Looking Together At Students Work A Companion Guide To Assessing Student Learning:

Looking Together at Student Work Tina Blythe, David Allen, Barbara Schieffelin Powell, 1999 The authors have created a practical guide to provide teachers with strategies and resources for working together to examine and discuss student work such as science projects essays art work math problems and more Written for teachers administrators curriculum coordinators staff developers and researchers this book offers a clear process for starting and sustaining collaborative discussions of student work and student learning detailed descriptions of two kinds of structured conversations the Tuning Protocol and the Collaborative Assessment Conference that guide discussion of student work and real examples from schools that have developed their own ways of looking collaboratively at student work Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise Giselle O. Martin-Kniep, 2003-10-14 No book I have read in the past ten years has made clearer to me the difference between what I am doing as a professional developer and what I should be doing It is so unrelentingly honest about the difficulty of our work and yet so rich in practical examples that I cannot help but feel inspired to move forward and change the way I teach and learn with teachers Richard W Strong Vice President Silver Strong however this book is concise provides excellent templates and is backed by real experiences and expertise Suzanne C Fonoti Principal Flagstaff Arizona Unified School District Forget expensive consultants use the expertise within your own school for quality professional development Martin Kniep offers practical methods for developing a reflective collaborative environment where teachers and administrators work together to enhance teachers practices increase student learning and produce valuable school processes Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise includes frameworks templates and examples that can be employed to determine the value and implications surrounding the use of teacher designed standards based curriculum and assessment data driven inquiry and professional portfolios Based on work completed at the nonprofit Center for the Study of Expertise in Teaching and Learning this innovative volume includes Examples of teachers reflections portfolio artifacts and student work Sample standards based curriculum units for different content areas and grade levels Discussion questions and recommended readings Sample worksheets and self assessments Standards based curriculum and assessment design tools Sample rubrics for student and teacher development Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise offers step by step instructions for developing an action plan for incorporating learning communities into a school Providing numerous real life examples Martin Kniep includes three specific teaching units and supporting material which illustrate how to identify and capitalize on teachers existing expertise Guiding School Change Frances O'Connell Rust, Helen Freidus, 2001 Drawn from the real life and work of practitioners committed to change this narrative sheds light on the role and work of change agents A New Teacher's Guide to Best Practices Yvonne S. Gentzler, 2015-09-22 New teachers begin their careers with great enthusiasm and purpose but often face many challenges in their first years of teaching A New Teacher's Guide to Best Practices supports new teachers with guidelines for applying best teaching practices to improve their professional effectiveness Organized around the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium INTASC standards this reflective workbook is full of best practice tools and strategies Each chapter focuses on a different teaching challenge practical problems that teachers face daily and offers research based solutions along with teacher tips and student perspectives from across the country An invaluable resource for new teachers to use at their own pace or for staff developers presenting teacher induction workshops this richly detailed text invites new teachers to Record their present beliefs Outline their aspirations Define their goals and objectives Set a course of action to reach those goals and objectives Enter into dialogue with colleagues and mentors for continued professional growth Through planning self reflection and dialogue new teachers can enrich their teaching experience expand their personal and professional goals for success and shape the way they view their practice and profession

Teachers Caught in the Action Ann Lieberman, Lynne Miller, 2001-04-27 Because what we do in staff development can best be understood in terms of Contexts Strategies and Structures the remainder of the book features distinguished educators who write from their own unique experiential and theoretical stances Jacqueline Ancess describes how teachers in New York City secondary schools increase their own learning while improving student outcomes Milbrey W McLaughlin and Joel Zarrow demonstrate how teachers learn to use data to improve their practice and meet educational standards Lynne Miller presents a case study of a long lived school university partnership Beverly Falk recounts stories of teachers working together to develop performance assessments to understand their student s learning to re think their curriculum and much more Laura Stokes analyzes a school that successfully uses inquiry groups There are further contributions including some from novice teachers by Anna Richert Ershler Ann Lieberman Diane Wood Sarah Warshauer Freedman and Joseph P McDonald These powerful exemplars from practice provide a much needed overview of what matters and what really works in professional development today

