Ocean Davje Neville,2019-08-05 Reflection Ocean Confessions of a Female Misunderstood is a journey into the endless reflections on life In this book you will find inspiration heartache pain ways to get out of this heartache and pain how to live personal trials into my own life love depression and so on I used to feel like I was the only one feeling what I felt until I spoke with others that informed me they too had these feelings So this book is not for me it s to let the reader know that they are not alone      Interpreting the Evolution of Atayal Tribal Textile Patterns Po Hsun Wang,Jie Li,2025-07-02 This book elucidates findings from an anthropological study that analyzes the patterns of Taiwan s Atayal tribe s fabric in their ethnic dress codes By analyzing the changes and development of the patterns over time the authors draw fascinating conclusions regarding the geographical migration and intermarriage practices between indigenous minority groups in Taiwan s history The book brings new insights within East Asian linguistic anthropology in theorizing about the origins of legends and broader patterns of ethnic migration integrating the characteristics and relationships among Atayal fabrics and interpreting these relationships in connection with the flow of sub ethnic groups In doing so the book provides rich empirical evidence for anthropologists and migration scholars to better understand the movement of ethnic groups in Taiwan while also establishing a model for how studying textile design can be employed to establish such linkages The book shows that the composition and changes of ethnic minority patterns have their own internal logic and causes By studying this the authors demonstrate how such work might translate intangible and tangible culture into explicit and shareable knowledge and provide a compass for other anthropologists and researchers in the fields of visual and linguistic anthropology migration studies and ethnic and indigenous cultures in Asia and beyond      Recreations and Reflections Harold Hodge,1902

Participatory Learning and Action 50: Critical reflections, future directions Nicole Kenton,2004      Beyond Women's Words Katrina Srigley,Stacey Zembrzycki,Franca Iacovetta,2018-05-01 Beyond Women s Words unites feminist scholars artists and community activists working with the stories of women and other historically marginalized subjects to address the contributions and challenges of doing feminist oral history Feminists who work with oral history methods want to tell stories that matter They know too that the telling of those stories the processes by which they are generated and recorded and the different contexts in which they are shared and interpreted also matters a lot Using Sherna Berger Gluck and Daphne Patai s classic text Women s Words as a platform to reflect on how feminisms broadly defined have influenced and continue to influence the wider field of oral history this remarkable collection brings together an international multi generational and multidisciplinary line up of authors whose work highlights the great variety in understandings of and approaches to feminist oral histories Through five thematic sections the volume considers Indigenous modes of storytelling feminism in diverse locales around the globe different theoretical approaches oral history as performance digital oral history and oral history as community engagement Beyond Women s Words is ideal for students of oral history anthropology public history women s and gender history and Women s and Gender Studies as well as activists artists and community engaged practitioners      Varieties of Ethical Reflection Michael Barnhart,2002-01-01 Varieties of Ethical Reflection brings together new cultural and religious perspectives drawn from non Western primarily Asian philosophical sources to globalize the contemporary discussion of theoretical and applied ethics The work pushes ethics beyond a Western philosophical tradition tending toward universalism to infuse and broaden modern ethical theory with relativistic Asian ethical principles The contributors introduce multicultural concepts and ideas from the Chinese Taoist Confucian and Neo Confucian Indian and East Asian Buddhist and Hindu traditions focusing on such areas of moral controversy as the clash between women s rights and culture universal human rights abortion and euthanasia in a non Western setting and the standardization of medical practice across cultures      Reflections on Mind and the Image of Reality Jason Brown,2017-05-24 This collection of brief essays and still briefer commentaries is a personal reflection on some topics that have been thematic in the development of my theoretical work These essays are not meant to extend the theory into yet uncharted territory but rather to draw out some of its implications for clinical neuroscience philosophy of mind and everyday life The point of view guiding these reflections can be found in prior works but the discerning reader will not fail to see a departure from current models of mind and brain based on circuit board diagrams modular and computational theories that conflict with a processual account in which the mind brain is more like a living organism This perspective which is often at odds with common sense and folk psychology has particular relevance to our concepts of the self the inner life subjective time adaptive process and the world represented in perception
