Practicing Discernment with Youth David F. White,2017 Practicing Discernment with Youth David F.

White,2018-09-13 Throughout history youth have been at the center of their communities energy and creativity including their efforts to seek faith and justice However today s adolescents have been relegated as passive learners and consumers lacking full adult power for longer than any age cohort in history This book traces the modern domestication of adolescence from its ancient roots through several key moments of its descent into passivity Empowering youth as agents of Christian faith in the world is not only a social need but is theologically warranted The church and the broken world need the gifts of youth This book elaborates four pedagogical movements listening understanding remembering dreaming and acting as key for noticing and nurturing the faith commitments of youth Too much of contemporary youth ministry represents an attempt to pump energy into our youth to get them excited about what we have to offer This approach attends to energies already present in the lived experiences and hidden commitments of youth and connects them to God s mission in the world

Poetic Youth Ministry Jason Lief,2015-04-22 Current research shows what many in the Christian community already know young people are leaving the church This raises important questions Why are young people leaving How can the church respond Some have responded to this issue out of a posture of fear and anxiety trying to find new ways to strengthen doctrinal beliefs or practices of faith formation and discipleship What if the best response isn t to strengthen our theology or tighten our hold on the lives of young people What if the best response is a posture of love that lets young people go Using the insights of philosopher Charles Taylor and theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer Poetic Youth Ministry argues that the church must take seriously the formative power of social and cultural patterns that shape the social imaginaries of young people Rather than seeing the problem as young people abandoning faith the Christian community should see the issue as young people exchanging one form of faith for another This allows the church to approach the issue from a posture of love calling young people to embrace their identity in the new humanity revealed in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ

Practicing Baptism Bård Eirik Hallesby Norheim,2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther s theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ s presence the present tense of baptism and Luther s idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther s theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism Faith Generation Nick Shepherd, 2016-08-18 The recent Church Growth Research see www.churchgrowthresearch.org.uk identifies that the successful transmission of faith to children and young people is a key factor in stemming decline and promoting growth This book explores the cultural and theological reasons as to why this is the case and makes research based recommendations for the faith formation of children and young people The central argument is that church communities need to engage in deliberate strategies that help foster intentional Christian Communities within which children and young people can form and sustain Christian identity

Youth Discipleship Brian J. Mahan, Michael Warren, David F. White, 2008 Youth ministry has increasingly lost touch with its origins in the way of Jesus and the social practices intrinsic to Christian discipleship and has instead substituted layers of Jesus talk middle class values fun and games and doses of warm fellow feeling Awakening Youth Discipleship articulates the history of this domestication of youth and ministry Mahan Warren and White tell a story of the ways in which our society has colluded to shape a domesticated adolescence The authors believe a Christian response to this challenge must be multilevel addressing the problem at three levels society church and individual The authors propose reclaiming practices of discernment that both engage congregations in social awareness and involve individuals in discerning fuller vocational opportunities than those allowed by popular cultural norms Awakening Youth Discipleship is a terrific troublesome hopeful book offered with characteristic thoughtfulness by three prophets in our midst Drawing from decades of teaching and research in youth ministry Brian Mahan Michael Warren and David White make a provocative case for youth ministry that practices as Daniel Berrigan puts it the upside down hermeneutics of Jesus Christ Awakening Youth Discipleship topples many of youth ministry's most sacred cows and offers strategies that help young people and the rest of us resist the deformative power of consumerism These views are seldom voiced in youth ministry but our ability to reflect Christ to and with young people absolutely depends upon hearing them Kenda Creasy Dean Associate Professor of Youth Church and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary and author of Practicing Passion Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church Eerdmans and Youth and the Church of Benign Whateverism Oxford Brian Mahan Mike Warren and David White invite us to engage in an increasingly rare and dangerous spiritual practice thinking Why do we define teenagers by what they consume Why does youth ministry feel like a finishing school for the middle class Who profits from keeping teenagers nice Where would Jesus shop Like Jesus the authors walk us up the steps of the sacred temples tune our ears to the clink of the money changers and then show us how easily the tables are flipped Awakening Youth Discipleship is a necessary read if youth workers are going to expose the sanctified greed passionate advertising and soulful materialism that keeps all of us young and old from entering the freedom of Jesus Mark Yaconelli author of Contemplative Youth Ministry Brian David and Michael have given us a real gift a pearl of great price As a father a teacher and a consultant I only wish I had this book years earlier
