A Critical Rationalist Aesthetics Joseph Agassi, Ian Charles Jarvie, 2008 This book is a first attempt to cover the whole area of aesthetics from the point of view of critical rationalism It takes up and expands upon the more narrowly focused work of E H Gombrich Sheldon Richmond and Raphael Sassower and Louis Ciccotello The authors integrate the arts into the scientific world view and acknowledge that there is an aesthetic aspect to anything whatsoever They pay close attention to the social situatedness of the arts Their aesthetics treats art as emerging from craft in the form of luxurious and playful challenge to the audience In developing it they place emphasis on the number of questions and claims that can be settled by appeal to empirical facts on the historical character of aesthetic judgements and on the connection of aesthetic truth to true love and true friendship i e fidelity and integrity not to informative truth Undoing the Visual Arts Since 1960 Adrian Lewis, 2025-10-06 This timely study critically assesses each of the various presuppositions that led to how we got to where we are today Contemporary art has replaced the notion of artistic medium with a semiotic model of communication treating art as text open in its reading The dumping of the notion of artistic medium cancels aesthetic depth and undermines even relative expressive determinacy Marcel Duchamp privileged the play of mind over the simply visual Minimalism and Pop Art set their faces against the place of personalised life experience and expressive formation in art making Andy Warhol's work threw up the so called institutional theory of art whatever the artworld calls art is art Art's academisation brought in entirely inappropriate models of knowledge creation and then art became issue based Art was curatorially patronised to fit a woke ideological agenda The incredible accord between institutional power artworld theorising the media and the art economy made contemporary art immune from criticism the undoing of visual art was complete The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics Jerrold Levinson, 2005-01-27 The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics has assembled 48 brand new essays making this a comprehensive guide available to the theory application history and future of the field Theories of Art Today Noël Carroll, 2000 What is art The contributors to Theories of Art Today address the assertion that the term art no longer holds meaning They explore a variety of issues including aesthetic and institutional theories of art feminist perspectives on the philosophy of art the question of whether art is a cluster concept and the relevance of tribal art to philosophical aesthetics Contributors to this book include such distinguished philosophers and historians as Arthur Danto Joseph Margolis and George Dickie Art Jonathan Vickery, Diarmuid Costello, 2007-01-01 The last few decades have witnessed an explosion in ideas and theories on art Art itself has never been so topical but much recent thinking remains inaccessible and difficult to use This book assesses the work of those thinkers including artists who have had a major impact on making criticizing and interpreting art since the 1960s With entries by leading international experts this book presents a concise critical appraisal of thinkers and their ideas about art and its place in the wider cultural context A guide to the key thinkers who shape today's

Antithetical Arts Peter Kivy, 2011-03-03 Antithetical Arts constitutes a defence of musical formalism against those who would put literary interpretations on the absolute music canon In Part I the historical origins of both the literary interpretation of absolute music and musical formalism are laid out In Part II specific attempts to put literary interpretations on various works of the absolute music canon are examined and criticized Finally in Part III the question is raised as to what the human significance of absolute music is if it does not lie in its representational or narrative content The answer is that as yet philosophy has no answer and that the question should be considered an important one for philosophers of art to consider and to try to answer without appeal to representational or narrative content

Cinema Alain Badiou, 2013-09-25 For Alain Badiou films think and it is the task of the philosopher to transcribe that thinking What is the subject to which the film gives expressive form This is the question that lies at the heart of Badiou s account of cinema He contends that cinema is an art form that bears witness to the Other and renders human presence visible thus testifying to the universal value of human existence and human freedom Through the experience of viewing the movement of thought that constitutes the film is passed on to the viewer who thereby encounters an aspect of the world and its exaltation and vitality as well as its difficulty and complexity Cinema is an impure art cannibalizing its times the other arts and people a major art precisely because it is the locus of the indiscernibility between art and non art It is this argues Badiou that makes cinema the social and political art par excellence the best indicator of our civilization in the way that Greek tragedy the coming of age novel and the operetta were in their respective eras
