Max Dupains Australian Landscapes:

Max Dupain's Australian Landscapes Max Dupain,1988      The Architecture of Landscape, 1940-1960 Marc Treib,2002-10 The Architecture of Landscape 1940 1960 provides a groundbreaking collection of worldwide perspectives on a vital and underappreciated era of landscape architecture It is also the first critical assessment of this period with information and insight previously unavailable to English language readers      Landscapes of Culture and Nature R. Giblett,2009-09-29 A bold and exciting exploration of the relationship and interactions between humans the human landscape and the earth looking at a diverse range of case studies from the nineteenth century city to the Asian tsunami and Hurricane Katrina      Useless Beauty Ann Elias,2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects such as surreal flowers Aboriginal flowers and war flowers Whether modern or conservative the artists in this study shared an intellectual and emotional passion for flora This was true for men as well as women despite blossoms being a more traditionally feminine subject Through spectacular reproductions of historical and contemporary artworks drawn from collections in Australia the United States Britain and New Zealand Useless Beauty explores how flowers influenced the psyche governed rituals defined identity and brought a psychological dimension to the everyday The peak years for flower centrality in Australian art were between 1920 and 1940 when flowers were known as the apotheosis of useless beauty      Max Dupain's Australia Max Dupain,1986      Dupain's Beaches Max Dupain,2000 Max Dupain who took Australia s most famous photograph Sunbaker loved the beach This collection of Dupain s photographs is by his own admission among his best work In it we see Dupain s fascination with shadows with sand patterns with the arcs of seascape and above all with the people who indulged themselves on Australia s urban and country beaches over a period of sixty years These images demonstrate how vital a part the beach plays in the Australian consciousness Jill White as custodian of Dupain s personal exhibition archive offers us here the opportunity to share his vision of the beach as a place of relaxation and renewal b w photographs      Who's who of Australian Writers ,1991 A comprehensive listing of 5200 living Australian authors covering all fiction and non fiction genres For each writer a complete list of books plays and radio television and film scripts is included along with the names of periodicals in which their work has appeared Among other items covered are pseudonyms employment history awards contact details and availability for various activities An index lists writers by over 100 subject categories      Australia's Wild Places Roger McDonald,2009 Drawing on the extensive collection of the National Library of Australia this book highlights the fingerprints humans have left on the landscape through the lenses of Australia's greatest photographers Roger McDonald has written an insightful introductory essay as well as extended captions describing his response Australian and New Zealand Journal of Art, 2001 Australian Book Review, 2003 The New McCulloch's Encyclopedia of Australian Art Alan McCulloch, Susan McCulloch, Emily McCulloch Childs, 2006 Widely regarded as the authoritative reference on Australian art with its extensive colour plates and 4500 entries Fully illustrated with more than 700 images on 1200 pages Entries include Aboriginal art Abstractionism art links sculptors photographers craft workers and printmakers and much more A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, Camouflage Australia Ann Elias, 2018-08-30 Camouflage Australia provides international context for the historical circumstances and events of the organisation of camouflage in World War II in Australia and the Pacific region She elaborates on the parallel involvement of British and American artists in the field of concealment and deception and reveals the widespread interest shown by western naturalists and scientists in the application to warfare of the behaviours and aesthetics of animals Photography and Australia Helen Ennis, 2007 Photography and Australia focuses on those aspects of photographic practice that can be considered distinctively Australian It argues that the colonial experience has been crucial in shaping photographers concerns Understanding Racism in a Post-Racial World Sunshine Kamaloni, 2019-02-27 This book addresses the question how can we talk about race in a world that is considered post racial a world where race doesn't exist Kamaloni engages with the tradition of everyday racism and traces the process of racialisation through the interaction of bodies in space Exploring the embodied experience exposes the idea of post racialism as a response to continued cultural anxieties about race and the desire to erase it Understanding Racism in a Post Racial World presents a broader question about what everyday encounters about race might tell us about the current cultural construction of race The book provides a much needed investigation of the intersection of race bodies and space as a critical part of how bodies and spaces become racialised and will be of value to students and scholars interested in understanding and discussing race across interdisciplinary areas such as cultural studies communication gender studies geography body studies literature studies and urban studies

Douglas Snelling Davina Jackson,2016-12-01 Douglas Burrage Snelling 1916-85 was one of Britain's significant emigré architects and designers Born in Kent and educated in New Zealand he became one of Australia's leading mid-century architects of luxury residences and commercial buildings and a trend-setting designer of furniture interiors and landscapes This is the first comprehensive study of Snelling's pan-Pacific life works and trans-disciplinary significance It provides a critical examination of this controversial modernist revealing him to be a colourful and talented protagonist who led antipodean interpretations of American especially Wrightian and southern Californian architecture design and lifestyle innovations

The Politics of Furniture Freddie Floré, Cammie McAtee, 2017-02-10 In many different parts of the world modern furniture elements have served as material expressions of power in the post-war era They were often meant to express an international and in some respects apolitical modern language but when placed in a sensitive setting or a meaningful architectural context they were highly capable of negotiating or manipulating ideological messages The agency of modern furniture was often less overt than that of political slogans or statements but as the chapters in this book reveal it had the potential of becoming a persuasive and malleable ally in very diverse politically charged arenas including embassies governmental ministries showrooms exhibitions design schools libraries museums and even prisons This collection of chapters examines the consolidating as well as the disrupting force of modern furniture in the global context between 1945 and the mid-1970s The volume shows that key to understanding this phenomenon is the study of the national as well as transnational systems through which it was launched promoted and received While some chapters squarely focus on individual furniture elements as vehicles communicating political and social meaning others consider the role of furniture within potent sites that demand careful negotiation whether between governments cultures or buyer and seller In doing so the book explicitly engages different scholarly fields design history history of interior architecture architectural history cultural history diplomatic and political history postcolonial studies tourism studies material culture studies furniture history and heritage and preservation studies Taken together the narratives and case studies compiled in this volume offer a better understanding of the political agency of post-war modern furniture in its original historical context At the same time they will enrich current debates on reuse relocation or reproduction of some of these elements

Values in Cities James Lesh, 2022-09-23 Examining urban heritage in twentieth-century Australia James Lesh reveals how evolving ideas of value and significance shaped cities and places Over decades a growing number of sites and areas were found to be valuable by communities and professionals Places perceived to have value were often conserved Places perceived to lack value became subject to modernisation redevelopment and renewal From the 1970s alongside strengthened activism and legislation with the innovative Burra Charter 1979 the values based model emerged for managing the aesthetic historic scientific and social significance of historic environments Values thus transitioned from an implicit to an overt component of urban architectural and planning conservation The field of conservation became a noted profession and discipline Conservation also had a broader role in celebrating the Australian nation and in reconciling settler colonialism for the twentieth century Integrating urban history and heritage studies this book provides the first longitudinal study of the twentieth century Australian heritage movement It advocates for innovative and reflexive modes of heritage practice responsive to urban social and environmental imperatives As the values based model continues to shape conservation worldwide this book is an essential reference for researchers students and practitioners concerned with the past and future of cities and heritage The Foreword and Chapter 1 Introduction of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Quarantined Culture John Frank Williams, 1995 This engaging work discusses the impact of the First World War on Australian attitudes to modernist art
