Reflections Of Dead Passion:

Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien, 2012-12-31 Recently Pope Benedict remarked the quality of homilies needs to be improved. The Pope made this comment in the context of his extended reflection on the recent Synod in Rome 2010 on the word of God in the mission and life of the Church. The homily is an integral part of Christian liturgy. It is an honoured way of bringing the word of God to life such that people are helped to see the relevance of the word in their everyday lives. The homily is also an art form which needs to be practised and developed with skill. It seems to me as a preacher myself that what people are looking for in the homily is an articulate faith filled knowledgeable commentary on the word of God which speaks to their everyday life and experience. People want to see the fire, desire and conviction in the person who preaches. This is a constant challenge. Mark O'Brien here presents his reflections on Year C of the lectionary based on the Gospel of Luke. This is the companion volume to the earlier ones for Years A and B. Mark offers homilists a great service here. In two to three pages or several hundred words he gives an erudite and practical reflection on the word of God for the particular Sunday or feast as a good foundation on which any homilist can then build. Pope Benedict continues: The art of good preaching based on the lectionary is an art that needs to be cultivated. In these short but insightful reflections on the readings of the lectionary, Mark makes an excellent contribution to developing the art form of good preaching to the benefit of both those who preach and those who hear them. Rev Dr Brian Boyle, Academic Dean, Catholic Theological College.

Michael Seward, 1993-02-01      Playing On: Re-staging the Passion after the Death of God Mirella Klomp, 2020-09-25

In Playing On: Re-staging the Passion after the Death of God, Mirella Klomp shows how the Dutch playfully rediscover Christian heritage. Engaging theologically with a public Passion play, she demonstrates how precisely a production of Jesus' last hours carves out a new and unexpected space for God in a post-secular culture.

Contemporary Jewish Reality in Germany and Its Reflection in Film Claudia Simone Dorchain, Felice Naomi Wonnemberg, 2012-12-06. The notion of self and other and its representation in artwork and literature is an important theme in current cultural sciences as well as in our everyday life in contemporary Western societies. Moreover, the concept of self and other and its imaginary dichotomy is gaining more and more political impact in a world of resurfacing ideology-ridden conflicts. The essays deal with Jewish reality in contemporary Germany and its reflection in movies from the special point of view of cultural sciences, political sciences and religious studies. This anthology presents challengingly new insights into topics rarely covered such as youth culture or humor and finally discusses the images of Jewish life as realities still to be constructed.

Stael's Philosophy of the Passions Tili Boon Cuillé, Karyna Szmurlo, 2013. Sensibility or the capacity to feel played a vital role in philosophical reflection about the natural sciences, the social sciences and the arts in eighteenth-century France. Yet scholars have privileged the Marquis de Sade's vindication of physiological sensibility as the logical conclusion of Enlightenment over Germaine de Staël's exploration of moral sensibility's potential for reform and renewal that paved the way for Romanticism.

This volume of essays showcases Sta l s contribution to the affective revolution in Europe investigating the personal and political circumstances that informed her theory of the passions and the social and aesthetic innovations to which it gave rise Contributors move seamlessly between her political philosophical and fictional works attentive to the relationship between emotion and cognition and aware of the coherence of her thought on an individual national and international scale They first examine the significance Sta l attributed to pity happiness melancholy and enthusiasm in The Influence of the Passions as she witnessed revolutionary strife and envisioned the new republic They then explore her development of a cosmopolitan aesthetic in such works as On Literature Corinne or Italy On Germany and The Spirit of Translation that transcended traditional generic national and linguistic boundaries Finally they turn to her contributions to the visual and musical arts as she deftly negotiated the transition from a Neoclassical to a Romantic aesthetic Sta l s Philosophy of the Passions concludes that rather than founding a republic based on the rights of man Sta l s reflection fostered international communities of women artists models and collectors authors performers and spectators enabling them to participate in the re articulation of sociocultural values in the wake of the French Revolution Contributors Tili Boon Cuill Catherine Dubeau Nanette Le Coat Christine Dunn Henderson Karen de Bruin M Ione Crummy Jennifer Law Sullivan Lauren Fortner Ravalico C C Wharram Kari Lokke Susan Tenenbaum Mary D Sheriff Heather Belnap Jensen Fabienne Moore Julia Effertz

