American Folklore, Legends, and Tall Tales for Readers Theatre Anthony D. Fredericks, 2008-10-30 Tony Fredericks presents a collection of best loved stories in the popular readers theatre format to integrate with the United States history and language arts curriculum in the upper elementary and middle school grades This collection of over 20 well known and not so well known tales will be invaluable to teachers in American schools as they do their usual units of study in American history and literature Plays focus on entertaining folklore tall tales and legends to aid teachers in building fluency skills in their young readers Included are tips for introducing and using Readers Theatre with students in grades 4-8 Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999 Restoring Students' Innate Power Louise El Yaafouri, 2022-03-31 This book explores the effects of trauma on newcomer students and presents stress mitigating strategies that empower these multilingual students as they transition to a new environment Diverse insights and experiences bring high powered learning spaces to life However the cultural backgrounds of newcomer students and their families can be very different from the dominant norms of the new community resulting in misalignments that constitute a persistent challenge In addition the process of arriving can exacerbate stress Entering a new school or classroom means situating oneself within a new context of language culture community and shifting personal identities This transition shock contributes to a sense of diminished power In serving these students we can't afford to leave transition shock out of our conversations about trauma We must not only stitch together pieces of culturally responsive practice and trauma informed care but also become practitioners of stress mitigating strategies that empower newcomer students We must focus instruction on our students unique identities We must restore their power In Restoring Students Innate Power newcomer educator and cultural competency expert Louise El Yaafouri presents An understanding of transition shock and how stress and trauma affect recent arrivers The four pillars of transition shock and how they affect learning How students see themselves and how the cultural aspects of their identities inform teachers work in mitigating transition shock How social emotional learning links to trauma informed practice This book isn't exclusively about trauma it s about restoring power The distinction is critical Focusing on the trauma or traumatic event roots us in the past Restoration of power moves us forward      Hidden Youth and the Virtual World Gloria Hongyee Chan,2016-10-04 Hidden Youth and the Virtual World examines the phenomenon of hidden youth or hikikomori as it is better known in Japan as well as Hong Kong Exposure to the Internet has allowed these young persons to develop a high level of capability within the virtual world however these are skills that are not highly valued by society This book uncovers the truth about hidden youth the causes coping strategies power relations between them and adults in society and their relationship with the virtual world Key topics surrounding the phenomenon of hidden youth are explored in detail including The framework of Social Censure Theory The theoretical concepts of hegemony and the impact that labelling by the Government the media and institutions has had on hidden youth The willingness of the hidden youth to remain hidden within the virtual world Subcultures as a platform for hidden youth empowerment This is a particularly useful volume to researchers in child and adolescent psychology clinical psychology counselling and psychotherapy school psychology sociology social work and youth policy as well as youth workers school counsellors and mental health professionals and will appeal to the interest of both academics and practitioners alike      Bottom Line's Health Breakthroughs 2007 Bottom Line,2006      Restoring Power to Parents and Places Richard S. Kordesh,2011-11-04 To progress successfully through all of their stages of development children need to grow up in good communities Good communities do not occur without viable productive families In Restoring Power to Parents and Places author Richard Kordesh makes a compelling call for the productive families renewal and provides creative steps for parents professionals and policymakers to take to strengthen communities around all children Kordeshs experiences as a planner professor and father have taught him that productive families are vitally important to the creation of good communities around children He details historically and with contemporary examples the forces in our society that place stresses on families in all sectors Restoring Power to Parents and Places presents a pointed critique of economic and political forces that have harmed families but it also offers practical suggestions for action by parents community leaders community development and planning professionals and governments at the local state and federal levels Restoring Power to Parents and Places celebrates the productive potentials of a families habitat and it provides tools for empowering familiesgiving them more time and ability to raise their children      On Paralysis in Infancy, Childhood, and Youth Mathias Roth,1869      New Sketches of Every-day Life Fredrika Bremer,1853      American Book Publishing Record ,1999      The Publishers Weekly ,1998      War and Embodied Memory Maria Berghs,2016-02-17 How do you become an amputee war wounded victim or disabled person This book describes how an amputee and war wounded community was created after a decade long conflict 1991 2002 in Sierra Leone Beginning with a general socio cultural and historical analysis of what is understood by impairment and disability it also explains how disability was politically created both during the conflict and post conflict as violence became part of the everyday Despite participating in the neoliberal rebuilding of the nation state ex combatants and the security of the nation were the government's main priorities not amputee and war wounded people In order to survive people had to form partnerships with NGOs and participate in new discourses and practices around disability and rights thus accessing identities of disabled or persons with disabilities NGOs charities and religious organisations that understood impairment and disability were most successful at aiding this community of people However since discourse and practice on disability were mainly bureaucratic top down and not democratic about mainstreaming disability neoliberal organisations and INGOs have caused a new colonisation of consciousness and amputee and war wounded people have had to become skilled in negotiating these new forms of subjectivities to survive
