Reflective Journey Toward Order:

The Reflective Journey Toward Order Marion Montgomery, 2008-10-01 This book embodies a sequence of closely related essays which explore the modern poet s uneasy awareness of a tradition the romantic tradition with which he must contend The author's premise is that the romantic age extends from The Divine Comedy through Wordsworth to Eliot The roots of contemporary questions about the self and alienation are seen to extend at least as far back as Dante who is the first poet to choose the ego as a focus for poetry of epic dimensions. In the course of the study Montgomery considers the growing emphasis upon the self's becoming the focus of poetry until this shift culminated in the literature of the most autobiographical century in western letters the twentieth Dante Wordsworth and Eliot are discussed at length individually and in relation to one another as principal instances of the reflective poet The critic also considers other illustrative figures such as Milton Coleridge Keats Whitman Pound Joyce and Hemingway These and other writers have traveled along the romantic road anticipated by The Divine Comedy Finally the author suggests the road may end in a labyrinth so far as the contemporary writer is concerned In his increasing concern with the problems of the self and of the mind the poet has been forced to invent new modes and techniques which as the author demonstrates grow out of his response to the psychological and metaphysical preoccupations of his age Possum, and Other Receits for the Recovery of "Southern" Being Marion Montgomery, 2008-10 In this volume Marion Montgomery ponders two very different varieties of possum as the starting point for a literary philosophical and poetic inquiry into the nature of Southernness the familiar marsupial and the first person singular present of the Latin verb posse rendered as I am able Another Sort of Learning James V.
