Christianized Eastern Europe and Scandinavia This new mission effort was stimulated by a variety of factors and facilitated by the establishment of the Mongol Empire and as the fourteenth century dawned missionaries entertained fervent but vain hopes of success within khanates in China Central Asia Persia and Kipchak The reports these missionaries sent back to Europe have fascinated successive generations of historians who analyzed their travels and struggled to understand their motives and aspirations The essays selected for this volume drawn from a range of twentieth century historians and contextualized in the introduction provide a comprehensive overview of missionary efforts in Asia and of the developments in the secular world that both made them possible and encouraged the missionaries hopes for success Three of the studies have been translated from French specially for publication in this volume      An Anthology of Medieval Latin Stephen Gaselee,1925      Reading Medieval Latin with the Legend of Barlaam and Josaphat Jacobus (de Voragine),Donka Markus,2018-07-09 An engaging textbook for intermediate students of Medieval Latin
