citizens and one American reporter rebuild their lives in the aftermath of Japan's WWII surrender. The Independent Japan 1945. The country has just surrendered to the Allied forces after suffering the devastation of nuclear warfare. Satsuko Takara and her teenage brother Hiroshi have lost both their parents and each other during the firestorm that devastated Tokyo five months before. Documenting the destruction of the war is Hal Lynch, a haunted US photojournalist who stumbles upon a shocking story and is determined to bring it to light. And Osamu Maruki, a dissolute writer and once Satsuko's lover, has returned from the South Pacific a broken and changed man. The war-torn streets of Tokyo come alive in this dazzlingly observed debut novel as the lives of these former enemies come together. Fire Flowers powerfully portrays the shock, the struggles, and the difficult choices that arise from the destruction of war. An impressive and nuanced account of a dark moment in history. The Independent. Climbing the Vines in Burgundy Alex Gambal, 2023-08-29. Named one of the New York Times Best Wine Books of 2023. Named one of the Washington Post's Best Wine Books of 2023. This is a unique tale about the first non-Frenchman to ever own one of the Montrachet Grand Cru vineyards in Burgundy, France. Weaved throughout are entertaining stories that celebrate the history of this world-renowned region. It is the chronicle of an American breaking through cultural barriers to find adventure and success. After a rather conventional start, Alex Gambal left his family's real estate and parking business to follow his passion for wine and winemaking. In 1993, he moved to Beaune, France, with his wife and two children. For three years, he worked with an exporter to market and sell some of the oldest French family-owned domains in the world. He and his family were welcomed into a community of distinguished winemakers. In 1997, Alex launched a boutique winery, initially buying grapes and eventually owning 30 acres of vineyards that included the storied Grand Cru Batard-Montrachet. Part memoir and part an account of practical business sense, this book is a unique personal story about how an American became a participant in the fabric of this exclusive community and, in return, gained a profound respect for Burgundy, its unique winemakers, and the romance of its vineyards. Caitlin Ober, an American English instructor in Japan, tries to deal with the loss of her childhood best friend Mei fifteen years earlier while developing a friendship with fourteen-year-old Naomi.
