Reform Of Public Spending For Agriculture:

The Reform of Public Expenditures for Agriculture Bonni J. Van Blarcom, Odin Knudsen, John Nash, 1993-01-01

Agriculture in Liberalizing Economies DINA L. UMALI, Charles Maguire, 1995 Discusses ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined This report presents the proceedings of the 14th World Bank Agricultural Symposium held in January 1994 The papers explore ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined They also capitalize on important lessons emerging from experiences around the world The report suggests that changing the role of government from market domination towards the provision of a regulatory framework that facilitates private sector activity is an ongoing process rather than a one time occurrence The papers also illustrate the wide variety of issues and the different approaches in the various countries that are redefining the role of government in agricultural development

Martin, 2005-11-16 Providing the most complete and up to date analysis of the range of agricultural issues under negotiation in the multilateral trade negotiations underway in the World Trade Organization WTO this title is a valuable resource to policymakers agricultural private sector and academics in developing and assessing the negotiating options Policy options for fertilizer subsidy reforms in Rwanda: A simulation-based analysis and synthesis of prior studies Spielman, David J., Mugabo, Serge, Rosenbach, Gracie, Ndikumana, Sosthene, Benimana, Gilberthe, Ingabire, Chantal, 2022-10-28 Agricultural input subsidies are a prominent feature in the 2018-2024 Strategic Plan for Agricultural Transformation PSTA 4 which is designed and implemented by the Ministry of Agriculture and Animal Resources MINAGRI By reducing the cost of improved seed and inorganic fertilizers subsidies are designed to accelerate the use of these productivity enhancing inputs thereby increasing agricultural yields and output increasing rural incomes while reducing food prices and improving food security in line with PSTA 4's targets However questions arise about whether the current input subsidy rates and levels are sufficient to increase crop production and meet the PSTA 4 targets and whether the subsidy system can be expanded in the current economic climate and fiscal situation caused by the COVID 19 pandemic and spike in global fertilizer prices This paper examines the impact of an increase in the price of fertilizer in Rwanda using seasonal production data from National Institute of Statistics of Rwanda NISR in a microsimulation model aimed at three priority crops maize rice and Irish potato and the three main fertilizers in use diammonium phosphate DAP urea and NPK Agricultural Public Spending in Nigeria Tewodaj Mogues, Michael Morris, Lev Freinkman, Abimbola Adubi, and Simeon Ehui, with Chinedum Nwoko, Olufemi Taiwo, Caroline Nege, Patrick Okonji, and Louis Chete, Agricultural Development in Brazil Antonio M. Buainain, Rodrigo Lanna, Zander Navarro, 2019-05-20 In the last few decades Brazilian agriculture has experienced a seismic transformation and its contradictory facets have fed different and opposing narratives regarding recent changes This book covers these changes exploring the issues from several empirical and analytical angles including the role of agriculture in the contemporary Brazilian economy the dynamics of Brazilian agricultural value chains environmental challenges and the processes of social differentiation Brazilian agriculture continues to be viewed in the international literature either through the lenses of the past century those of former problems relating to land use and land tenure or apologetically This collection of essays aims at updating the current interpretations providing objective accounting of the main transformations its determinants results contradictions and limitations As it covers the most relevant traits of Brazilian agricultural and rural development the book will provide the reader with an encompassing view of contemporary Brazilian agriculture including the positive and negative sides of the so called tropical agriculture revolution It highlights the tremendous economic potential as well as the continuing structural heterogeneity concentration of production and marginalization of millions of small farmers Written in an engaging and accessible style this book will be perfect for all those interested in learning about Brazilian agriculture It will be of particular interest to undergraduate and graduate students of economic development agricultural economics rural sociology comparative economic development rural development and agricultural policies Public Expenditures for Agricultural and Rural Development in Africa Tewodaj Mogues, Samuel Benin, 2012-03-15 Whereas there is plenty of work looking at macroeconomic effect of public spending on growth and poverty in Africa as well as studies of the impact of spending or investment in one economic sector on outcomes in that sector or on broader welfare measures this book fills a much needed gap in the research looking how the composition of public spending affects key development outcomes in the region The book brings together recent analysis on the trends in and returns to public spending for agricultural growth and rural development in Africa Case studies of selected African countries provide insights on the contributions of different types of public expenditures for poverty growth and welfare outcomes as well as insights into the constraints in gaining development mileage from investments in the agricultural sector Agricultural Policy Monitoring and Evaluation 2020 OECD, 2020-06-30 This annual report monitors and evaluates agricultural policies spanning all six continents including the 36 OECD countries the five non OECD EU Member States and 13 emerging economies Varieties of capitalism and Mexico, after the economic reforms between 1982 and 2012 Gabriel Alonso Santana, 2024-02-02 This work departs from the literature about Varieties of Capitalism VoC to study Mexico after the economic and political reforms enacted there between 1982 and 2012 which were characterised as neo liberal These were a 180 turn from the previous twelve years when the State invested heavily in corporations and even in oil production and export If such previous economic structure was similar to a state led corporatist but capitalist economy perhaps the new one would similarly follow a specific model The question of the study is after the economic reforms in Mexico between 1982 and 2012 what is the VoC of Mexico This is about the open market international free trade and investment privatisation and other economic reforms that began in Mexico in that period This book also comments on some indicators of economic wellbeing as these reflect the results of the reforms Finally it makes a critical assessment of those changes before attempting to answer the research question

