Comparative Theories of Nonduality Milton Scarborough, 2011-10-20 It is a commonplace that while Asia is nondualistic the West because of its uncritical reliance on Greek derived intellectual standards is dualistic Dualism is a deep seated habit of thinking and acting in all spheres of life through the prism of binary opposites leads to paralyzing practical and theoretical difficulties Asia can provide no assistance for the foreseeable future because the West finds Asian nondualism especially that of Mahayana Buddhism too alien and nihilistic On the other hand postmodern thought which purports to deliver us from the dualisms embedded in modernity turns out to be merely a pseudo postmodernism This book's novel idea is that the West already contains within one of its more marginalized roots that of ancient Hebrew culture a pre philosophical form of nondualism which makes possible a new form of nondualism one to which the West can subscribe This new nondualism inspired by Buddhism but not identical to it is an epistemological ontological metaphysical and praxical middle way both for the West and also between East and West The Mystic Way in Postmodernity Sue Yore, 2009 This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression God, Morality, and Beauty Randall B. Bush, 2019-07-01 Randall B Bush analyzes the ways unacknowledged axiological assumptions e g about what is important why human beings are valuing creatures and where the capacity to value comes from prejudice the perspectives and approaches of various academic disciplines especially in the social sciences and the humanities The disciplines of ethics and aesthetics provide the most useful tools for a philosophy of value but academic overspecialization has compartmentalized and segregated these disciplines from others threatening to unravel the unity of conceptions of the moral and the beautiful in human existence Bush argues that a dialectical approach to conflicts between ethics and aesthetics can point to a broader axiological vision informed by a Trinitarian conception of reality in which the whole a coherent theory of value is more than the sum of its parts

Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Jorge N. Ferrer, 2001-10-19 In his striking debut Jorge N Ferrer deconstructs and reconstructs the entire transpersonal project articulating a more sophisticated pluralistic and spiritually grounded transpersonal theory He brings recent ideas in epistemology and the philosophy of science to bear upon core issues in the psychology and philosophy of religion The book's first half Deconstruction describes the nature and origins of the prevailing vision that has guided transpersonal scholarship so far and identifies some of its main conceptual and practical limitations subtle Cartesianism spiritual narcissism intrasubjective empiricism and reductionistic universalism In the second half of the book Reconstruction Ferrer suggests a way of reconceiving transpersonal ideas without these limitations a participatory vision of human spirituality one which not only places transpersonal studies in greater alignment with the values of the spiritual quest but also discloses a rich variety of spiritual liberations spiritual worlds and even ultimate realities

Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology

The Theology of John Wesley Prof. Kenneth J. Collins, 2011-07-01 A rich articulation of John Wesley's theology that is appreciative of the old and mindful of the new faithful to the past and attentive to the present This work carefully displays John Wesley's eighteenth century theology in its own distinct historical and social location but then transitions to the twenty first century through the introduction of contemporary issues So conceived the book is both historical and constructive demonstrating that the theology of Wesley represents a vibrant tradition Cognizant of Wesley's own preferred vocabulary Collins introduces Wesley's theological method beginning with a discussion of the doctrine of God In this insightful exposition the leitmotif of holy love arises out of Wesley's reflection on the nature of the divine being as well as other major doctrines Douglas Meeks

American Journal of Theology & Philosophy, 1990

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction

Bovell, 2012-02-20 The notion that the Bible is inerrant in everything it teaches is something those with conservative upbringings are conditioned to take for granted However after being exposed to scholarship in biblical studies and other disciplines some draw the unexpected conclusion that inerrancy as a doctrine is in dire need of serious revamping Unfortunately inerrantist politics and culture are making the constructive restorative process impossible to initiate In Rehabilitating Inerrancy in a Culture of Fear Carlos Bovell offers a synoptic overview of the issues to be addressed if inerrancy is to survive as a viable bibliological option

Language and the Ineffable Louis S. Berger, 2011-01-20 One s conception of language is central in fields such as linguistics but less obviously so in fields studying matters other than language In Language and the Ineffable Louis S. Berger demonstrates the flaws of the received view of language and the difficulties they raise in multiple disciplines This breakthrough study sees past failures as inevitable since reformers retained key detrimental features of the received view Berger undertakes a new reform grounded in an unconventional model of individual human development A central radical and generative feature is the premise that the neonate s world is holistic boundary less unimaginable impossible to describe in other words ineffable completely distinct from what Berger calls adultocentrism The study is a wholly original approach to epistemology separate from the traditional interpretations offered by skepticism idealism and realism The work rejects both the independence of the world and the possibility of true judgment a startling shift in the traditional responses to the standard schema Language and the Ineffable evolves a unique conception of language that challenges and unsettles sacrosanct beliefs not only about language but other disciplines as well Berger demonstrates the framework s potential for elucidating a wide range of problems in such diverse fields as philosophy logic psychiatry general experimental psychology psychotherapy and arithmetic The reconceptualization marks a revolutionary turn in language studies that reaches across academic boundaries