Passionate Impressions in Love's Reflection Cherie Leigh, 2020-12-07 It becomes obvious to anyone who gets to know me that I am a hopeless romantic I am not sure what instigated my sentimentality over love and romance but I have an affinity for all things that exhibit the beautiful qualities of passion The incredible holding power of love should not be taken for granted even as it can either profoundly entice or greatly elude The full effects of love s intensity move me with deep appreciation Some may say that I live in a fantasy world with my notions about romantic love but I don t let that bother me I just hop on my magical unicorn and ride off into the sunset I use my poetry to express intensity of emotions whether it be to entice delight mystify enlighten ache or touch Sometimes even through love s painful experiences there can be profound beauty taken from it that leaves lasting impressions For love in all its reflections has much to teach us about its purpose as the most powerful force in existence Since the beginning of time as we know it it has lived and breathed its testimony serving to inspire This collection of poetry came together for publication from encouragement from friends and fellow peer poets who believe in me I have always enjoyed writing but the past few years have been pivotal times of creativity I have changed from a woman seeking deliverance from pain to a woman experiencing inexplicable passion The obsession of love has become an innate part of my personality that needs to express itself in words I guess you could say I am smitten about anything written about love My hope is for the readers of my poetry to experience an emotional connection or perhaps find release through my various themes of love Some of my love poems take on a tone of spirituality while others embrace aspects of sensuality But all show phases and faces of love in need of expression For as mysterious as love can be it always makes its presence known in one form or another with unmistakable impact Welcome to my world of Passionate Impressions in Love s Reflection The Lost Reflection Bruce Jones,2013-01-01 Brian Denman is an ex CIA agent and mercenary turned private investigator who arrives in New Orleans to probe a centuries old myth It illuminates a modern labyrinth of adventure love and vampires culminating in an epic battle of destiny and revenge Reflection on the Death of a Porcupine D. H. Lawrence,2019-02-20 This collection of essays by the author of Lady Chatterley s Lover presents his musings on literature politics and philosophy in a newly restored text Though D H Lawrence was one of the great writers of the twentieth century his works were severely corrupted by the stringent house styling of printers and the intrusive editing of timid publishers A team of scholars at Cambridge University Press has worked for more than thirty years to restore the definitive texts of D H Lawrence in The Cambridge Editions Between 1915 1925 D H Lawrence wrote a series of philosophicalish essays covering topics ranging from politics to nature and from religion to education Varying in tone from lighthearted humor to spiritual meditation they all share the underlying themes of Lawrence s mature work Be thyself As far as possible the editors of the Cambridge Editions series have restored these essays to their original form as Lawrence wrote them A discussion of the history of each essay is provided and several incomplete and unpublished essays are reproduced in an appendix The Living Word™ 2016-2017: Sunday Gospel Reflections and Activities for Teens Compilation, Moral reflections on select passages of the New Testament, by the author of The gentleman instructed William Darrell,1736 The ABC of Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien,2013-10-01 This book provides reflections on the Sunday Bible readings in the Roman Catholic Lectionary for Years A B and C of the liturgical cycle They previously appeared in separate volumes of Sunday Matters published by ATF Theology in the Dominican Series They have now been combined in this single volume colour coded for easier use and with a revised general introduction and introduction to the Gospel of Matthew Like the previous volumes this one is intended to assist those preparing homilies and those with a desire to understand a little more deeply the readings used in the Sunday liturgy

