The Heart and its Attitudes Stephen Darwall, 2024-04-30 Philosophers don't often write about the heart At least analytical philosophers don't Why is this Philosophers are said to live life in their heads rather than from their hearts But even if that is so why don't they think and write about the heart Moreover it can hardly have escaped philosophers attention that matters of the heart are central to what we human beings value most about our lives including our lives with animals Philosophers write a lot about friendship and love but they tend to do so in terms that leave out heartfelt connection They speak rather of commitment to one another and each other's well being or taking each other as ends or sharing deliberative standpoints or living life together or a whole host of other topics and much less about mutual emotional vulnerability and sharing and being in one another's hearts Surely one explanation of philosophers reticence is that talk of the heart seems unavoidably metaphorical It turns out to be easy enough however to cash the metaphor in if we simply take heart refers to a cluster of emotional susceptibilities that have an essentially reciprocating structure The heart aims at heartfelt connection at shared experience of joys and sorrows hopes and fears and other personal emotions We seek naturally to share these feelings with others and must suppress our natural tendencies if we wish to avoid doing so Our heart's wish is to be open to other hearts in the hope that they will be open to ours and thereby us in return This book is a systematic treatment perhaps the first of attitudes of the heart remorse versus guilt love trust gratitude personal anger versus righteous anger jealousy and others and their role in mediating personal relationship attachment and connection This is obviously interesting in its own right but it also shows how heartfelt attitudes mirror more extensively studied reactive attitudes of guilt resentment and blame attitudes of the will Whereas the latter mediate moral relations of mutual respect and accountability attitudes of the heart are the currency of heartfelt connection and personal relationship

Story, Formation, and Culture Benjamin D. Espinoza,James Riley Estep

Jr., Shirley Morgenthaler, 2018-10-15 Story Formation and Culture brings together a myriad of scholars researchers and ministry leaders into conversation about how we can effectively nurture the spirituality of children Built around the three themes of story formation and culture this volume blends cutting edge research and insights with attention to how we can bring theory into practice in our ministries with children The work of children s spiritual formation is often a marginalized component in the church s overall ministry This volume seeks to equip pastors leaders and scholars with cutting edge research and practices that effectively strengthen their ministries with children Sermons ... With an Introductory Preface by W. F. Hook, Etc William Vernon HARCOURT (Canon of York.), 1873 Sermons William Vernon Harcourt, 1873 Why Me? Radu J. Bogdan, 2021-06-10 This book explores the evolution of the mental competence for self reflection why it evolved under what selection pressures in what environments out of what precursors and with what mental resources Integrating evolutionary psychological and philosophical perspectives Radu J Bogdan argues that the competence for self reflection uniquely human and initially autobiographical evolved under strong and persistent sociocultural and political collaborative and competitive pressures on the developing minds of older children and later adults Self reflection originated in a basic propensity of the human brain to rehearse anticipatively mental states speech acts actions and states of the world in order to service one s elaborate goal policies These goal policies integrate offline representations of one s own mental states and actions and those of others in order to handle the challenges of a complex and dynamic sociopolitical and sociocultural life calling for an adaptive intramental self regulation that intramental adaptation is self reflection A Christian-Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints Hans A. Harmakaputra, 2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints The Community of God s Friends Hans A Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today s multi faith context Is it possible for Christians to recognize non Christians as saints To answer affirmatively he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic Protestant and Muslim theologians Karl Rahner Jean Luc Marion Elizabeth Johnson Dietrich Bonhoeffer Paul Tillich and Ibn Arab As a result of this interreligious comparison three theological constructs emerge 1 saints as manifestations and revealers of God s self communication 2 the hiddenness of saints and 3 saints as companions These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure Christian understanding of saints on one hand and on the other hand provide theological reasoning to include non Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints Complexities of Spiritual Care in Plural Societies Anne Hege Grung, 2022-11-07 This volume contributes to an emerging field that could be referred to as plural spiritual care and chaplaincy It s innovative approach brings together contributions from a broad range of contexts and religious traditions and includes empirical work and conceptual explorations It helps to fill the gap between practices and developments related to plural spiritual care and chaplaincy in the scholarly discourse Theological Reflection Joye Gros, 2010-06 Many people today are asking the meaning making questions We want our lives to have meaning We want to know how our faith informs our work life how our family life enhances our spirituality and how we can feel less fragmented and more whole These are the spiritual questions of life They are wisdom seeking invitations stirring within the depths of our souls These are the hungers that theological reflection can help feed This book offers an understanding of theological reflection a model and a method It will not only illustrate how readers may use theological reflection in their own spiritual development but will also show how to facilitate the process with others From the introduction In Theological Reflection Connecting Faith and Life principles of theological reflection are presented to help the believer connect faith teaching and life Catholic Basics A Pastoral Ministry Series offers an in depth yet accessible understanding of the fundamentals of the Catholic faith for adults both those active in pastoral ministry and those preparing for ministry The series helps readers explore the Catholic tradition and apply what they have learned to their lives and ministry situations Includes study questions and suggestions for further reading Religion and Culture Bernard J.
