Reforming The Church Today:

Reforming the Church Today Hans Küng, 1990 China's Reforming Churches Bruce P. Baugus, 2014-05-26 This is a critical moment in the life of China's reforming churches and the Presbyterian and Reformed mission to China. This book provides both a historical look at Presbyterianism in China and an assessment of the current state of affairs, orienting readers to church development needs and the basic outlines of Reformed Christianity in China today. While laying out the challenges and opportunities facing the church, the authors argue that assisting this reformation in China should be a central objective of the Presbyterian and Reformed mission to China in this generation.

Reforming Joy Tim Chester, 2018-09-20 Have you lost your joy? Do you feel like you have to prove yourself? Does your Christian life feel routine and performance oriented, driven by duty and obligation? The letter of Galatians was written to Christians who had lost their joy, confronted with false messages about rules and regulations they needed to follow. Similar false messages provoked the start of the Protestant Reformation and have continued to threaten the joy of Christians ever since. Exploring how the sixteenth-century Reformation was a return to the gospel joy originally preached to first-century Galatia, this book was written to help today's Christians rediscover the path to true freedom and lasting joy in Jesus.

The Necessity of Reforming the Church Jean Calvin, 2020 In the sixteenth century, no one denied that the church had problems. It was beset by ignorance, corruption, and greed among its clergy, and by moral laxity, superstition, and doctrinal confusion among its laity. The time was ripe for change. But what kind? And how was such change to occur? The Protestant Reformers initially strove to reform the church from within. But they soon concluded that its leaders and structures made impossible the kind of reforms that were necessary As a result they broke away and formed new churches but they did not do so lightly In The Necessity of Reforming the Church John Calvin offers a full throated defense of the Reformation Writing to Emperor Charles V he explains how the church had drifted from the teachings of Christ in several areas including right worship the way of salvation the sacraments and the government of the church In so doing he issues a call for the church to be continually reformed according to the Word of God This new translation by Casey Carmichael with introductory material by W Robert Godfrey promises to make this important work accessible to a new generation Also included is Calvin s A Reply to Cardinal Sadoletto

Fighting Satan Joel R. Beeke, 2015-06-23 In a day when society has in many ways placed itself under Satan s rule when Satanism is flourishing in Western nations when certain branches of the church are preoccupied with deliverance ministries and when others deny the devil s existence Fighting Satan is a sober practical perspective on this vital subject Joel R Beeke states We must know our enemy We must know how to withstand him and what spiritual weapons to take up against him We must defeat him by faith through lives that bear fruit and spread the truth With questions for reflection and discussion at the close of each chapter Fighting Satan is ideal for group and individual Bible study Table of Contents Part One Knowing the Enemy The Personality and History of Satan 1 Satan in the Bible 2 Satan in Church History Today and the Future Part Two Knowing Satan s Weaknesses Fighting Him Defensively and Offensively 3 Building an Unyielding Defense 4 Building an Attacking Offense Part Three Knowing Satan s Strategies His Devices and Their Remedies 5 Satan s Strategies and Skill 6 Confronting Four Major Strategies of Satan Part Four Knowing Satan s Defeat in Our Personal Lives Churches and Nations 7 Our Challenge as Believers 8 Our Challenge as Church Members 9 Our Challenge as Citizens Reforming the Monastery Greg Peters, 2013-11-12 Richard Froude wrote in 1833 to John Henry Newman that the present state of things in England makes an opening for reviving the monastic system Seemingly original words at the time Yet monasticism is one of the most ancient and enduring institutions of the Christian church reaching its zenith during the High Middle Ages Although medieval monasteries were regularly suppressed during the Reformation and the magisterial Reformers rejected monastic vows the existence of monasticism has remained within the Reformation churches both as an institution and in its theology This volume is an examination of Protestant theologies of monasticism examining the thought of select Protestant authors who have argued for the existence of monasticism in the Reformation churches beginning with Martin Luther and John Calvin and including Conrad Hoyer John Henry Newman Karl Barth and Donald Bloesch Looking at the contemporary church the current movement known as the New Monasticism is discussed and evaluated in light of Protestant monastic history

Reforming Memory Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-12 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of e memorye with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some important Reformed practices and confessional documents

The Doctrine of Atonement for Building Human Rights in Malawi Thipa, Joseph Andrew, 2019-05-22 This study is a critical investigation of a theological basis for believers and the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian in Malawi to support a culture of human dignity and human rights and specifically in the light of the classic Reformed doctrine of atonement as reflected in the works of Calvin and Barth and also the Westminster Confession It is argued in this study that the very essence of public recognition and consistent implementation of human rights is far reaching when understood in the light of the Reformed view of the atonement
