Practice Of Presence Shorter Writings Of Harry Sawyerr:

The Practice of Presence Harry Sawyerr, 1996 The most important shorter writings of Harry Sawyerr until now generally not available to scholars are collected in this volume together with an introductory essay by Andrew Walls on the significance of Sawyerr's life and work Selected by Harry Sawyerr himself before his death in 1987 these seminal papers are representative of Sawyerr's enormous contribution to the study of African religions and theology. The first group of essays deals with the study of West African religions and covers such topics as the numinous in nature the self and spiritual beings the religious interpretation of the abnormal ancestor worship and death the soul and healing The second group of essays deals with more theological issues Sawyerr's influential What Is African Theology is reprinted in full and also included are papers on the basis for doing theology soteriology and mission The Myriad Christ Terrence Merrigan, Jacques Haers, 2000 Papers gathered here are the fruit of an international congress held at the Faculty of Theology of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven 18 21 November 1997 Pref Anglican Theology Stephen Burns, 2024-06-30 It is now widely acknowledged that Anglicanism far from being centred on western contexts is a worldwide phenomenon with some of its liveliest corners located in the global south Yet the Anglican theology which is taught in institutions is still focused overwhelmingly on a handful of British and North American voices By exploring the work of eighteen tricontinential and marginalized Anglican theologians this book begins to correct widespread bias in Anglican theology towards Britain and North Atlantic contexts The chapters it gathers consider the methods concerns and contributions to Anglican thinkers from Africa Asia Pasifika South America and eastern European settings amongst minoritized migrants to North Atlantic countries Chapters include Esther Mombo on Jenny Te Paa Daniel Michael Jagessar on Mukti Barton and Keun Joo Christine Pae on Kwok Pui lan An Introduction to Third World Theologies John Parratt, 2004-06-10 The greatest change which has come about in Christian theology over the last generation has been the explosion of contextual theologies in different parts of the world This book provides an overview of the main trends and contributions to Christian thought of Third World theologies It sets out the common context of these theologies in their experience of colonialism and western missions and suggests that they have forged new ways of doing theology which are quite distinct from the theological traditions of the western world With key contributions from experts in their fields on Latin America India East Asia West and East Africa Southern Africa and the Caribbean this book situates Christian thought in the cultural and socio political contexts of their respective regions and demonstrates how Third World theologies are providing different perspectives on what it means to be a Christian in today s global world African Charismatics Johnson Asamoah-Gyadu, 2004-10-01 This volume examines Pentecostal charismatic renewal in an African context Ghanaian Pentecostalism in its modern charismatic form has become the most visible expression of renewal within indigenous Christianity The book first articulates the contribution of the older African initiated churches AICs to local Christianity arguing that in spite of a present decline the AICs have left an enduring theological imprint on indigenous Christian expression Furthermore it accounts for the rise of the new independent churches the charismatic ministries These have been proliferating across the West Africa sub region since the late 1970s In addition to this the book explores how the emphases of the new Ghanaian charismatics internationalism transformation prosperity healing and deliverance provide useful insights into the nature of modern African Pentecostal spirituality Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo, 2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8 29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus s invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus s expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts In Re imagining African Christologies Victor I Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non African Christian communities Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2020-02-21 There is a growing interest today in the context and history of Christian spirituality In this book a team of expert authors from the East and West present a full and fascinating picture of humanity s desire for the divine across the centuries Highlighting the contribution of significant figures through history authors explore the ways in which Christians from the earliest times onwards have sought to express and live out the deepest truth of their faith The Bible and the life of Jesus Christ are the starting point for the story The reader is then guided through the development of spirituality starting an exploration of the significance of the early church fathers and culminating in a survey of the explosion of expressions of Christian divinity across the world in the twentieth century Interspersed with boxed features that provide more detail on key individuals and groups and timelines that put events into their chronological contexts Christian Spirituality is an ideal overview for scholars and interested readers alike

Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient Byang Kato Aiah Dorkuh Foday-Khabenje, 2023-08-04 In resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there this in depth study of the legacy of Byang Kato Dr Foday Khabenje traces his extraordinary life from a boyhood immersed in African traditional religion to his conversion to Christianity as a young man his education in Nigeria and abroad his global leadership within the evangelical church his tragic untimely death and the long lasting impact of his prophetic voice In the realm of African theology Kato is often remembered for the oppositional stance he took towards many of his contemporaries arguing passionately for the dangers of universalism and syncretism and urging the church to place the Bible at the heart of African Christianity Foday Khabenje engages these debates while demonstrating that Kato's contributions to the African church cannot be reduced to polemics His biblical hermeneutics perspectives on African Christian identity and tireless work for the expansion of theological education in Africa are each explored and celebrated along with their implications for the contemporary church in Africa and beyond While nearly fifty years have passed since Kato's death his legacy is still as relevant as ever for a church facing the challenges of secularism and pluralism in the twenty first century In an age that seeks to de emphasize the uniqueness of Christ Kato's testimony of the radical transformation offered by authentic biblical The Cross-Cultural Process in Christian History Andrew F. Walls ,2015-02-26 Christianity is good news for us all Walls shows how the demographic transformation of the church has brought us to a new Ephesian moment The church is challenged as never before to become one global body with its many cultural and ethnic members contributing their gifts Former patterns of domination need to be superseded His seer's eyes probe beneath the surface to bring the readerinsights into Pentecostalism African traditional religion and the ironic ways in which the Western missionary movement often accomplished things both for good and for ill that its agents never dreamed of Pentecostal Exorcism Opoku Onyinah, 2019-05-21 Witchcraft and exorcism have long been dominant features of life in African cultures This unique book provides a thorough field research based description and analysis of a specifically Pentecostal Christian response to these phenomena within the Akan culture of Ghana Anthropological studies generally claim that the ultimate goal of exorcism is modernisation Using interdisciplinary studies with a theological focus the author takes a different view arguing that it is divinatory consultation or an inquiry into the sacred and the search for meaning that underlies the current deliverance ministry where the focus is to identify and break down the so called demonic forces by the power of God and to deliver people from their torment The deliverance ministry is one attempt to contextualise the gospel for African people However preoccupation with demonisation and exorcistic practices is found to bring Christianity into tension with the Akan culture family ties and other religions In order to develop a properly safeguarded ministry of exorcism in an African context the author examines contextualisation and suggests the integration into African Christianity of divinatory consultation which has strong resonances with the biblical concept of prayer Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines

Understanding World Christianity William R. Burrows, Mark R. Gornik, Janice A. McLean, This work introduces Walls s work and explores its wide ranging implications for the understanding of history mission the formative place of Africa in the Christian story and the cross cultural transmission of faith Discerning the Spirit(s) Amos Yong, 2019-03-08 Efforts to construct a Christian theology of religions have inevitably stumbled on the Christian scandal of particularity the historical Jesus of Nazareth What however if we began by focusing on the universal presence and activity of God in the world as symbolized by the Holy Spirit Yong develops just such a pneumatological approach to religions drawing by way of resource on the Pentecostal charismatic experience of the Spirit This book thus invites Pentecostals charismatics and other Christians to conceive of how a pneumatological approach to religions can invigorate the wider ecumenical conversation At the same time it also brings recent Pentecostal charismatic scholarship into dialogue with a broader audience including those interested in philosophical theology world religions global spiritualities and comparative religion and theology The Story of Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell,2001 Beautifully illustrated throughout The Story of Christian Spirituality is a readable and vivid guide to the spiritual riches of one of the world's most influential religions The Living Church, 1996-07

The Missiological Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-11-10 The field of the theology of mission has developed variously across Christian traditions in the last century Pentecostal scholars and missiologists also have made their share of contributions to this area This book brings the insights of pentecostal theologian Amos Yong to the discussion It delineates the major features of what will be argued as central to a viable vision and praxis for Christian mission in a postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western and postcolonial world What emerges will be a distinctively pentecostally and evangelically informed missiological theology one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of Incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses and realities The argument unfolds through dialogical engagements with the work of others concrete case studies and systematic theological reflection Yong s pneumatological and missiological imagination proffers a model for Christian theology of mission suitable for the twenty first century global and pluralistic context even as it exemplifies how a missiological understanding of theology itself unfolds amidst engagements with contemporary ecclesial practices and academic theological impulses Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Reinventing Christianity John Parratt, 1995 Follownig an introduction that charts the growth and development of African theology Parratt examines the differing theological assumptions and methodologies throughout the continent He also shows how Africans are rethinking the central dogmas of the Christian faith Scripture God christology the church and eschatology and evaluates Africa's political theologies giving special attention to theological approaches to African socialism and to South African black theology Marriage and Life After Death Anthony Onyekwe, 2015-01-29 In Africa the emphasis on family marriage and offspring suggest that there is a kind of an unwritten ancestral law that imposes on every male the duty of begetting a son The reason is because the core of African soteriology is centered on offspring The predicament of the childless couples therefore stems from the desire for immortality and salvation that culminates in the admission of the dead into the ancestral world This guest for salvation and immortality constitute social emotional psychological and spin couples	ritual problems for Christian as well as non Christian childless
