solidarities from Third World struggles against colonialism to the global influence of the American civil rights movement Indeed this volume shows that Asian writers disclaim national belonging as often as they claim it placing Asian diasporic writers at a critical distance from the national spaces within which they write As the first full length study to compare Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writers the book offers the historical and cultural contexts necessary to understand the distinctive development of Asian writing in each country while also offering close analysis of the work of writers such as Janice Mirikitani Fred Wah Ouyang Yu Myung Mi Kim and Cathy Park Hong Missional Life in Practice and Theory Christopher L. Flanders, Greg McKinzie, 2024-01-19 Few missiologists have impacted mission theory and practice among Churches of Christ as significantly as has Dr Gailyn Van Rheenen yet his global missiological influence has extended far beyond the boundaries of his denominational heritage This Festschrift in honor of Gailyn Van Rheenen contains original missiological contributions from colleagues and former students Most chapters were presentations at the inaugural Gailyn Van Rheenen Sessions in Mission and World Christianity at the 2021 Christian Scholars Conference in Nashville Tennessee The volume is organized to parallel the phases of Van Rheenen's career Africa academic missiology and Mission Alive a North American church planting organization His legacy is one that wonderfully embodies critical theory and robust practice be Free and French Lorelle Semley, 2017-07-20 An ambitious new vision of French citizenship from the perspective of Africans and Antilleans living in the colonies and mainland France Lorelle Semley explores the ways in which these colonial subjects used French democratic ideals to demand rights and redefine the meanings of freedom and Frenchness Youth Language Practices in Africa and Beyond Nico Nassenstein, Andrea Hollington, 2015-09-14 Youth languages have increasingly attracted the attention of scholars and students of various disciplines African youth languages are a vibrant phenomenon with manifold characteristics involving a range of different languages. Pease, 2015-12-22 This wide ranging collection brings together an eclectic group of scholars to reflect upon the transnational configurations of the field of American studies and how these have affected its localizations epistemological perspectives ecological imaginaries and politics of translation The volume elaborates on the causes of the transnational paradigm shift in American studies and describes the material changes that this new paradigm has effected during the past two decades The contributors hail from a variety of postcolonial transoceanic hemispheric and post national positions and sensibilities enabling them to theorize a crossroads of cultures explanation of transnational American studies that moves beyond the multicultural studies model Offering a rich and rewarding mix of essays and case studies this Translation Revisited Mamadou Diawara, Elísio S. collection will satisfy a broad range of students and scholars Macamo, Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo, 2019-01-17 How realistic is it to expect translation to render the world intelligible in a context shaped by different historical trajectories and experiences Can we rely on human universals to translate through the unique and specific webs of meaning that languages represent If knowledge production is a kind of translation then it is fair to assume that the possibility of translation has largely rested on the idea that Western experience is the repository of these human universals against the background of which different human experiences can be rendered intelligible The problem with this assumption however is that there are limits to Western claims to universalism mainly because these claims were at the service of the desire to justify imperial expansion This book addresses issues arising from these claims to universalism in the process of producing knowledge about diverse African social realities It shows that the idea of knowledge production as translation can be usefully deployed to inquire into how knowledge of Africa translates into an imperial attempt at changing local norms institutions and spiritual values Translation in this sense is the normalization of meanings issuing from a local historical experience claiming to be universal The task of producing knowledge of African social realities cannot be adequately addressed without a prior critical engagement with how translation has come to shape our ways of rendering Africa intelligible Dismantling Diasporas Dr Elizabeth Mavroudi, Assoc Prof Anastasia Christou, 2015-04-28 Re energising debates on the conceptualisation of diasporas in migration scholarship and in geography this work stresses the important role that geographers can play in interrupting assumptions about the spaces and processes of diaspora The intricate material and complex ways in which those in diaspora contest construct and perform identity politics development and place is explored throughout this book This innovative volume tackles comparative multi sited and multi method research through compelling case studies in a variety of contexts spanning the Global North and South The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Music and Culture Janet Sturman, 2019-02-26 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Music and Culture presents key concepts in the study of music in its cultural context and provides an introduction to the discipline of ethnomusicology its methods concerns and its contributions to knowledge and understanding of the world's musical cultures styles and practices The diverse voices of contributors to this encyclopedia confirm ethnomusicology s fundamental ethos of inclusion and respect for diversity Combined the multiplicity of topics and approaches are presented in an easy to search A Z format and offer a
