Reflections On J C Dahl:

Mission and Moral Reflection in Paul Michael D. Barram, 2006 The Apostle Paul sought to exert his influence and authority over the congregations he founded long after they had been established Such ongoing oversight by Christianity's prototypical evangelist has not been adequately understood In a brief 1987 article W Paul Bowers challenged John Knox's assertion that Paul's pastoral and administrative work irked him and that he wanted to be free of it This book confirms and significantly develops Bowers's little known thesis examining a wide range of passages in the apostle's undisputed letters and highlighting crucial implications of Paul's broadly conceived vocation for understanding his mission and moral reflection

Baltic Light Catherine Johnston, Helmut Borsch-Supan, Helmut R. Leppien, National Gallery of Canada, Kasper Monrad, 1999-01-01 During the first half of the nineteenth century Danish and German artists studying in Paris and Rome brought back the concept of plein air painting and began to paint out of doors on their native soil They introduced a whole new aesthetic that was sensitive to the light and atmospheric conditions peculiar to the north especially during the long summer days This beautiful book focuses on the painters and paintings of this period particularly Caspar David Friedrich who produced many fine works before he developed the romantic style for which he is better known The book presents topographical landscapes panoramas and some group and individual portraits that often include a window from which light emanates Essays by eminent authorities discuss various aspects of the Danish and North German open air movement They note for example that the paintings reflect a direct view of nature devoid of the intellectual and moral overtones of the neoclassical paintings that preceded them They also discuss the fact that Schleswig Holstein was closely allied with Denmark until 1848 and this favored many Hamburg and north German artists studying at the Academy in Copenhagen where painting out of doors was encouraged In addition to the essays the book presents 108 works by twenty three artists catalogue entries for each work and a biography of each artist The Drama of History Kristin Gjesdal,2021

Goulder and the Gospels is the first comprehensive response to the radical challenge Michael Goulder has posed for New Testament scholarship Goulder dispenses with all hypothetical sources Q M and L and postulates highly creative evangelists who write in the light of the liturgy In this penetrating critique Goodacre provides a critical overview of Goulder s work focusing on several key areas the vocabulary of Q the language of the Minor Agreements the creativity of Luke and the lectionary theory He does not simply assess the plausibility of Goulder s ideas but also develops new ways to test them The theories are sometimes found to be wanting but at the same time Goulder is reaffirmed as one of the most important and stimulating Biblical scholars of this generation Continental Lower Crust David Fountain,Richard Arculus,Robert W. Clothes and Monasticism in Ancient Christian Egypt Ingvild Sælid Gilhus,2021-03-08 This book is an exploration of the ideals and values of the ascetic and monastic life as expressed through clothes Clothes are often seen as an extension of us as humans a determinant of who we are and how we experience and interact with the world In this way they can play a significant role in the embodied and material aspects of religious practice The focus of this book is on clothing and garments among ancient monastics and ascetics in Egypt but with a broader outlook to the general meaning and function of clothes in religion The garments of the Egyptian ascetics and monastics are important because they belong to a period of transition in the history of Christianity and very much represent this way of living This study combines a cognitive perspective on clothes with an attempt to grasp the embodied experiences of being clothed as well as viewing clothes as potential actors Using sources such as travelogues biographies letters contracts images and garments from monastic burials the role of clothes is brought into conversation with material religion more generally This unique study builds links between ancient and contemporary uses of religious clothing It will therefore be of interest to any scholar of religious studies religious history religion in antiquity and material religion From Antiquities to Heritage Anne Eriksen, 2014-05-01 Eighteenth century gentleman scholars collected antiquities Nineteenth century nation states built museums to preserve their historical monuments In the present world heritage is a global concern as well as an issue of identity politics What does it mean when runic stones or medieval churches are transformed from antiquities to monuments to heritage sites This book argues that the transformations concern more than words alone They reflect fundamental changes in the way we experience the past and the way historical objects are assigned meaning and value in the present This book presents a series of cases from Norwegian culture to explore how historical objects and sites have changed in meaning over time It contributes to the contemporary debates over collective memory and cultural heritage as well to our knowledge about early modern antiquarianism

Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe Marsha Morton, Barbara Larson, 2021-03-25 Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe investigates the visual imagery of race construction in Scandinavia Austro Hungary Germany and Russia It covers a period when historic disciplines of ethnography and anthropology were expanding and theorists of race were debating competing conceptions of biological geographic linguistic and cultural determinants Beginning in 1850 and extending into the early 21st century this book explores how paintings photographs prints and other artistic media engaged with these discourses and shaped visual representations of subordinate ethnic populations and material cultures in countries associated with theorizations of white identity The chapters contribute to postcolonial research by documenting the colonial style treatment of minority groups by exploring the anomalies and complexities that emerge when binary systems are seen from the perspective of the fine and applied arts and by representing the voices of those who produced images or objects that adopted altered or critiqued ethnographic and anthropological information In doing so Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe uncovers instances of unexpected connections establishes the fabricated nature of ethnic identity and challenges the certainties of racial categorization The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum

Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Cerebrovascular Bibliography, 1962 The Liturgy of the Gospel Wolfgang Vondey, 2025-09-12

Vondey argues that theological hermeneutics in Pentecostal perspective is the interpretation of the world explicitly and specifically informed by the liturgy of the gospel This book identifies the corresponding hermeneutical questions that have dominated the formation of a liturgical Pentecostal horizon of interpretation since the twentieth century Pentecostals are acutely aware that the claim of their interpretive position shows not only a fusion of horizons but also a rejection of the dominant descriptive mechanisms How this tension in the history of Pentecostal theology is resolved and contributes to the emergence of Pentecostalism as a hermeneutical tradition is the subject of three critical inquiries 1 the question of truth in the Pentecostal tradition 2 the extension of the question of truth to hermeneutical experience and 3 the ontological shift of Pentecostal hermeneutics Vondey identifies how Pentecostal hermeneutics emerged not only thematically and historically but experientially and subjectively through the themes of the full gospel This book shows that rather than by the dominance of language the dynamic hermeneutical positioning in the narrative of this gospel originated and continues to be shaped liturgically
