The Potency of Pastoral in the Hispanic Baroque Anne Holloway, 2017 A careful re evaluation of pastoral poetics in the early modern Hispanic literature of Spain and Latin America In her analysis of the verse of representative poets of the Hispanic Baroque Holloway demonstrates how these writers occupy an Arcadia which is de familiarised and yet remains connected to the classical origins of the mode. Her study includes recent manuscript discoveries from the Spanish Baroque. Fuente de Alfeo y Aretusa now attributed to the Gongorist poet Pedro Soto de Rojas the poetry of Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza and Francisco de Quevedo. The study considers pastoral as a global cultural phenomenon of the Early Modern period its reverberations reaching as far as Viceroyal Peru. The tradition of the pastoral as a site for the discussion of great matters in the forest has deep roots and re-emerges to praise the urban hearts of empire. Furthermore it proves to be a site of spiritual encounter a poetic space that frames the staging of indigenous conversion in the poetry of Diego Mexia and Fernando de Valverde. Within the intricacies of this literary construct surface artistry sustains an effect of artless innocence that is vibrantly contested across the secular sacred parodic and colonial text. Anne Holloway is a Lecturer in Spanish Queen's University Belfast.

A Tale Blazed Through Heaven Oliver J. Noble-Wood, 2014-10-16. A Tale Blazed Through Heaven examines developments in the representation of the classical tale of Mars Venus and Vulcan in the literature and painting of the Golden Age of Spain c. 1526-1681. Anchored in close analysis of individual primary texts the five chapters that comprise this study assess how poets and painters breathed new life into the tale inherited from Homer Ovid and others examining some of the ways in which the story of Mars Venus and Vulcan was disguised developed expanded mocked combined with or played off against different subjects or otherwise modified in order to pique the interest of successive generations of readers and viewers. Each chapter discusses what particular changes and shifts in emphasis reveal about the tale itself specific renderings the aims and intentions of individual poets and painters and the wider context of the literary and visual culture of Early Modern Spain. Discussing a range of poems by both canonical Garcilaso de la Vega Luis de Góngora Lope de Vega etc. and less well known writers Juan de la Cueva Alonso de Castillo Solrzano Salvador Jacinto Polo de Medina etc. and culminating in detailed examination of select mythological works by Philip IV's court painter Diego Velázquez this book sheds light on questions relating to aspects of classical reception in the Renaissance the rise of specific poetic styles epic mock epic burlesque etc. the interplay between the sister arts of poetry and painting and the continual process of imitation and invention that was one of the defining features of the Spanish Golden Age.
