

The background is a detailed Renaissance-style painting. On the left, a standing figure, likely an angel or saint, wears a blue robe with a gold and red patterned mantle and a green sash. He holds a long staff and has a halo. On the right, a seated figure, possibly a woman, wears a red velvet robe over a dark blue dress. She is looking down at a book or manuscript on a table. The setting is an interior room with a large window in the background showing a landscape with a castle and a path. A red cushioned bench is visible behind the seated figure. In the bottom right foreground, there is a small vase with white flowers.

Philosophy for Non-Philosophers Louis Althusser, 2017-02-23 In 1980 at the end of the most intensely political period of his work and life Louis Althusser penned Philosophy for Non philosophers Available here for the first time in English Philosophy for Non philosophers constitutes a rigorous and engaged attempt to address a wide reading public unfamiliar with Althusser's project As such the work is a concentration of the most fundamental theses of Althusser's own ideas and presents a synthesis of his sprawling and disparate philosophical and political writings Nowhere else does Althusser push the distinction between philosophy and other disciplines as far or develop in such detail the concept of practice Rather than a work of popular philosophy Philosophy for Non philosophers is a continuation and conglomeration of Althusser's thought a thought whose radicality is still perceptible in those that have followed since Philosophy for Non philosophers thus provides a vivid encapsulation of Althusser's seminal influence on the leading thinkers of today including Ranciere Badiou Balibar and Žižek
