The Complete Poetry César Vallejo, 2007-01-08 This first translation of the complete poetry of Peruvian César Vallejo 1892 1938 makes available to English speakers one of the greatest achievements of twentieth century world poetry Handsomely presented in facing page Spanish and English this volume translated by National Book Award winner Clayton Eshleman includes the groundbreaking collections The Black Heralds 1918 Trilce 1922 Human Poems 1939 and Spain Take This Cup from Me 1939 Vallejo's poetry takes the Spanish language to an unprecedented level of emotional rawness and stretches its grammatical possibilities Striking against theology with the very rhetoric of the Christian faith Vallejo's is a tragic vision perhaps the only one in the canon of Spanish language literature in which salvation and sin are one and the same This edition includes notes on the translation and a fascinating translation memoir that traces Eshleman's long relationship with Vallejo's poetry An introduction and chronology provide further insights into Vallejo's life and work

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
