Rites For A New Age Understanding The Of Alternative Services:

Rites for a New Age Michael Ingham, 1986 Anglican Confirmation 1945-2000 Phillip Tovey, 2025-06-27 The focus of this book is the theology liturgy and practice of Anglican Confirmation from 1945 to 2000 It is the third book in a series on Anglican Confirmation The first chapters look at confirmation on a global and ecumenical level How have questions about the place and performance of confirmation changed Then there is a series of case studies from North America Europe and the wider world Two chapters are on the theology and practice of the Church of England Attention is given to liturgical reform theological discussion and practice including statistics In some chapters there are case studies of individual dioceses or bishops to give snapshots of theology in action This book uses innovative visualization techniques to present data and uses textual network analysis to map the interrelationships of provinces at a liturgical level The ecumenical baptismal unity agenda from Vatican 2 and the World Council of Churches underlies the theological critique This will be of great value to those in liturgical studies church history Anglican studies and to all bishops and clergy involved in confirmation

Eucharistic Sacramentality in an Ecumenical Context David J. Kennedy, 2016-04-22 This book explores the epiclesis or invocation of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharistic Prayer using the Anglican tradition as an historical model of a communion of churches in conscious theological and liturgical dialogue with Christian antiquity Incorporating major studies of England North America and the Indian sub Continent the author includes an exposition of Inter Church ecumenical dialogue and the historic divisions between western and eastern Eucharistic traditions and twentieth century ecumenical endeavour This unique study of the relationship between theology and liturgical text commends a theology and spirituality which celebrates the presence of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist as present and eschatological gift It thus sets historic contemporary and ecumenical divisions in a new theological context Peter Akinola: Who Blinks First? Gbenga Gbesan, 2020-03-30 To the astonishment and dismay of Anglican leadership in the Global North Nigeria's Archbishop Peter Akinola led the Global South's revolt against the campaign to normalize homosexuality within the global Anglican communion For this he was twice recognized by Time magazine as one of the 100 Most Influential People on earth As shepherd of an immense Nigerian flock he joined arms with like minded archbishops in Africa Asia and South America to insist that the church be guided by the Bible rather than culture Here is the remarkable story of this conflict from its social beginnings in nineteenth century Germany through the renegade behavior of national churches in Canada the United States and the United Kingdom on to gatherings addressing the issues from Dromantine Northern Ireland to Kuala Lumpur Malaysia At one point Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams who had been enabling the progressives challenged Archbishop Akinola We shall see who blinks first Since that day it is clear that neither Akinola nor his colleagues have blinked Indeed through the formation of GAFCON Global Anglican Future Conference and union with biblically faithful Anglicans in the Global North they are pressing their cause with an eye toward the next decennial assembly of bishops at Lambeth Sing a New Song Julie H.

Ferguson,2006-04-01 For the first time Sing a New Song tells the stories of four Canadian bishops who pushed the envelope and changed the world All have faced severe opposition one was involved in the only Anglican schism in Canadian history two jeopardized their careers and one was voted the sixth most important person of the twentieth century whose world view has transformed the wider society Over the last 150 years George Hills David Somerville Douglas Hambidge and Michael Ingham adopted unpopular causes with their eyes wide open They were the men who fought for and won rights for aboriginals women and gays and lesbians In finely drawn and thoroughly researched biographies Julie H Ferguson weaves the bishops impact on society into Canada s history while delivering compelling insights into their personal and spiritual lives Meet this quartet of sharply contrasting and fearless bishops in Sing a New Song The Strange Demise of British Canada C. Scottish Gods Bruce Steve Bruce,2018-09-17 Steve Bruce here presents a highly readable account of the changing nature and place of religion in Scotland in an increasingly irreligious society In 1900 Scotland was a largely Presbyterian country and the Christian churches were a major social force Now less than 10 per cent of Scots attend church As religion has declined it has become more varied Catholicism has grown as have Charismatic Christian fellowships Buddhist and Hindu themes have easternised our religious vocabulary a significant Muslim population has become established and a notable number of Scots now pursue personal spiritual interests in forms which would once have been dismissed as pagan Both this decline and the diversification deserve explanation The Protestant Catholic divide has faded but Scots have new controversies over the proper public place of religion in the light of growing secularization and diversification The growth of individual liberty and increasing cultural diversity combine to weaken all shared beliefs by changing religion from a social matter into a private personal concern All religious groups are faced with the choice of either accommodating that trend and losing their distinctiveness or resisting it and making membership too costly for most potential adherents This radical remapping of Scotland s religious character is a fascinating summary of a remarkable career of research and analysis by one of Scotland s leading social historians Topics include Lewis Orkney and Shetland compared the integration of the Irish the growth and decline of the Catholic Church Scotland Orange and Protestant the Post War Kirk factionalism in the conservative Presbyterian churches the failure of the charismatic movement in Scotland Samye Ling and Buddhism Findhorn and New Age spirituality Scots Muslims and arguments over the ordination of women and gay rights