Passions of the Sign Andreas Gailus,2006-03-23 Passions of the Sign traces the impact of the French Revolution on Enlightenment thought in Germany as evidenced in the work of three major figures around the turn of the nineteenth century Immanuel Kant Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Heinrich von Kleist Andreas Gailus examines a largely overlooked strand in the philosophical and literary reception of the French Revolution one which finds in the historical occurrence of revolution the expression of a fundamental mechanism of political conceptual and aesthetic practice With a close reading of a critical essay by Kleist an in depth discussion of Kant s philosophical writing and new readings of the novella form as employed by both Goethe and Kleist Gailus demonstrates how these writers set forth an energetic model of language and subjectivity whose unstable nature reverberates within the very foundations of society Unfolding in the medium of energetic signs human activity is shown to be subject to the counter symbolic force that lies within and beyond it History is subject to contingency and is understood not as a progressive narrative but as an expanse of revolutionary possibilities language is subject to the extra linguistic context of utterance and is conceived primarily not in semantic but in pragmatic terms and the individual is subject to impersonal affect and is figured not as the locus of self determination but as the site of passions that exceed the self and its pleasure principle At once a historical and a conceptual study this volume moves between literature and philosophy and between textual analysis and theoretical speculation engaging with recent discussions on the status of sovereignty the significance of performative language in politics and art and the presence of the impersonal even inhuman within the economy of the self

The goal of the Christian life is to acquire the Holy Spirit in communion with God Communion with God is the essence of our salvation in Christ Jesus our Lord The path to salvation is the fulfillment of the commandments of God life in Christ or what is the same the Christian pious virtuous life The Christian virtuous life of every Christian has two essential aspects the struggle against tempting evil the struggle against sinful passions and vices and the acquisition of Christian virtues This book is devoted to these vital issues the fight against the main sinful passions vices and the acquisition of basic Christian virtues This far from finished work arose on the basis of conversations that the author acting as a mentor conducted with students of the seminary These conversations have been completed and expanded brought into the system Many books have been written on the fight against passions and on Christian virtues by people experienced in the spiritual life under the guidance of Sts fathers There are also extensive scientific works from the field of asceticism This same book is not a scientific treatise or study rather it is a systematized collection of patristic thoughts on individual most important issues of active Christian life which has mainly a moral and edifying purpose The author in his work sought to present the patristic teaching and experience in a form that is understandable and intelligible to the modern reader and to show their necessary applicability in the life of every Christian for the commandments of God and the laws of spiritual life are common to all Christians no matter what way of life and ascetic labor they pursue In particular the author had in mind that the book would serve as a manual for students of the seminary candidates for the priesthood so that they could get acquainted with the patristic teaching on this issue in an assembled form Acquaintance of the candidate of the priesthood with the questions of Christian asceticism according to the teaching and experience of Sts fathers and ascetics is of great importance for their future pastoral activity The second and immediate goal of writing this work was also one's own benefit in order to move oneself to correction to the denunciation of one's poor soul so that although being ashamed of words as St John of the Ladder began to work having not yet acquired any good deed but only words And Rev Nilus of Sinai points out that he who does not do good should speak of good things so that being ashamed of words he begins deeds 2 The book is divided into two parts The first part gives general concepts about sin sinful passions and self love as the source of all sin and vice Then a strategic teaching is presented about each of the main passions separately about pride and vanity about gluttony and fornication and the fight against them about greed and anger about envy slander and condemnation and finally about sinful sadness and despondency The second part is devoted to the study of the main Christian virtues love humility meekness temperance and chastity those virtues that a Christian needs to acquire in the active eradication of the above main passions Therefore when studying chapters for example on carnal passions gluttony and fornication it is useful to follow this from the 2nd part to assimilate the patristic teaching about the main eradicators of these passions the virtues of temperance and chastity When studying the issue of struggle with self love pride greed and envy one should follow this by studying the patristic teaching on love and humility Anger has its opposite in meekness etc      The Constitution of Man George Combe,1845      Reflections from the Kitchen Fred Raynaud,2006-10 Reflections is not a cookbook There are no recipes between its pages What you will find is a look at Christ through the eyes of a chef The book takes you behind the scenes of restaurant life and reflects the Glory of Christ while working and worshipping within the marketplace      Passions & Reflections Judy Cooke,1991      Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1855      Days of Death, Days of Life Kristin Norget,2006 Kristin Norget explores the practice and meanings of death rituals in the popular culture of poor urban neighborhoods on the outskirts of the southern Mexican city of Oaxaca Norget s work offers an original perspective on the significance of the Day of the Dead and other Oaxacan ritual practices in shaping people s values and social identities Drawing on her extensive fieldwork in Oaxacan neighborhoods Norget includes vivid descriptions of Day of the Dead rituals      Isle of Thorns Sheila Kaye-Smith,1926
