Long View:

The Long View Richard Fisher, 2023-03-30 A wide ranging and thought provoking exploration of the importance of long term thinking Humans are unique in our ability to understand time able to comprehend the past and future like no other species Yet modern day technology and capitalism have supercharged our short termist tendencies and trapped us in the present at the mercy of reactive politics quarterly business targets and 24 hour news cycles It wasn't always so In medieval times craftsmen worked on cathedrals that would be unfinished in their lifetime Indigenous leaders fostered intergenerational reciprocity And in the early twentieth century writers dreamed of worlds thousands of years hence Now as we face long term challenges on an unprecedented scale how do we recapture that far sighted vision Richard Fisher takes us from the boardrooms of Japan home to some of the world's oldest businesses to European laboratories where scientists work as custodians on centuries long experiments He examines the psychological biases that discourage the long view and talks to the growing number of people from the worlds of philosophy technology science and the arts who are exploring smart ways to overcome them How can we learn to widen our perception of time and honour our obligations to the lives of those not yet born were nearly exhausted The once lush pine and oak forests of the Mississippi Delta had been stripped clean and converted into farmland Now his Long Bell Lumber Company was at a crossroads The timber baron put the question to a vote by his board of directors disband or build the world s largest lumber mill somewhere else This group of middle aged men looked upon R A Long as a father figure and a proverbial King Midas able to turn wood into gold Their decision was easy they wholeheartedly endorsed the plan to build And their vision became the Longview story combining social engineering modern marketing and a whole lot of money into a 20th century urban success story The Ports of Astoria, Oreg., Longview and Vancouver, Wash United States.
