Reflections On A Teapot Personal History:

Writing Our Lives Steven Joel Rubin,1991 Twenty eight selections from the writings of some of the best known American Jewish novelists dramatists critics and historians span the social and cultural history of American Jews in the twentieth century Often joyous occasionally tragic they provide a fascinating record from immigration to assimilation from life in the ghetto to the current movement by many to recapture their Jewish identity At once personal and historical the selections are poignant and moving testimonies to the perseverance of the American Jewish people Jews of Brooklyn Ilana Abramovitch,Seán Galvin,2002 Over 40 historians folklorists and ordinary Brooklyn Jews present a vivid living record of this astonishing cultural heritage 150 illustrations Map A Time for Searching Henry L. Feingold,1995-05 In this fourth volume the author notes that the decline of religiousness in the second and third generations of American Jews was balanced by the development of an activist political culture based an elaborate organizational life an effective fund raising apparatus and Zionism with its notion of Jewish peoplehood That reshaping of American Jewish individual and communal identity in some measure accounts for the insufficient response to the plight of European Jews during the Holocaust American Jewry s remarkable achievement in the private sphere overshadowed its weakness in the public one Series Editor s forward