Agricultural Policy Monitoring and Evaluation 2022 Reforming Agricultural Policies for Climate Change Mitigation OECD, 2022-06-23 This annual report monitors and evaluates agricultural policies in 54 countries including the 38 OECD countries the five non OECD EU Member States and 11 emerging economies It finds that the continued rise in agricultural support has been slower than sector growth in recent years but has been driven to record highs mainly by temporary factors OECD Economic Surveys: Iceland 2021 OECD, 2021-07-07 Iceland's economy is recovering from a deep COVID 19 recession Fisheries and intellectual services exports are on the rise and foreign tourists are starting to come back as travel restrictions are gradually eased The health crisis has been relatively mild so far thanks to a smart testing and tracking strategy and a well functioning health system Food Fights over Free Trade Christina L. Davis, 2011-10-23 This detailed account of the politics of opening agricultural markets explains how the institutional context of international negotiations alters the balance of interests at the domestic level to favor trade liberalization despite opposition from powerful farm groups Historically agriculture stands out as a sector in which countries stubbornly defend domestic programs and agricultural issues have been the most frequent source of trade disputes in the postwar trading system While much protection remains agricultural trade negotiations have resulted in substantial concessions as well as negotiation collapses Food Fights over Free Trade shows that the liberalization that has occurred has been due to the role of international institutions Christina Davis examines the past thirty years of U S agricultural trade negotiations with Japan and Europe based on statistical analysis of an original dataset case studies and in depth interviews with over one hundred negotiators and politicians She shows how the use of issue linkage and international law in the negotiation structure transforms narrow interest group politics into a more broad based decision process that considers the larger stakes of the negotiation Even when U S threats and the spiraling budget costs of agricultural protection have failed to bring policy change the agenda rules and procedures of trade negotiations have often provided the necessary leverage to open Japanese and European markets This book represents a major contribution to understanding the negotiation process agricultural politics and the impact of international institutions on domestic politics OECD Review of Agricultural Policies: Brazil 2005 OECD,2005-10-31 This OECD Review measures the level and composition of support to Brazilian agriculture and evaluates the effectiveness of current measures in attaining their objectives Institutions and public agricultural investments Mogues, Tewodaj,Olofinbiyi, Tolulope,2016-12-02 This paper makes a contribution to this literature by drawing on the framework of actor centered institutionalism Scharpf 1997 to empirically examine how political and budget institutions affect the incentives of actors involved in the public agricultural finance process structures the interactions between them and ultimately shapes expenditure allocations
