Italian American Women, Food, and Identity Andrea L. Dottolo, Carol

Dottolo, 2018-03-02 This book is about Italian American women food identity and our stories at the table This mother daughter research team explores how Italian American working class women from Syracuse New York use food as a symbol and vehicle which carries multiple meanings In these narratives food represents home loss and longing Food also stands in for race class gender sexuality immigration region place and space The authors highlight how food is about family and tradition as well as choice and change These women's narratives reveal that food is related to celebration love power and shame As this study centers on the intergenerational transmission of culture the authors' relationship mirrors these questions as they contend with their similar and disparate experiences and relationships with Italian American identity and food The
