Reformation The Story Of Civiliz Part 6:

The Invisible Wall W. Michael Blumenthal, 1999-04-02 The Invisible Wall is one man's quest to understand the failure of the German Jewish relationship and to explain the character and attitudes of Germany's assimilated Jews over a three hundred year period. He found rich and remarkable stories in the lives of six Blumenthal ancestors all of whom happened to be major figures in German Jewish history: Jost Liebmann an itinerant peddler of trinkets and cheap jewels who became court jeweler to the Brandenburg nobility; Rahel Varnhagen von Ense whose Berlin salon was the meeting place of Prussia's intellectual elite; Giacomo Meyerbeer a celebrated composer of grand opera who dealt with the antisemitism he encountered by ceaselessly striving for success; Louis Blumenthal a respected businessman and founder of his town's bank; Arthur Eloesser a scholar and literary critic in the heyday of Weimar; and Ewald Blumenthal the author's father. Once a decorated soldier in the Kaiser's elite guards he was later a prisoner at Buchenwald. By recounting the stories of these individuals within the historical context of three centuries Blumenthal presents a portrait of German Jews from the birth of Christianity to the eve of the Holocaust revealing how Jews of various generations tried but failed to pierce the prejudice that separated them from other Germans.

Ordering America William H. Young, 2010-07-21 Ordering America painting a felicitous portrait of Western civilization shows that its defining ideals rooted in man's common human nature—a perception newly substantiated by modern evolutionary psychology—were best fulfilled by realization of the American founding order. Twentieth century progressivism and postmodern multiculturalism detoured America down the way of social constructionism; human nature and equality are produced by culture and the state through groups. The book sets a course to revive the Western ideals and return to an opportune center-right American order applying latest scientific insights and restoring individual responsibility and reciprocity under more limited still energetic government befitting our century.

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for-profit education? Those who work in non-profit or government-owned and operated schools. Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment. What's more important to humans: nutrition or education? Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education. What organizations provide food and who pays for the food? Food is provided by for-profit farmers, for-profit processors, for-profit wholesalers and for-profit retailers. Most food is purchased with the consumer's own money but a significant amount is purchased by low-income individuals using food stamps. Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps? We trust for-profit enterprises to provide our food. Why can't we trust for-profit enterprises to provide K-12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers

Rushdoony,2018-03-26 For centuries on end humanistic philosophers have produced endless books and treatises which attempt to explain reality without God or the mediatory work of His Son Jesus Christ Modern philosophy has sought to explain man and his thought process without acknowledging God His Revelation or man s sin God holds all such efforts in derision and subjects their authors and adherents to futility Philosophers who rebel against God are compelled to abandon meaning itself for they possess neither the tools nor the place to anchor it The works of darkness championed by philosophers past and present need to be exposed and reprov'd In this volume Dr Rushdoony clearly enunciates each major philosophers position and its implications identifies the intellectual and moral consequences of each school of thought and traces the dead end to which each naturally leads There is only one foundation Without Christ meaning and morality are anchored to shifting sand and a counsel of despair prevails This penetrating yet brief volume provides clear guidance even for laymen unfamiliar with philosophy Church in China: Faith, Ethics, Structure Aiming Wang,2009 The Protestant Church in China is growing very fast However the role of the Church in society is still fragile and marginal The Church needs a strong ethical and structural development This study analyses the theological ethical and ecclesiological heritage of the Reformation and it shows how this can build the foundation for the future of the Church in China Four models serve as orientation the Reformers Luther and Calvin and the theologians Bonhoeffer and Barth in the 20th century with their vision of Christian faith and a humane society The critical analysis of the missionary heritage since the 19th century shows its contribution for the acceptance of the tradition of the Reformation for the growing Church in China The author combines this theological and ethical perspective with the inculturation in the strong ethical tradition of the Chinese culture He proposes the encounter between the spirituality of the Western culture and that of the traditional culture of China through the relationship with Confucianism The book also offers elements for the dialogue around modern values such as human rights and civil society In this dialogue Chinese Protestantism can play more and more an important role
