The Caste War of Yucatán Nelson A. Reed,2001 This is the classic account of one of the most dramatic episodes in Mexican history the revolt of the Maya Indians of Yucatán against their white and mestizo oppressors that began in 1847 Within a year the Maya rebels had almost succeeded in driving their oppressors from the peninsula by 1855 when the major battles ended the war had killed or put to flight almost half of the population of Yucatán A new religion built around a Speaking Cross supported their independence for over fifty years and that religion survived the eventual Maya defeat and continues today This revised edition is based on further research in the archives and in the field and draws on the research by a new generation of scholars who have labored since the book's original publication 36 years ago One of the most significant results of this research is that it has put a human face on much that had heretofore been treated as semi mythical Reviews of the First Edition Reed has not only written a fine account of the caste war he has also given us the first penetrating analysis of the social and economic systems of Yucatán in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries American Historical Review In this beautifully written history of a little known struggle between several contending forces in Yucatán Reed has added an important dimension to anthropological studies in this area American Anthropologist Not only is this exciting history as compelling and dramatic as the best of historical fiction but it covers events unaccountably neglected by historians This is a brilliant contribution to history Don't miss this book Los Angeles Times One of the most remarkable books about Latin America to appear in years Hispanic American Report

Negotiating Identities in Modern Latin America Hendrik Kraay,2007 An interdisciplinary collection of essays addressing such diverse topics as the history of Brazilian football and the concept of masculinity in the Mexican army It provides insights into questions of identity in 19th and 20th century Latin America It analyses a variety of identity bearing groups from small scale communities to nations

Mayan People Within and Beyond Boundaries Peter Hervik,2013-12-02 Mayan People Within and Beyond Boundaries explores the Maya of Yucatan the Maya of academic institutions and the Maya of the tourist industry It examines the interplay between the local and the external academic categories of the Maya and seeks to transcend the paradoxical and incongruent relationship between the social spaces that breathe life into the categories The notion of shared social experience is introduced to embody a focus on reflexivity that goes beyond the subjective position of the author and helps demystify the coexisting subjectivities characteristic of ethnographic fieldwork It provides a basis for overcoming the exclusive focus on author text and discourse in contemporary postmodernist ethnography while still conveying important ethnographic information