Standards of Mind and Heart Peggy Clohessy Silva, Robert A. Mackin, 2002-04-05 This is the remarkable story of the creation of a new kind of high school that truly aspires to educate all students to high standards Believing that a deeply personalized culture can prevent the senseless violence that has invaded many public schools educators at Souhegan High School in Amherst New Hampshire set out to create a safe caring and academically rigorous school In this volume Silva a teacher and Mackin a principal chronicle their experiences as they worked through the many challenges that ultimately resulted in this extraordinarily successful school Featuring their honest reflections and the voices of other participants this book Portrays a real public high school not a small alternative school that is successfully implementing most of the reform practices recommended by national reform models Demonstrates how schools can strike a balance between the need for stricter safety measures and the social and emotional needs of each student thus avoiding violent outbursts in schools Details the school s structure curriculum professional culture and systems of accountability for all students in a heterogeneous inclusionary setting Describes the use of teaming advisory groups exhibitions and senior projects Provides a working model of the Breaking Ranks recommendations including the importance of personalization and democracy in education

Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons, 2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it is necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning In its opening pages two seasoned educators Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention Thoreau's wide awakeness an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves their work particularly in the form of life projects and others Building on this foundation the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors Definitional issues concerning reflection what it is and is not Worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education Reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K 12 education teacher education occupational therapy and the law Methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement Current pedagogical and research practices in reflection Approaches to assessing reflective inquiry Educators across the professions as well as adult educators counselors and psychologists and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times

The Teaching Career John Goodlad, Timothy McMannon, 2014-04-15 Featuring a group of expert contributors this book details the complexities of not only preparing teachers for the classroom but also helping them to succeed in the profession itself Addressing topics of vital importance to new and veteran teachers this authoritative volume Explains how to build a strong sense of self to help teachers weather the inevitable storms they face in the field such as state mandates district directives and parental pressures Investigates highly regarded programs for new teachers analyzing orientations seminars and mentorship programs Discusses how to bring together stakeholders to renew teacher preparation induction and professional development Addresses the crucial role of teacher unions and how they are helping to make teaching a more attractive career And much much more Contributors Richard E Barnes Sheldon Berman Sharon Feiman Nemser Thomas Gillett John I Goodlad Paul E Heckman Daniel Katz Corinne Mantle Bromley Nancy Jean Sahling Roger Soder Adam Urbanski Patricia A Wasley Betty Lou Whitford Richard Wisniewski These thoughtful and provocative essays contribute to our understanding of ways to renew and sustain good teaching Anyone interested in matters of teacher induction professional development college school partnerships and the role of higher education in teacher development will find these essays a necessary read David G Imig President and CEO American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education John Goodlad and Timothy McMannon have captured many of the issues state board members are grappling with as they pursue the goal to have a highly qualified teacher in every classroom every day As states track and modify policies on program approval licensure recruitment and retention this work will help to inform their deliberations Brenda Welburn Executive Director National Association of State Boards of Education Failing at School Camille A.

Farrington,2014-02-14 About half of all incoming ninth graders in urban districts will fail classes and drop out of school without a diploma Failing at School starts with the premise that urban American high schools generate such widespread student failure not because of some fault of the students who attend them but because high schools were designed to stratify achievement and let only the top performers advance to higher levels of education This is particularly true for low income racial ethnic minority students To get different results Farrington proposes fundamental changes based on what we now know about how students learn what motivates them to engage in learning and what kinds of educational systems and structures would best support their learning The Comprehensive High School Today Floyd M. Hammack,2004 Hammack has gathered a distinguished group to assess current reform efforts in their sociological and historical context taking into account the vision of James B Conant the major proponent of the comprehensive high schools Contributors are Mary Erina Driscoll Joseph P McDonald Jeannie Oakes John L Rury Roger Shouse Amy Suart Wells
